CAMERON COUNTY PRESS, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1898.

Old Reliable Drug Store.

Owing to the very liberal patronage I have had from our people and in view of the hard times I will until MAY 1st, reduce the price of Physicians Prescriptions as follows, viz :

All I oz. mixtures, regular price, 20 to 15 All 2 oz. mixtures, regular price, 25 to 19 All 3 oz. mixtures, regular price, 35 to 25 All 4 oz. mixtures, regular price, 45 to 30 All 6 oz. mixtures, regular price, 65 to 50 All 8 oz. mixtures, regular price, 85 to 65

And a corresponding reduction on all packages of Powders, Pills, Oint-ments Also liberal discount on all Patent Medicines, Baby Foods, Per-fumes, Toilet and Fancy Articles and extra liberal discount on Fountain Syringes, Hot Water Bottles, Atomi-zers and Nursing Bottles.

I will guarantee my goods to be trictly fresh and equal to any goods strictly fresh in the market.

Thirty years experience in the town of Emporium is sufficient evidence of competency. If you wish to avail yourself of the liberal offer, leave your Physician's Prescriptions and drug trade in general at the OLD RE-LIABLE DRUG STORE.

George Moore, extra passenger conductor on the middle division of the P. & E. will leave with his family for an extended visit into Centre county, this State. He will take his gun along and endeavor to bag a few deer while on the trip.-Kane Republican.

Miss Ada Hockly, who has been visiting at Williamsport the past summer, was taken seriously ill at that place a short time ago and it became necessary to perform an operation on her, which we have since learned was a successful one. Her many friends will be greatly pleased to learn that she is slowly improving.

We neglected to mention, last week, the fact that John H. Day has returned from New York City, where he made an extensive purchase of choice groceries, glass and canned goods for the Holidays. It is not necessary for us to state that John did not inspect the Brooklyn bridge this time-had no time for the bridge, but put in all his spare moments admiring the beauties of the city-one at least.

Miss Grace Walker and brother George entertained a number of their friends in a royal manner, at the family residence on Fourth street, Friday evening. Whist, dancing and other amusements were indulged in, being interspersed with renditions of choice, vocal and instrumental selections and at mid-night an elegant collation was served. All who were present report a pleasant time.

Greatly Appreciated.

Two boxes delivered by Adam Express company at Lock Haven hospital, during the past week, were highly appreciated by the people of that institution, not because the articles donated were most acceptable, but also because it was exceedingly pleasant to know that friends in other towns recognize the good work done in Lock Haven and are disposed to render assistance. From Emporium came a box containing two whole webs of muslin and several smaller pieces, 9 towels and several yards of eiderdown, besides jars of fruit and glasses of several jelly, a nice cake and various packages ot groceries. The box from the Sinnemahoning M. E. Church contained 22 quarts canned fruit and 20 glasses of ply Co., store at Keating Summit, jelly .- Clinton Democrat.

Recognized of the Lord.

The man who always pays for his county paper in advance enjoys the following blessings: He has never been sick a day in his whole life and never will be, never had any corns on his toes, is not troubled with toothache, his potatoes never rot, his oats never rust, the weasels never kills his chickens, his babies never cry at night, and lost, but not least, his wife never scolds.

The Anti-Scalpers Law.

A decision has just been handed a more reliable man in the county. You can depend on him doing just he Anti-Scalr laws The decision was written by Chief Judge Parker and states that the law is clearly unconstitutional. The opinion recites that while there may abuses appear in the business of buying and selling railroad and steamship tickets, yet there is no way to prevent a person from dealing in a class of merchandise.

ALL AROUND THE COUNTY.

Buckwalter Farmer Kresge killed two very fine hogs last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. Hobson drove to Rathbun, Monday. Deers are seen quite often of late around our quiet burg. John Robertson and son drove through our town Monday. John Hogan and wife attended church at Emporium last Sunday. Miss Annie Huffman, of Rathbur, spent Sunday with friends in our city. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Norton spent a few days on Moore Hill the first of the week.

Miss Bertha Gregory, of Emporium, spent Sunday with friends at this place

Arthur Norton has been on the sick since Thanksgiving. Too much turkey.

Mr. Beldin, of More Hill, passed through our town the other day with a fine fox.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Chas. Specht is quite ill at her home on Moore Hill.

Frank Easterbrooks passed through our town with his gun, and his eye open for game.

Bert Easterbrooks came up from West Creek on Saturday night to have a feast on oysters.

Mr. and Mrs. Wadner attended hurch at Emporium and had their baby christened.

Luie makes quite a number of trips on the hill of late. My boy you had better settle down.

Farmer Lawson claims he can clear more land in one day than any three farmers on the Creek.

Claud Lyons and E. W. have been clearing land and making ties the last few days on Moore Hill.

Richard Bliss, one of our best citizens who is employed at Beechwood, spent Sunday with his family.

C. M. Kresge claims he has more wind and can call off better than any one legged man in the county.

Mike Hillard was bombarding some stumps last week and by mistake put a stick of dynamite under his dog.

Mr. Bert Easterbrooks has accepted a position at Beechwood, where he will call-off for the dances this season.

Our ladies gave an oyster supper for the benefit of our preacher. It is reported that it was a grand success. Willis Gaskill dropped in our burg Saturday evening to tell the people he had a weakness himself for oysters. Claud Lyons, Miss Ethel Waddington, Chas. Welsh and Carrie Spay took in the oyster supper last Saturday.

There was a surprise party given t the residence of Mr. Gaskill's in honor of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Lapman, last Tuesday evening.

Miss Winniefred Heath, the highly accomplished daughter of J.W. Heath, manager of the Keating Summit Supspent Thanksgiving with her brother William and wife at this place.

Our burg was awakened by the sound of whistles and bells Tuesday morning and our fire laddies responded quickly to the residence of Thos. Norton, where after some brave work the flames were soon under control. We understand that our coming candidate for road supervisor Mr. Fred Norton will soon start out to make a canvass of the township in his behalf. We would say to those who are not acquainted with him, that there is not a more reliable man in the county.

Alex DeShutler, the head sawyer at Barclay's mill slipped and fell on the ice a week ago injuring his back quite seriously and has gone to the Williams-port hospital for teatment. Alf. Smith is manipulating the levers during Aleck's absence.

Aleck's absence. Last Tuesday evening when the log train came in it was discovered that one of the crew, Otto McCoy, was missing, and a number of men at once started back up the run on the locomo-tive in search of the lost man whom they met coming down having walked about four miles. He had fallen be-tween the two rear cars striking on the rail and with rare presence of mind instantly rolled into the ditch, and now tells the barber not to "shave too close." N. T. teils the barber not to "shave too close." N. T. Dexter died suddenly on Mon-day morning about 5 o'clock, at his home at Wyside, of heart failure, in his 68th year. Thus one by one are the old and honored landmarks passing away. Mr. Dexter was a quiet and unassuming gentleman, very domestic in his habits, whose "home was his castle,"without an enemy and at peace with the world. One of those rare men who believed in allowing others the same rights of thought and action he claimed for himself. He leaves a wife and one daughter (Mrs. W. L. Barclay) to mourn his death. The funeral was held on Wednesday at 2 o'clock. In-terment in Wyside cemetery. Joe. JOE.

Austin.

Austin. Last Wednesday morning J. A. Reed one of the head sawyers at the big mill, was killed almost instantly by the carriage running away and strik-ing him while engaged in changing band saws. The body was taken through Emporium for interment at DuBois, on Saturday. A wife and five children are left to mourn his loss.

children are left to mourn his loss. About six o'clock, on Friday even-ing, the kindling wood factory was found to be on fire in the dry kiln, and but for the heroic efforts of the fire laddies the whole plant would have been destroyed. At one time there were eleven streams of water on the fire, and they succeeded in saving the old part of the factory, also most of the packing machines in the part that was burned. Have not learned the amount of insurance on the building, or whether it will be rebuilt. A. J. Bailey passed through here on

A. J. Bailey passed through here on Saturday, on the way to Wharton for his annual deer hunt. He is nearly through with his lumbering operations at First Fork, and talks of going to New Mexico to lumber for the Van Gordon Lumber Co., where two of his sons are already engaged in stocking the mill for that company.

The whole family of Dan'l Collins, of this place, were poisoned on Sun-day by eating a duck, which was affected in some unknown manner. Dr. Bradford was called and by prompt action succeeded in saving them, with no fatal cases. They are all doing well to-day. well to-day.

A. W. Carpenter, of Little Genessee, who is visiting with his sons here, is very sick with diabetis and is in care of Dr. E. E Horn.

Pains in the chest when a person has a cold indicate a tendency toward pneumonia. A piece of flannel damp-ened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound onto the chest over the seat of pain will promptly leave the seat of pain and prevent the threatened attack of pneumonia. This same treatment of pneumonia. This same treatment will cure a lame back in a few hours. Sold L. Taggart. Dec.

Two Pointed Questions Answered. What is the use of making a better article than your competitor if you can not get a better price for it? Ans.—As there is no difference in the price, so that while our profits may be smaller on a single sale they will be much greater in the aggregate. How can you get the public to know your make is the best? Two Pointed Questions Answered.

your make is the Dest? If both are brought prominently be-fore the public both are certain to be tried and the public will very quickly pass judgment on them and use only the better one.

the better one. This explains the large sale on Cham-berlain's Cough Remedy. The people have been using it for years and have found that it can always be depended upon. They may occasionally take up with some fashionable novelty put forth with exaggerated claims, but are certain to return to the one remedy that they know to be reliable, and for coughs, colds and croup there is noth-ing equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
