To Professor Holloway, Str—At the age of 18 my wife (who is no 41) caught a violent cold, which settled in her legs, and ever since that time they have been more or less sore, and greatly inflamed. Helyngonies were distracting, and for months together she was deprived entirely of rest and sleep. Every reinedy that medical men advised was tried, but without effect: her health suffaced agreements and the street of the latent street left. medical lines advised was tried, but without effect: her health suffered severely, and the state of hit legs was attrible. I had often read your advectisements, and advised her to try your Pills and Olintment; and, as a last resource, after every other remedy had proved useless, she constituted to do so. She communed six weeks ago, and, strange by relate, is now in good health. Her legs are painless, without seam or sear, and steep is sound and undisturbed. Could you have a thressed the sufferings of my undisturbed. Could you have a timesed the sufferings of my wife during the 43 years, and courrest them with her pleasant enjoyment of health, you would indeed feel delighted in having been the means of so greatly allevalung the sufferings of a fellow creature. The publishers have already received from nearly all of the President Judges of our State, and from other gentleman eminent in the legal profession, their opinions of the work, which are of a highly complimentary nature. The following are selected from a large number of an equally avorable character—

Wellst crough, April 6 1832.

Gentlemen: The collections of court forms for conveyancing, &c., which had been in use previous to the publication of Dunlap's work in 1245, needed revision to make them convenient, and to adapt them to changes which legislation had rendered necessary in the practice in the courts in Pennsylvania.

Your edition of that work therefore received, as it merited, the approbation of the legal profession, and supplied a want which was felt by business men generally throughout the State. DUNLAP'S BOOK OF FORMS!

Your cultion of that work therefore received, as it merited, the approbation of the legal profession, and supplied a want which was felt by business men generally throughout the State.

After the numerous testimonials which you have received from comment judges, in respect to the usefulness as develoced of that work, commendation of it from the world be rightly remained. I may be permitted, however, to remark that I approve on the general character and arrangement of the work, and, having exmined a portion of the new edition which you are publishing. It may add that the author has greatly enlarged and improved his lists edition, and that, when published, his book will be the most convenient and useful one of the kind estant.

Messre: E. C. & J. Bi 'die, R. G. WHITE.

Gentlemen: "Dunlap's Conveyancing and Forus" is a work of decided merat. I am g : d to find that it is to be reproduced, with many valuable additions. It should be in the hands not only of lawyers and imagistrates, but of the briness community generality. There is scarcely a position or hie in which a man will not occasionally find hauself in need of the assistance of such a work. I hope the author may be abundantly renumerated for the earning and indistry bestowed upon it.

With great reaject, jours, &c.

Messes, L.C. & J. Biddle.

Greensburgh, April 9, 1852.

Gentlemen: You have favored me with the printed sheets, from page 9 to 130 inclusive, of the second edition of Mr. Dunlap's Book of Forus. I am pleased to learn that a second edition of his work is about leng issued. It has been, and how is, one of the best works of the kind in the lands of the profession, and is evidently much improved by the author's revision and additions. evidently much improved by the author's revision and additions.

I have the pleasure of an acquaintaire with Mr. Dunlap He If necessary, is a gentlemen whose respectable professional attainments and frecteure. methodical habit of mind fit him well to be the buthor of such a work. I shall not hesitate to recommend it to the gentiemen of the Bor in the 10th district. Very respectfully, &c., Merses, E. C. & J. Biddle. J. M. BURRELL.

Gentlemen: Important changes in our statutes, since the publication of "Dunlap's Conveyancing and Forms," steined to call for some cular general of that excellent and highly useful work.—
The edition which you are about to publish, cusbodying as it does a very large amount of new and varied matter, and being so well adapted to general and present wants, cannot fail to be greeted with a cordial welcome by the profession.

A familiar acquaintance with the work, and a careful examination of the sheets of the forthcoming edition, challe me to recommend it, with great confidence, as a book which should be in the hands of every servicener, and have an early place in the library of every gentleman engaged in the practice of the law.

Yery respectfully, yours &c..

Messrs, E. C. & J. Biddle.
