REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

- For Governor, Wm. A. Stone, of Allegheny. For Lieutenant-Governor, J. P. S. Gobin, of Lebanon. For Secretary of Internal Affairs, Joseph W. Latta, of Philadelphia.

Gen. Miles, has probably concluded to go into limited partnership with those Kansas Populists who have announced their purpose to raise less corn and more hell.

Honored the Rough Riders.

An officer of Colonel Roosevelt's rough riders invited a dozen of the genuine cowboys of the regiment to go to a Broadway theatre with him last week.

"I can't sell you a seat as the house is full, but you are welcome to take your men in, and if they can find any vacant seats, let them take them."

The cavalymen filed in and stood up in the back of the theatre for a few minutes. Then a man who had an orchestra chair got up, and, walking back to the soldiers, took one of them by the arm and led him to his seat.

The Assault on Republicanism.

Any stranger reading the reports of the meetings of the so-called Business Men's League would naturally suppose that Pennsylvania was an unsafe place to live in.

Facts About Our Camps.

For weeks the newspapers have been filled with complaints about our various military camps. Some of these reports were well founded and many were grossly exaggerated.

amount of a single dollar. And what is the object of these attacks found upon an exaggerated imagination? Simply to break down the Republican party at a time when every Republican force in State and nation is needed to grapple with the great and new issues which are opening up as a result of the war.

Is any Republican voter who knows that his party is not corrupt, who realizes the importance of keeping Pennsylvania in complete touch with the national administration, is any such voter going to be turned aside by reiterations of the virulent abuse that has been overwhelmed at the polls by a free and independent people who would have none of it?

The League has had two experiences, and deserted by its president, who is presumably no longer in sympathy with its aims, is about to start on a third campaign. What it will do beyond making its openly avowed alliances with every dissatisfied political element in Pennsylvania perhaps it does not know itself, but the less said about its previous campaigns the better for it.

We do not believe that the people of Pennsylvania are in a mood to listen to campaign orators who deal in personal spite and try to promote personal interests by outrageous assaults upon everything Republican.

On the whole, therefore, we reaffirm that conditions are not so bad as have been painted and not much worse than was naturally to have been expected. In saying this we do not in any wise mean to say that there have not been grave abuses, grave errors of omission and commission, and that for some of the things that have occurred there is punishment due some persons and the offenders ought to be sought out and justice meted out to them.

is now apparent. There are a great many things that we learn by experience. We have learned some bitter lessons that we shall not soon forget, but it is doubtful whether we could have avoided all the mistakes that have been made.

When war was declared in April we had an army of 25,000 men scattered all over the country. There was absolutely no general staff and the regular staff was inadequate because the officers lacked experience. There were few posts where so much as one regiment was collected and at most posts there were one or two companies.

It has been so long since we had a war that most people have forgotten what it means. When General Sherman said "War is hell" he knew what he was talking about. There were many people who did not believe this.

On the whole, therefore, we reaffirm that conditions are not so bad as have been painted and not much worse than was naturally to have been expected. In saying this we do not in any wise mean to say that there have not been grave abuses, grave errors of omission and commission, and that for some of the things that have occurred there is punishment due some persons and the offenders ought to be sought out and justice meted out to them.

Wonders have been accomplished, and what has been done that is praiseworthy should be taken into consideration alongside of that which is so deplorable. We cannot conduct war as if it were a picnic. We have done better than reasonably could have been expected, but we must do better next time.

In a New Field.

Carpet Bagger J. C. Sibley, after having the prongs of defeat thrust into him in the Erie-Crawford district, has bobbed up again as the Demo-Pop-Free Silver candidate in the 27th congressional district, composed of Warren, McKean, Venango and Cameron counties.

The Derrick is the organ of the Standard Oil Company, and Sibley is one of its members. Sibley's suit against the Derrick, for libel, is now explained.

It will require more than "brass, belly and brains" to pull "Honest Joseph" through and defeat Mr. Stone. Sibley's refusal to be a candidate in this district caused much wailing among the political leg-pullers and roosters.

Thus it comes to pass that Mr. Sibley, for once in his political life, is nominated in a district wherein he is a voter—away over in the jungles where the whangdoodle mourneth, &c.—North East Breeze.

The Congressional Aspect.

The Philadelphia Press says: "The northwestern tier is a discouraging section for ambitious Democrats. In the Erie-Crawford district 'Silver Joe' Sibley could not be flattered into entering the congressional fight against George H. Higgins and it took a dragnet for the Bryanites to fish out ex-Mayor A. Gaston, of Meadville, so that a name for Congress might appear on the Democratic ticket."

A CRITICAL TIME

During the Battle of Santiago. SICK OR WELL, A RUSH DAY AND NIGHT.

The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes. Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day. P. E. Butler, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago, de Cuba, on July 23d, says: We all had diarrhoea in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect saviour of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front.
