A Happy Wedding.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Frank, of Sterling, Pa., was the scene of a joyous event on Thursday morning, Sept. 22nd. The occasion being the marriage of their daughter, Miss M. Charlotte to Mr. Edwin M. White, of Coudersport, Pa. At eight o'clock the bridal party took their places beneath a magnificent floral arch; Rev. S. Ebersole then stepped forward and in the words of the Holy ritual made them one.

The bride was attired in a beautiful costume of echnr silk and lace. The handsome groom wore conventional black.

Following the ceremony a delicious wedding breakfast was served, after which, attired in becoming traveling costumes, Mr. and Mrs. White left on the 10:06 train, amid the showers of rice and best wishes of a large number of friends.

Kinetoscope Entertainment.

The Stroudsburg Kinetoscope Company has completed arrangements to present to the people of Cameron county, the marvelous, instructive and interesting exhibition of the Edison Kinetoscope, portraying in life-like motion and appearance the heroic men and battles of the recent war; the victorious Dewey, his men and ships; the moving procession of the burial of the "Maine" honored dead; the men who stood at the front when our glorious Navy avenged those martyrs, and astonished the world by crushing the proud Spanish Navy.

This entertainment is for a noble and inspiring purpose, the benefit of the Emporium Fire Department. Show your appreciation of the volunteer firemen by attending the Kinetoscope entertainment at the Opera House, Friday evening, Sept. 30. Admission 25 cents; children, 10 cents. Tickets for sale by fireman; reserved seats on sale at H. S. Lloyd's.

Shippen School Board and the Typhoid Fever Patients.

Kindly permit me the use of a little space in your excellent paper. As there has been a great deal of unfavorable comment and unjust criticism in reference to the recent typhoid fever epidemic in the neighborhood of Truman and Beechwood, and as a child of Mr. D. C. Kirkpatrick, to whom I gave a certificate to attend the public school, was sent home by some members of the Shippen township school board, who utterly ignored the certificate, saying "there was danger of spreading the disease among the school children; that my certificate did not amount to a ---; that typhus and typhoid fever were the same thing, etc." I communicated with the State Board of Health, asking whether I was right, or the school board. I received a prompt reply from the secretary of the State Board of Health, which fully sustains my position and is herewith appended. I trust it will quiet the fears of the people and enlighten the overzealous but misinformed members of Shippen township school board. I might add that there were two cases of typhoid fever in the Kirkpatrick home, both of which have recovered. Mr. Kirkpatrick, however, is now ill with pneumonia. Following is the letter, which explains itself:

STATE BOARD OF HEALTH, Executive Office, Philadelphia, Sept. 21, 1898.

DEAR A. W. BAKER:—Replying to your favor of the 16th, I have to say: First—That there is no danger of children attending school from a family in which typhoid fever exists, conveying the disease to others, as long as they are not allowed to mingle with the sick.

Second—The law does not require children from a family having typhoid fever to remain out of school as in the case of contagious diseases.

Third—Typhoid fever and typhus fever are not the same diseases, either. Typhoid is a common disease in this country, brought about principally through contamination of drinking water, while typhus (or ship) fever is not a disease generally originating in this country.

Under the circumstances, there is no reason why the child to which you refer as having received your certificate, should not attend school, inasmuch as there appears to be no danger of communicating the disease to others.

Yours very truly, BENJ. LEE, M. D., [SEAL] Sec. State Board of Health. DR. A. W. BAKER.

Some men may come and some may go, but N. Seger stays here and gives his customers unheard of bargains in clothing.

ALL AROUND THE COUNTY.

Sinemahoning. Billy Floyd made a flying trip to the county seat on business (?) one day last week.

Too bad there isn't one more night in the week, so a certain young couple could enjoy one more night in each other's company—only seven now.

The Republican held their caucus on Saturday evening and there was a lively, but good natured struggle, to secure a majority for McDonald and Wykoff respectively, by their admirers. Mr. McDonald's friends being successful. The Democrats held their primary at the same time and instructed for Uncle Jacob Shafer for Associate Judge, who has begun reading Blackstone and wants to know where the best boarding place can be found in Emporium.

Our soldier boys arrived home Tuesday of last week, on a 20 days' furlough, and were tendered a reception at the M. E. parsonage, where a general good time was enjoyed by all who were fortunate enough to be present.

Buckwheat.

Candidates were flying around in our burg last week.

Mrs. T. Norton returned home last Thursday.

Our ladies gave a very fine supper and ice cream festival, Saturday eve, for the benefit of our preacher. It is reported a success.

J. Hobson is doing the mason work on Josiah Howard's new barn, up Rich Valley.

H. F. Kresge was at St. Marys a few days last week.

P. M. Heath is in the rabbit business up to his neck. He received a large shipment of Belgian Hare, Friday, on the flyer. He expects to raise 1,000 a year and will place them in the city market.

Mrs. Fisher is moving into the Buckwheat house.

Let every Republican make an effort to precipitate a land slide this Fall.

Miss Hoffman is visiting at Mrs. Fisher's.

A large crowd of our young folks took in the supper at West Creek, Friday evening.

Chas. claims he has got just as much right to go to parties as people with two legs. He's not so slow.

Martin Lawson's carpenter crew was called to Kane, which will delay the work here.

Miss Ethel Wadington made a flying trip to Emporium last week.

Charley Welsh received two offers from the fair sex to share that fine silver set, but declined—he wants some one who has a stove.

Chester went home to see his ma.

Lnie Norton is general manager of the Norton farm, during the absence of his father.

Under the management of Miss Lyons, our school is making rapid progress.

The Misses Gregory, of Emporium, spent Sunday with A. Kresge and family.

Arthur Norton came home Sunday, on his wheel. Luie will keep in training till snow flies.

Miss Carrie Spay expects to spend the winter in our city.

Cland gets his mail at our post office, of late.

Miss Effie Bliss spent Sunday with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kresge gave a party on Monday night, in honor of Chester Sykes. All present seemed to have enjoyed themselves, and after lunch departed for their homes.

All our farmers suspended work to go to the Republican primaries, Saturday.

UNCLE MIKE.

Two weddings in town since my last letter. Charlotte Frank, of this place, and Edward White, of Coudersport, were married at the home of the bride's father, J. R. Frank, last Thursday morning, by Rev. S. Ebersole. They received the hearty congratulations of many friends, and departed on Erie mail, west, for their future home in Coudersport.

Mrs. Ella Conway and C. W. Hall were married on Thursday evening, at Driftwood. Mrs. Conway is a resident of this place, and Mr. Hall a resident of Emporium.

Fred Shafer has been seriously ill for the last few days and is no better at the present writing.

Mrs. Cora VanNess is also under Dr. Smith's care at her father's, G. W. Gentry, near this place.

Thos. F. Moore has sold his property to Frank B. Hoag, and has moved into the house vacated by Mrs. Conway.

Politics are booming now with not many swallows to be found.

We will take the advice given us in regard to Peggy, and say Amen. We did not know until a few days ago that Peggy was in reality a woman, and we have found, in our few years of sojourn in this world, that it is impossible to paddle our canoe against a woman.

We would rather tackle that Barbadoes hurricane, or Billy Barr's bellows shop. Au revoir, Peggy.

Quite a number of our citizens attended the Republican meeting at Emporium, on Tuesday evening last, to hear the issues of the campaign discussed and shake hands with the next Governor of Penn'a.

There were sixty-nine votes cast at the Republican caucus in Cameron on Saturday last and it was not a very big day for Republicans either.

Bezz.

First Fork. John Logue has sold his pine timber for heading to the Galeton Heading Mill Co., and his three sons are cutting and preparing it for shipment over the B. & S. R. R., to Galeton.

Mrs. D. D. Colcord is very sick again and but little hopes are entertained for her recovery.

Mrs. Mina Berfield, of Wharton, is staying with her sister, Mrs. W. Bailey, who is not recovering from her long illness very fast.

John Leidner expects to move his family to Ridgway, this week.

D. D. Colcord is harvesting his butternut crop and getting it ready for market.

The noise of the threshing machine "is abroad in the land" but the buckwheat crop turns out light, especially that which was sown early.

A letter from A. J. Williams, formerly of this place, says he has received the Republican nomination for County Superintendent of Clark county, S. D. He has served the county two terms in this capacity and must have given satisfaction to have received the nomination again.

A stranger might think war had broke out, by the appearance of the tents at the mouth of Logue Run, near A. Morton's. But there hasn't, as it is only a gang of pipe line men, repairing and burying the line.

Uncle Jimmy O'Bryan is harvesting and marketing his potatoes from the Jim Phillips place, and is the only man who reports a good crop along the line but then he knows how to raise Irish potatoes.

Mrs. Reifsnnyder, who is teaching the Gilmore school, is boarding at Wm. Swank's, the man who furnishes most all of the scholars in this district.

Seed Wheat.

Mr. L. G. Cook has several varieties of seed wheat for sale, samples of which may be seen at Walker's hardware store. 25tf
