REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

For Governor, Wm. A. Stone, of Allegheny. For Lieutenant-Governor, J. P. S. Gobin, of Lebanon. For Secretary of Internal Affairs, Joseph W. Latta, of Philadelphia.

For Judge of Superior Court, William M. Porter, of Philadelphia. For Congress-at-Large, Galusia A. Grow, of Susquehanna, Samuel A. Davenport, of Erie.

For President Judge, B. W. Green, of Cameron. (Subject to the decision of the Republican District Convention.)

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

The committee appointed by the last Republican county convention to examine into and report upon the adoption of the "Crawford County System" of conducting primary elections, met at the Warner House yesterday and organized by electing Capt. C. F. Barclay President and A. C. Blum, Secretary.

Those who are predicting a revolt against the Republican party this fall, will do well to read the following from State Senator Wm. Flynn, of Pittsburg, who has been an active member of the anti-Quay faction.

The Press fully agrees with Mr. W. H. Baker, editor of the Ridgway Advocate, who says, in speaking of the nomination of Hon. W. A. Stone:

"Elk county Republicans had a decided preference for Hon. C. W. Stone as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor. This preference was due not only to the clean record and fine ability of Mr. Stone as a statesman, but also because of local pride in the northwest and the further fact that Hon. C. W. Stone has done many official favors during his career in Congress for Elk county Republicans.

A Great Republican Year.

The contest over the Democratic nomination for Governor in Pennsylvania is decidedly amusing, says the Philadelphia Inquirer. If the Democrats nominate Guffey he will be cut by his own party because he represents all the Bryan heresies.

Speaker Reed and Colonel W. A. Stone are warm personal friends and news comes from Washington that the Speaker will take the stump in Pennsylvania in behalf of Colonel Stone and the Republican ticket—Bradford Star.

Col. Stone is the kind of a man people delight to honor. There is no better Republican and no clearer man in Pennsylvania than our candidate, and there is no reason why every true Republican should not support him.—Indiana Progress.

Colonel Stone's nomination was made by the people. They spoke here Senator Quay. Like the true Republican he is, he simply got in line with the Stone procession, which is marching on to victory.—Mt. Carmel News

It should be remembered that the present national administration has just right to demand continued and hearty support in carrying out its policy and Pennsylvania should lead in this respect.—Hazleton Sentinel.

In the battle for the nomination for Governor, vigorous and at times bitter, not a word has been said reflecting upon the integrity and high character of Col. Stone. He will make an excellent Governor, and will be elected by a rousing majority.—Franklin Press.

His many years in public life have given him a wide knowledge of public men. Physically and intellectually Col. Stone is a man of large dimensions, and a candidate behind whom the Republican hosts of Pennsylvania will gladly go to battle.—Towanda Journal.

Confidence in the Republican administration at Washington has brought about this overwhelming victory. In times of war petty strife is eliminated and the great Republican vote stands by its President and the policy of the administration. The Republican people understand that McKinley must not only be endorsed, but that Republicans must be sent to the United States Senate and House of Representatives in order to support him fully.

The State Ticket.

The ticket is one that every Republican can support with a clear conscience.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

Republicans all over the State are rallying around the banner borne aloft by Colonel W. A. Stone. The usual majority may be expected.—Williamsport Gazette and Bulletin.
