Not Up to Date. The Democratic conferees of the 27th Congressional district Wednesday afternoon rolled a barrel into the campaign by giving Hon. Joseph C. Sibley a unanimous nomination for Congress.

The decision of the conference is complimentary to Mr. Sibley and one that will commend itself from a Democratic point of view.

There not much likelihood that enough Republicans will repudiate their own ticket to elect the versatile politician from Franklin, for there is not the least reason why they should.

Personally Mr. Sibley is a genial gentleman, but he has had his day. As a poser he has been successful to a certain extent, but these methods have done their best for Mr. Sibley's ambition.

What issue the Democratic nominee will bring into the campaign is a matter of interest, for his old theories have been exploded and the people are weary of the diversion of rainbow chasing.

He is a politician and to say that he has been an office seeker is but the truth. What he could not get at home he has gone abroad to seek.

If Mr. Sibley shall be able to persuade the people of the district that he is the man who ought to represent them in Congress he will be entitled to the honor, and will have accomplished great things.

Mr. Sibley must have Republican support to win the election. What great thing has he ever done that entitles him to the support of the Republicans in the four counties that comprise the district?

What would he do to please the Republicans of the district, if sent to Washington? He would antagonize the administration, but this is not what the majority of the voters of the district would wish him to do.

Mr. Sibley's political ideas are altogether out of sympathy with the principles of the Republican party. His advocacy of all sorts of issues and theories in the past will not strengthen him at this particular time.

His friends are relying on disaffection in Venango county they will certainly be disappointed in the result.

The keynotes that Mr. Sibley has sounded in the past will be found to be altogether out of harmony with the call of the times.

The arguments with which he lured the multitudes in the days gone by have been riddled by the facts of history, made since.

Hon. Joseph C. Sibley is not the man to represent the 27th district in Congress. He is not up to date. —Warren Mirror.

Prosperity Seen by Perkins.

Eli Perkins writes to the N. Y. Sun that to see the standing crops of corn, wheat and hay in Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska and Colorado seems like a dream.

I have passed through all these States, which are the granaries of the Nation, within 36 hours. In 20 years I have not seen such crops —such indications of prosperity.

Rains have been copious from Ohio to the Rocky mountains. Even about Greeley, in Colorado, Colorado wheat, corn and fruits are looking magnificent.

The wheat is generally harvested in Colorado, Kansas and Texas, but reapers, looking like wabbling windmills, are revolving all over Nebraska.

"Crops good?" I shouted to an old farmer who had just started four reapers into a 50 acre wheat field away out at Oxford, west of Kearney. "Good," he said.

"Good? I should smile!" and then his eyes, nose and mouth collapsed into a remember-the-Maine grin. Then, as the train started off he screamed: "And we've got the hogs to eat the corn, too!"

Last year Nebraska had few hogs, and millions of bushels of old corn fill great bins around the railroad stations. At one station there are 30 bins, each 200 feet long.

There are no tramps in the West now, where any man can get $1.50 a day in the harvest field. Every little factory is going, too. I found a new knife and scissors factory in old Macon, Mo., and 100 Missourians were each making $2 a day.

All the potteries in New Jersey, Ohio, Illinois and Indiana are at work, and the glass and tin factories in Indiana are not able to fill their orders.

Great oil and gas fields are being worked in Kansas and Texas. Cotton looks superb all over the South, and 186 cotton factories in North Carolina and 96 in South Carolina are spinning it.

With wonderful crops, a $300,000,000 balance in our favor on our last year's foreign trade, and the army capturing enough territory to pay its own expenses, Americans should be happy.

The Assistant Democrats. The so-called Business Men's League is to hold a meeting in this city next week and prepare to go into the campaign to the detriment of the Republican party.

In some instances the League already has joined hands with the Democracy. Of course, the name Business Men's League is a misnomer. There are few business men left in it, and, in fact, there are very few business men who would care, after the experience they have had, to aid the fortunes of the Democratic party in any way.

A movement conducted solely for personal spite, personal revenge and personal aggrandisement can find very little sympathy in Pennsylvania.

Paste This in Your Hat. An exchange well says: Fault-finding is not difficult. A dog that was hatched to a lawn mower once stopped pulling to bark at a man who was passing close to him.

The boy who was guiding the mower said: "Don't mind the dog; he is just barking for an excuse to rest. It is easier to bark than pull a machine." It is easier to bark than to work. It is easier to criticize than to correct; to correct some one else than one's self.

Remarkable Rescue. Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse.

He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose.

She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework and is as sound as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at L. Taggart's drug store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

A fund is being raised in Ireland in aid of the Healyite lambs who sit in Parliament. Robbed the Grave. A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition.

My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. The Penna's Dyspepsia Cure, as the name implies is simply for Dyspepsia and indigestion. This is a preparation long and known to America's best physicians who have accepted authority on all medical questions. If not satisfied after using one bottle your money will be refunded by R. C. Dodson.
