BRIEF MENTION.

The tax collectors have posted their annual notices. The delightful showers on Monday were very thankfully received. Near one of the juvenile forts down town is this sign: "Keep off the grass; its Dewey."—Phila. Record.

Friday afternoon prayer meeting at Mrs. Joseph Newton's on Fifth street at 2:00 o'clock. Sisters, please come. Pretty girls are employed as conductors on the street cars in Chillicothe, Ohio. The young men of the town are not riding cycles as much as they were.

Sanctioned bicycle races will be held upon the Westport bicycle track, August 11th. Riders desiring to compete may obtain application blanks of Dr. J. K. Gilmore, Westport, Pa. A personal item in last week's PRESS, relative to the visit of Mrs. Ryan and others at Bellfast, N. Y., should, have been credited to McKean Miner. Our sedate friend Olson will please accept our apology.

If any of our readers can spare the time for a trip to the Sea Shore this season, they will have the opportunity to go on Pennsylvania Railroad Excursion, Thursday, August 4th.

"Out of this war," predicts General Benjamin Harrison, ex-President, "will come increased prosperity and a more united people, possessed of a mighty power that will insure protection and safety for all time."

The Pennsylvania Railroad will continue to pay its employees by checks, though under the revenue law it will cost them over $1,000 a month for stamps, as something over 50,000 stamps will be used.

The rates for Pennsylvania Railroad Excursion to the Sea Shore on Thursday, August 4th, allow Atlantic City passengers to go either via Market Street Wharf, Philadelphia, or via the Delaware River Bridge Route without change.

Nearly a hundred Emporiumites attended the game of base ball at St. Marys, last Sunday. The game was between Emporium and St. Marys teams but, by the intervention of Providence, only one inning was played. We are glad to hear that the Emporium nine will refuse to play ball on the Sabbath hereafter. By adhering to this resolution they will receive the support of our citizens—otherwise not.

It is understood in political circles that Hon. C. W. Stone has decided to nominate Hon. H. H. North, as postmaster for Bradford. Mr. North says he has received no notice of his nomination, but certain Republicans who are on the inside, claim that they have known for two weeks past that Mr. North would receive the appointment. The commission of Postmaster Ossensbeck expires August 1.—Bradford Era.

A Proposed Extension.

W. L. Malin, of Bellefonte, representing the Central Pennsylvania Telephone and Supply Company, has been in Ridgway several days conferring with Manager Erdman in regard to the advisability of extending the company's lines to Emporium. These two gentlemen have been over the ground thoroughly between Ridgway and Emporium, and are giving the matter much consideration. The citizens of Emporium are anxious for such an extension of the lines, and on the surface the enterprise looks as if it would be a paying one.

Connections would be made with the several towns along the route, and thus much extra territory would be available to those already using 'phones.

The company is also thinking of extending a new line to Johnsonburg, and putting in an exchange there similar to the one at Ridgway. These improvements would be very much appreciated by the people of Ridgway, as well as those situated in other parts of the country.

The company already have lines extending to almost every township, including connections with the long distance telephone lines. Although this last feature is a great benefit in a commercial sense, the addition of any new lines would be something very much needed and doubtless would be much used.

If the company decides to make these improvements in the near future and it now looks as if it would be a paying venture, an increase in business would probably be the result on the lines already in operation. The addition of an exchange at Johnsonburg would greatly facilitate business, and enable better and quicker connections with all parts of the county.—Ridgway Democrat.

Rich Valley Notes.

Mrs. William Carter is quite sick again. Berries, berry pickers and rattlesnakes are plenty. Murdick McNeil had the misfortune to cut his foot quite badly a week ago. A. O. Swartwood and family visited at Smethport a couple of days last week. C. L. Woodward, of Phillipsville, made a short visit at Nelson Lewis' last week.

Morris Lewis is very sick at present writing and there is but little hopes of his recovery.

We had a refreshing shower Sunday afternoon for which we were very thankful for it was very much needed. In the upper end of the valley there was a severe hail storm, breaking window lights and doing other damage.

There are several cases of mumps in the valley at present. Robert McManus is very sick with them, and several others are afflicted. ADINA. July 25, 1898.

Sinnemahoning News.

G. B. Barclay visited Lock Haven last week and purchased a fine team of horses.

Jones' show gave an entertainment (?) here one night last week and was well patronized—bald heads occupying front seats.

S. S. Miller, of Driewood, was in town last week taking in the big mill and all the side shows and perhaps getting political pointers from Joe M. and other congenial spirits.

E. E. Shaw, whose house was destroyed by fire, has decided to move back to his old home at Holton, Me. "Buckley" has been one of our most respected citizens for several years and both he and his estimable wife have many warm friends here who will much regret this loss to our community, but as they are bound to be patriotic and "remember the Maine" of their youths, the best wishes of a host of friends will follow them. Arrowsmith, Ill., Jan. 23, 1897. Dear Sirs:—I have been bothered for 15 years with constipation and I have tried many preparations during that time.
