REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

- For Governor, Wm. A. Stone, of Allegheny. For Lieutenant-Governor, J. P. S. Gobin, of Lebanon. For Secretary of Internal Affairs, Joseph W. Latta, of Philadelphia.

Give Him a Republican Congress.

The importance of sending Republicans to Congress next winter, in both houses, cannot be too strongly impressed upon the people. Legislation of the greatest importance will be required to close up our war affairs.

These are triumphs for the President which the people can repay in but one way—that is by giving him a senate and a house of representatives after March 4 next that will be in political harmony with him and all that he stands for before the people.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

President McKinley doesn't believe that the war was badly managed. On the contrary, he knows that it was, as a whole, well managed—so well managed as to surprise the world by the results accomplished in an incredibly short time.

necessary to find a scape-goat for some great wrong. But he does believe that a dignified, dispassionate and scientific inquiry, made by men of broad gauge minds and accomplishments, will be valuable in showing up weak spots in our present system of running the quartermaster, commissary and medical departments of our army—a system entrenched in laws that right or wrong, under existing conditions, must be carried out until the laws are changed.

Owing to the rapidity with which money is accumulating in the Treasury, Secretary Gage has notified the holders of the old currency "sixes," which will be payable Jan. 1, next, of his willingness to redeem them whenever presented.

Gov. Shaw, of Iowa, came to Washington to see about getting the volunteers from his state mustered out, but the matter had been determined before his arrival, by the decision of the War Department to muster out one-half of the troops from each state.

Our school opened last Monday with Miss Fanny Lyons as teacher. Now boys and girls let us all go in for a good year's work.

The five American Peace Commissioners—Secretary Day, Senators Davis, Frye, and Gray, and Hon. Whitlaw Reid—will hold a conference with President McKinley this week, for the purpose of receiving their instructions.

ALL AROUND THE COUNTY.

Sinnemahoning.

Coleman Johnson is confined to his bed suffering from a severe bilious attack. Chas. Piper has resigned his position in the mill and will leave this week for Syracuse, N. Y., to pursue the study of medicine.

Wm. A. Maxwell, of Dents Run, was a visitor in town last week. Mr. M is a veteran of two wars and is the recipient of two pensions.

Hon. D. P. Bard is still confined to his house and his condition is not improving as rapidly as his friends desire.

Our people are much elated over the prospects of a bridge at last. This is as it should be or rather as it should have been years ago, and the query is how much has the county or commissioners gained by this needless delay.

Samuel Smith was taken to the Williamsport Hospital on Monday last week, where he underwent an operation for rupture and is now in a fair way to recovery.

Sterling Run.

Base ball here is a thing of the past. Mrs. J. R. Libby is very sick at her home in this place.

Miss Mame Connerton, of Emporium, is visiting with the Misses Gilmartin for a few days.

A number of cellars were visited by thieves on Monday night and quite a lot of edibles and other things taken.

W. A. Marsh has returned to Straights, Elk county, to finish up scaling bark for the Elk Tanning Co.

B. E. Smith and Trox Fulton wheeled from Patton, Cambria county, last Saturday, a distance of seventy-six miles.

J. E. Lewis, of the 65th N. Y. V. I., is spending his thirty days furlough with friends in this place preparatory to being mustered out.

We are sorry that Peggy has a sudden attack of something we cannot account for unless it suits the case of all those who reach for that something and fail and then get mad over it.

Buckwheat.

J. Hobson spent Sunday with his family. A. Norton spent Sunday with his parents.

H. F. Kresge was in St. Marys a few days last week.

Mrs. T. Norton was a visitor to the city on Monday.

Master Chester Sykes is the only farmer on West Creek.

Mrs. and Miss Spay visited Mr. and Mrs. T. Norton on Sunday.

Miss Ethel Waddington is spending the summer at P. M. Heath's.

Our obliging P. M., Heath, has the best trained dog in the county.

Martin Lawson is building a twelve foot fence around his residence.

We are glad to state that the mumps are doing a very good business.

Mr. Richard Bliss, of Smith's camp, visited his parents on Sunday.

Chester is "the only pebble," since he located himself at Buckwheat.

Farmer Hopkins is employed at T. Norton's, removing his buckwheat.

We understand there is another party in sight. The more the merrier. Help the good work along.

Messrs. Chas. Rishell and Henry Haupt, accompanied by his two sons, took siding on A. Kresge's rockers, Sunday.

We notice a certain pump in our quiet burg somewhat crippled. It is impossible for it to hold up two. How is it?

One week ago Sunday, occurred the worst storm ever witnessed on West Creek and if you have any doubt, ask N. Warner.

Our school opened last Monday with Miss Fanny Lyons as teacher. Now boys and girls let us all go in for a good year's work.

Mrs. T. Norton gave a very pleasant time to our young and old folks on Friday evening, in honor of her son Laie. Everybody had a good time.

CROSS EYED JOE.

A Clever Trick. It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it.

That's where Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is. The greatest remedy for the stomach that was ever put together.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering.

To furnish shoes for our army would require the skins of 34,622 calves, not counting soles and heels.

"You can be fairly well dressed with a skirt and a necktie," is the laconic way a fashion writer begins an article.

Did you say that you were not feeling well and that your stomach was out of order? Well then, try a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and you are sure of relief.

A German officer estimates that in the course of the present century wars have killed 30,000,000 men in civilized countries.

GETTING READY

Every expectant mother has a trying ordeal to face. If she does not get ready for it, there is no telling what may happen.

Nature is not given proper assistance.

Mother's Friend

is the best help you can use at this time. It is a liniment, and when regularly applied several months before baby comes, it makes the advent easy and nearly painless.

One dollar per bottle at all drug stores, or sent by express on receipt of price.
