Copy of a Letter inserted in the Hisbart Town Courier, of the 1st March, 1851, by Major J. Walch.

Margaret M'Couningan, nineteen years of age, residing at New Town, had been suffering from a violent rheumatic fever for upwards of two mouths, which had entirely deprived her of the use of her limbs; during this period she was under the care of the most eminent medical men in Hobart Town, and by them her care was considered hopeless. A friend prevailed upon her to try Holloway's celebrated Fills, which she consented to do, and in an incredible short space of time they effected a perfect cure.

Gentlemen: "Dunlap's Conveyancing and Forms" is a work of decided merit. I am glad to fine that it is to be reproduced, with many valuable additions. It should be in the hannes not only of lawyers and magistrates, but of the business community generally. There is scarcely a position in life in which a man will not occasionally find himself in need of the nanstance of such a work.

I hope the author may be abundantly renumerated for the carming and industry bestdwed upon it.

THE Undersigned having secured the exclusive Agency for L the sale of the above pamed Burlai Cases, for Eric County, and deciding the article one which depends solely upon its own merits would respectfully solicit an inspection of the same at his Ready-Made Coffin Ware-Room.

signed would here add that these cases are of a classic form, and corgaspand is shape, to the outlines of a human body, are highly ornamental, and regarded as less repulsive more tenutiful and unique in appearance, than any other stricle used as receptacles for the dead; they are made of the most imperishable materials, are enameted inside and out, so as not to rust or corrode and when concended tegether are perfectly air-tight, preventing the exhalation of offer sive gases, so that when desired the remains can be kept for weeks before burial, awaiting the arrival of absent friends; they are light and portable, at the same time being more or less curvilinear, they possess more than sufficient strength to resist all the pressure of gasess from the body, which they are subject to while in use; and bodies may be disintered even after a layse of, many jears, and removed to any part of the country, without the slightest disagreeable odor arising from them.

In the use of these Burial Cases, the gratifying reflection is afforded to surviving friends and relatives, that the mortal remains forded to surviving friends and relatives, that the mortal remains of those once dearly beloved are enclosed and deposited where they will remain in peace, free from the irruption of water, the depre latious of vermin, and comparatively beyond the unhallowed desceration of dissectors, and will be permitted to undergo a transformation, or return to their native elements, from natu-
