An Issue of "Imperialism."

The Democratic party, both in State and nation, is hard pressed for an issue, says the Philadelphia Inquirer. The old delusion that the price of silver is now acknowledged to be but the disordered fancy of a diseased imagination.

Imperialism, is it? And what is imperialism? Why, it is nothing more or less than a very creditable belief on the part of most American citizens that we should not give up the territory which we have captured and retire into our own shell.

We need the Hawaiian Islands. After the experience we have had in the Pacific, and after we have put the value of the islands to a full test we have annexed them. This is imperialism. They are necessary to our safety and are of great importance strategically.

Puerto Rico comes to us because it is not safe to permit any Spanish stronghold to remain in the West Indies. The island will become a naval outpost. It may prove to be invaluable. Every argument favors its absorption by us. But this is imperialism.

All of the revenue cutters that were transferred from the Treasury Department to the Navy Department at the beginning of the war, have been ordered back into the Treasury Service, and they will, as fast as possible, resume their peaceful avocation of watching for violators of the tariff laws.

President McKinley took occasion in a letter declining an invitation from Gen. Breckenridge to review the troops at Chickamauga Park, because of his inability to get away from Washington, to say a few words that will do much to soften the bitter disappointment of the thousands of volunteers who had no opportunity to do any fighting. These words were: "The highest tribute that can be paid to the soldier is to say that he performed his full duty. The field of duty is determined by his government, and wherever that chance to be is the place of honor. All have helped in the great cause, whether in camp or battle, and when peace comes all will be alike entitled to the nation's gratitude."

Gov. Otero, of New Mexico, who is visiting Washington, said: "President McKinley's administration is immensely popular with us, and right here I want to say that New Mexico is as loyal and patriotic as any state or territory in the Union. Because many of our people are of Spanish descent, a lot of foolish stuff has been written accusing them of siding with Spain. A greater slander was never perpetrated. Our territory raised five companies of Rough Riders, three of which did magnificent service in the hard fighting in front of Santiago. The captain of one of them, Max Luna, of Spanish lineage, especially distinguished himself in the charge at San Juan. It was reported that he was killed, but he is very much alive, and it wouldn't be astonishing if his Republican friends insisted upon nominating and electing him to Congress." None of the volunteers are likely to be mustered out of service for some time to come. This statement is made upon Secretary Alger's authority. While the matter has not been definitely determined, the Secretary thinks that the garrisons that will have to be maintained in Cuba and Porto Rico, will be made up entirely of volunteers, divided as far as possible between the troops of all the states, the regulars being returned to the forts and army posts from which they were taken. As yet, no one can do more than guess at the number of men we shall send to Cuba when the Spanish troops are withdrawn, and unless there is absolute necessity for sending them before, the President does not wish our troops to go until cool weather.

While there is no reason to believe that the present temporary peace will not be permanent, no chances are to be taken. Each vessel in our Navy, that is where it can be done, is to be thoroughly overhauled and put in first-class fighting condition as fast as the work can be done.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

No other country ever did, and it is not likely that any other country ever will, in the short space of three months and a half fight such a remarkable war as the U. S. has just fought to a successful close. It was one line of successes, without even a single set back from Dewey's victory in Manila Bay to the acceptance of the terms of peace, by the French Ambassador, authorized to act for Spain. Without detracting in the slightest degree from the honors a grateful country are paying the heroes who participated in the fighting, it is well to call attention to the fact that there is a man in Washington, to whose iron will and sleepless energy more credit is due for the glorious results and ending of the war than to any other single individual. That man is William McKinley, who has shown himself worthy to be the Chief Executive of the greatest and strongest nation that the world has ever seen, by gaining the admiration, love and confidence of our own people, and the respect of the entire civilized world. He has raised the United States to a higher position than it has ever occupied in the eyes of the world, and yet, he is as unostentatious as he was when serving in the house, and has no pride other than that which every man has who conscientiously performs his duty. Every American can point with pride to President McKinley and say to less favored nations: This is the sort of a man that a free country produces at its best.
