NO. 24.

EDITOR'S NOTICE.

WHEN you see this item marked with an X across its face you will know that your subscription is due, or past due. Your name will be found printed on each copy of the PRESS, as you receive it and gives the last date to which you have paid. Our terms are $2.00 if not paid in advance, $1.50 in advance. Many, very many, of our patrons allow their subscriptions to run year after year. This we are unable to stand. It requires money to purchase paper and pay employees and we must insist upon the payment of subscriptions due us. We have been patient, but "patience has ceased to be a virtue," and we now propose to weed out all those subscribers who show no disposition to pay for their paper. We labor hard to give the public a good journal and while a majority of our patrons realize that fact and pay for it there are hundreds who never give the matter a passing thought, taking it for granted that we will always send them the PRESS, whether we receive pay or not. We have had an elegant sufficiency of that kind of kindness. If you want this paper pay for it—if you don't want it, stop it and pay what you owe. We know money is scarce in this county, yet we also know that our delinquents could pay if they desired—a part at least.

Some War Pick-Ups.
A miniature Morro Castle has been erected at the Thousand Islands.
The Oregon fired 1776 shells in the Santiago fight, and would have brought the count up to 1898 if necessary.

Sam W. Small, the evangelist, formerly of Georgia, has been appointed chaplain of the Third Regiment United States Volunteer Engineers.

A company of weaponed and rough-riding Oklahoma girls want to be off to the war. It is likely, however, sagely remarks the St. Louis Post Dispatch, that they will be left at home to marry and give the army soldiers in the good old-fashioned way.

The leggings issued to the soldiers of the First Kentucky regiment at Chickamauga were all No. 3's—the largest size. One fellow who seemed lost in his pair exclaimed: "Say, will you give me an old pair of suspenders? I want to hold my leggings up."

The total enlisted strength of the regular army to date is about 44,000 men, being about 18,000 short of its legal complement.

The total strength of the army, regular and volunteer, is 227,000 as now organized.

Uncle Sam's war mules and horses have cost him $3,000,000.

In the opinion of the Chicago Record "Santiago has not fallen. It has arisen."

The popular song among the Eighth Regiment boys at Chickamauga now is:

We fall in line eight times a day,
We drill in sun and rain,
And pay two cents a day to read
What others do to Spain.

I was talking with ex-Secretary Foster the other day, says a writer in the Postoria (O.) Review, when he told an interesting story of Col. Roosevelt, which is timely. When Mr. Foster was secretary, Mr. Roosevelt was at the head of the civil service commission. From that fact he was rather well acquainted with the guiding spirit in the "Rough Riders." Mr. Foster tells the following of Roosevelt, which gives an idea of the sort of a man he is. Roosevelt is rich, and in Wyoming he has a ranch and some ten thousand acres given to cattle and sheep raising. Every summer he goes out West and spends a month or so. When he first began these trips the cow punchers of the plains had but little use for him, not being averse at all to showing their dislike. One day one of the cowboys called him a dude, and said he ought to be whipped. Roosevelt didn't care about being called a dude but he wouldn't stand the whipping part. "We'll settle that matter right here and at once. Pick your man, and we'll go to work at it," said Teddy. The biggest, burliest of the cowboys was chosen to administer the whipping. The representative of the effete East and the type of the Western plains went at it hammer and tongs, and in about two minutes the latter had more than he wanted and cried for quarter. Beneath Roosevelt's clothes was hidden lots of muscle gained at the college gymnasium, and under his hat had been stored the science of the art of defence, which was unknown to the cowboys' rough and tumble scraps. Ever since that time, all the cowboys on Roosevelt's ranch have been his warmest admirers.

A Fine Sermon.
Those fortunate enough to attend the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning, heard a very able sermon on the present war between the U. S. and Spain, by Rev. Robt. McCaslin. We regret very much that we were unable to publish the discourse in this week's issue.

"Stalled" a Train.
Tuesday evening special officer Reid, of the P. R. R. Co., brought Thos. O'Neal, of Driftwood, before Justice Larrabee, on the charge of setting brakes on train No. 60, at Driftwood, early last Sunday morning. After hearing the evidence, Mr. O'Neal was bound over for his appearance at Sept. term of court in the sum of $200 bail, in default of which, he was referred to the Mundy House as a convenient place to "put up at" until court shall convene.

Stole a Horse and Buggy.
On Friday evening, constable Harry Hemphill received a warrant issued at Clearfield, with instructions to arrest Wm. Bush for stealing a horse and buggy at Clearfield on the night of July 2nd, also to arrest Elisha Bush, charged with receiving and concealing stolen property. The latter was taken before Justice Larrabee where he entered bail for his appearance at the next term of court at Clearfield.

In default of bail Wm. Bush was taken to Clearfield by Mr. Hemphill and committed to the county jail to await the action of the grand jury.

Piano Tuner.
Prof. O. B. Hummel the piano tuner is in town this week, but not on his regular fall tuning trip. He sells the Brett Piano which he claims to be the best piano made on account of their micrometer system. You will say the same when you see it, as they have done away with the old style of fastening the strings. Then talk about their fine action which means so much while playing. Write O. B. Hummel, 318 Bellefonte avenue, Lock Haven, Pa.

Heat nor dampness will not effect the tuning, of the Brett Piano.

MRS. WHITE AND FAMILY.
Brady-Powell.
A pretty wedding ceremony was solemnized at St. Mark's church on Monday morning, at 8:00 o'clock, when Mr. M. P. BRADY, of Ypsilanti, Mich., led to the altar Miss SARA POWELL, of this place. Mr. Benjamin Fritz, of St. Marys, acted as best man and Miss Celia Hogan as bridesmaid. After the ceremony an elegant wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home on Fourth street, and after receiving the congratulations and kind wishes of their many friends the happy couple departed on the noon train for Ypsilanti, Mich., where they will go to housekeeping at once.

The bride is one of Emporium's accomplished and highly esteemed young ladies. The groom is one of Ypsilanti's solid business men and enjoys the respect and confidence of all who know him.

PROMINENT CITIZEN PASSES AWAY.

DUNCAN S. McDONALD IS DEAD.

DUNCAN SAMUEL McDONALD, is no more. He peacefully passed away last Thursday night, surrounded by his family, aged 70 years, six months and two days. Mr. McDonald has been a great sufferer for three years, yet bore his affliction without complaint. He was born in Canada, Feb. 2, 1828 and came to Cameron county, in 1862 and engaged in the lumber business. In 1868 he moved to Emporium and purchased the McDougall & Mann property and actively engaged in business. From that time until within a year or two he gave his personal attention to his business interests and prospered. During the many years we had been intimately acquainted with the deceased we had learned to respect and honor him for the very many excellent traits of character. No citizen of Emporium stood better with our people and bore the good-will of more, in all walks of life, than Duncan McDonald. Of a kind, sympathetic disposition, he was always assisting the needy and all worthy objects had his cordial support and financial assistance. He assisted liberally in building our churches and the various industries received, promptly, aid from his purse. The best we can say of our departed friend is, that he was an honest man—truthful, charitable, kind. When grim death claimed him he was prepared and ready to cross to the other shore to meet the loved one, and dwell in peace and happiness for all time. Peace to his ashes.

THE FUNERAL.
The funeral took place from the family residence last Monday morning, at 9:00 o'clock, and the very large attendance of friends from neighboring towns attested the great respect in which the deceased was held. Many beautiful offerings of flowers were sent to the residence by relatives, friends and members of the family. After a short ceremony at the home, Funeral Director Rishell, who had so thoughtfully and well arranged every particular, prepared for the removal of the remains to St. Mark's Catholic Church, where High Mass was said for the peaceful repose of the dead. The great church edifice was crowded with our people, gathered to pay that last respect due to a friend and neighbor. Father McAdam, of Johnsonburg, an old friend of the deceased, conducted the services and preached an appropriate sermon from Gen. 3:29: "In the sweat of thy brow shall thou eat bread until thou return to the earth, out of which thou wast taken; for dust thou art and unto dust thou shalt return." The Rev. gentleman feelingly referred to the great friendship that had existed between the deceased and himself and spoke many words of well merited praise to the memory of the departed. The remarks of Father McAdam were very appropriate to the occasion and coming as they did from an old friend and spiritual adviser, were well received. After the close of the address the friends took a last look upon the face of the dead and the great concourse of friends silently wended its way to St. Mark's Cemetery and the remains tenderly deposited in the vault, beside the departed wife, by M. C. Tulis, S. S. Hackett, Riley Warner, I. M. Reynolds, M. M. Larrabee and Geo. A. Walker—old friends and neighbors.

Thus closes the earthly career of one of our oldest citizens and leads us to remark that the more than ordinary respect our people show to the memory of the dead is very commendable and must be very comforting to the bereaved family.

FRIENDS FROM ABROAD.
The following friends and relatives from out of town attended the funeral: Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Good, (daughter), of Ridgway; T. J. Riley, Miss A. McDonald, Fred McVicker, Frank Fox, Driftwood; Michael O'Connor, John Haley, Ridgway; Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Reed, Rathbun.

Sudden Death of a Former Emporium Boy.

On Saturday morning the sad intelligence reached here of the sudden death of Frank W. T. White, at Buffalo, and the evening papers confirmed the report by stating that he had died of heart failure while in the act of taking a bath at his home about 8:00 o'clock that morning.

The deceased was twenty-seven years of age and came to Emporium when he was very young, where he resided until about six months ago, when he went to Buffalo and accepted a position as night engineer at Salen's packing house, where he was employed up to the hour of his death. While a resident here he attended the High School under Prof. H. H. Webber and was considered one of the brightest pupils in his class, especially distinguishing himself in anything pertaining to mathematics. When he was about seventeen years old he entered the employ of the Emporium Milling Co., as engineer at the Emporium Roller Mills, which position he continued to hold, with entire satisfaction to his employers, until his removal to Buffalo last January. Frank was an industrious young man and his genial, kind-hearted disposition won for him a host of friends and made him popular among his associates. Upon him devolved the responsibility of having to provide for the home, he being the chief support of a dependent mother who has the sincere sympathy of the entire community in her great affliction. He was a member of the Mountaineer Hose Co., Excelsior Band and the M. E. Sunday School Orchestra, at this place, and in each of these organizations his presence will be sadly missed. He leaves an aged mother, two sisters and four brothers to mourn his early demise. Deceased was supposed to have been in the best of health, with the exception of a slight derangement of the kidneys, for which he was being treated by Dr. Edward Bair. He was engaged to be married within a few weeks to Miss Nellie Condon, of Williamsport, formerly of this place; the grief-stricken young lady being present at the funeral.

The funeral was held from his late home at 102 Orlando Street, Buffalo, on Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock and was largely attended. Rev. Geo. B. Newcomb, pastor of the Filmore Avenue Baptist Church officiated, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Patterson, of the Seneca Street M. E. Church, and the singing, which was very impressive, was beautifully rendered by a quartette of young ladies from the choir of the Filmore Avenue Baptist Church. The floral offerings were very beautiful; especially the touching remembrances of Emporium friends and of his associates in Buffalo. The pall-bearers were all brother engineers and members of Lodge No. 16 National Association of Stationery Engineers, with which order the deceased was about to associate himself. The bereaved family have the sympathy of our entire community and will receive all the aid and comfort possible at the hands of many Emporiumites now residing in Buffalo, as well as the many friends which the kind, loving heart and sweet disposition of the deceased had won for him among strangers.

Death of John R. Chadwick.
One of the best known men in McKean county was John R. Chadwick of Keating township, who died on Thursday last and was buried in Smethport yesterday. The funeral was held in the Methodist church, Rev. Dr. Walker officiating, and was largely attended by the citizens of that place and surrounding county. In the "History of McKean county," compiled some eight years ago, it is alleged that Mr. Chadwick was born in Williamsport, in 1825. If that was the case his parents must have been temporary residents there because his father moved to Shippen, which was then a township of McKean county, now of Cameron, in 1811. His father was a mere boy when his grandfather settled at the mouth of North Creek and cleared up a farm.—Kane Republican.

Death of P. W. Furlong.
Mr. P. W. Furlong, formerly yardmaster in the W. N. Y. & P. yard at this place and who served one term as Burgess and chief of the fire department of Emporium died at his home in Painesville, Ohio., on Saturday evening, July 30th.

N. Seger is closing out a nice line of negligee shirts this week. They are going cheap.

Next Sunday, Aug 14th, will be a day of unusual interest to the members of the Methodist Episcopal church. A large number of the probationers on the list will be received into full connection. All welcome.
