REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

- For Governor, Wm. A. Stone, of Allegheny.
For Lieutenant-Governor, J. P. S. Gobin, of Lebanon.
For Secretary of Internal Affairs, Joseph W. Latta, of Philadelphia.

POLITICAL COMMENT.

"If we permit ourselves to be deceived by vituperation and venality we put premium upon lying, deceit, shame and scandal. If elections can be won in this way, the most accomplished and unscrupulous blackguard will soon become the most important man in the State."

The weakness of the prosecution of Senator Quay is the failure of the real prosecutor or prosecutors to come to the front. As the case now stands, supposing that it is a prosecution for political purpose, Quay will lose none of his supporters, and his opponents will gain nothing.

The national strength of the party should not only be maintained but increased. This is to be done only by supporting the straight Republican ticket. It is no time to experiment, locally or otherwise, with the opposition's pleas and promises.

Many people believed last year that Wanamaker, Swallow & Co., were sincere, and voted with them under that impression. The present campaign has demonstrated beyond controversy that they are seekers after office, and disappointed ones at that.

Colonel Stone's Campaign.

Colonel William A. Stone enters upon the second week of his vigorous campaign, says the Philadelphia Inquirer. His first week's tour was very flattering. He met large and enthusiastic crowds everywhere.

There has never been so atrocious a campaign as the one which is being waged against the Republican party. It has been utterly devoid of truth and has been carried on with a reckless disregard of decent criticism.

It may be a crime to be a Republican, but we don't believe the great majority of the voters of Pennsylvania think so. As no other crime is charged against Colonel Stone, why should he not be elected?

honest man left and that all Republicans are thieves. Mr. Jenks may prove to his own satisfaction that the salvation of the country depends upon his election to the Governorship, but there are a few Republicans remaining who are not deceived by the Swallow exaggerations—exaggerations which a jury considered slanderous—and who are not led astray by the efforts of Mr. Jenks to show that all political purity is centered in the Democratic party.

Stone and Gobin and the Republican candidates can be trusted, and if they can be, then why should Pennsylvania take any chances at a time when Pennsylvania's hearty support is needed to aid the administration in the great national policies upon which we are about to enter?

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Secretary Long poohpoohs the story that the battleships Oregon and Iowa are being held at New York until it is known whether the Spanish Peace Commissioners will refuse to accept our terms of Peace, in order that they may, in that event, be available to accompany a fleet to the Coast of Spain, to do some more fighting, and says that the battleships will start during the present week for Honolulu, just as they were ordered to do as soon as they could get ready.

A number of Washington labor organizations are openly repudiating the attempt of certain labor organizations controlled by Democrats, to make it appear, through misleading publications, that the organized labor of Washington is opposed to the reelection to Congress of Representative Babcock, of Wisconsin. Among the latest to act was the Eccentric Engineers. The resolution adopted by this association arraigned the attack upon Mr. Babcock as mean and contemptible and said that it should be denounced by all labor organizations which believed in justice.

It is semi-officially announced that the Executive order exempting several thousand Federal positions, which were placed under the civil service rules by Mr. Cleveland, for no better reason than to keep Democrats in office, will not be issued, until after the Congressional election. The war prevented the issuing of this order several months ago, and President McKinley is averse to issuing it now, because he knows that the Democrats would charge him with doing so for effect on the Congressional Campaign, if he did.

The arrangements for President and Mrs. McKinley's trip to the Omaha Exposition was sadly interfered with by the killing of Mrs. McKinley's brother, at Canton, Ohio. The President and Mrs. McKinley left Washington Saturday night to attend the funeral, after which the President will join the party and proceed to Omaha, in accordance with the original programme. It is probable that Mrs. McKinley will remain at Canton, although she may decide to accompany the President.

Before leaving Washington, President McKinley signed an order authorizing the free admission to all Cuban ports, in possession of the U. S. of oxen for work purposes, animals for breeding and for food supplies, plows and all agricultural implements, except machinery. This order, as yet, applies to only a few ports, but it will apply to all Cuban ports very shortly, as the Spaniards are to be hurried out of Havana and the other ports they still control. The order is intended to help the Cubans by an immediate resumption of Agriculture.

Advices received by the War Department say that the Indian uprising in Minnesota is under control and that no further trouble is anticipated.

Instead of being humiliated by the testimony given before the War Investigation Commission, as his enemies hoped he would be, Secretary Alger has every reason to feel proud of what the witnesses, including such men as Gens. Joseph Wheeler Fitzhugh Lee, H. V. Boynton, and F. V. Greene have said of the management of the War Department. The war veterans on the commission have been greatly surprised to learn that in many cases published in the yellow journals, as inflicting great suffering and hardships on the troops, the soldiers had more of almost everything than their own men had at numerous times during the civil war.

Going West?

If you are, enquire of your nearest ticket agent about rates via the Nickel Plate Road, the short line between Buffalo and Chicago. Many improvements have been made in the past few years. Now the elegantly upholstered coaches, vestibule sleeping cars and powerful locomotives have been added to the equipment and substantial structures of steel and stone have replaced the old bridges, heavier rails and ties have been laid, and the road now stands at the front of the best roads in the country.

If your ticket agent cannot give you all the information desired, address F. J. Moore, Gen'l Agent, Nickel Plate Road, 291 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y. 31-10

Lowest Rates West.

Rates to the west are lower via the Nickel Plate Road than via other lines, while the service is excelled by none. Three fast trains are run every day in the year from Buffalo to Chicago. The day coaches are of the latest pattern, are elegantly upholstered and have all the modern improvements, such as marble lavatories, steam heat, lighted by Pintsche gas, while colored porters are in charge to look after the wants of passengers, especially the ladies and children. Vestibule buffet sleeping cars are run on all trains, while the dining cars and meal stations are operated by the company and serve the best of meals at moderate prices.

If your ticket agent cannot give you all the information you desire in regard to rates, routes, etc., address F. J. Moore, Gen'l Agent, Nickel Plate Road, 291 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y. 31-10
