There is Profit in Poultry.

Jan. 1, 1898, I had 17 hens and 1 cock which I inventoried at $9. I bought all the food fed for the year, except the refuse from the kitchen of which I make no account. I paid for food $7.58. Total $16.58. I set 3 hens, putting 13 eggs under each hen. They hatched 35 chickens; 3 of which died when only a few days old, and one old hen died. I have killed for the table 7 of the old fowls and 12 of this year's raising and 3 are gone for which I cannot account, leaving me 25 hens and 1 cock. These I inventory at..... $13 00
7 old fowls for table at 50c..... 3 50
12 young fowls for table at 25c. 3 00
I have received 1,725 eggs; take out 39 eggs set leaves 1,686 eggs used at 20c. per doz... 28 10

Deduct inventory and cost of food..... 16 58

Gain on $9 investment..... $31 02

I have made all the fertilizer I have used on my garden of which I make no account.

I call these fair figures but lest some object to 20 cents per dozen for eggs we will figure them at 10 cents per dozen:

26 fowls..... $13 00
19 killed for table..... 6 50
140 doz. eggs at 10c. per doz... 14 05

See original inventory and cost of food..... 16 58

Gain on $9..... 16 97

JOHN DAY, SR.
Emporium, Pa., Jan. 1, 1899.

To Young Folk.

I will tell you something of the lives of two men with whom I was acquainted, which will serve to illustrate what I want to call your attention to.

One of these men was the grand son of one of the first manufacturers to apply machinery to the manufacture of cloth in this country and bore his name. He had, when young, none of what people usually call bad habits; he neither smoked nor drank, was healthy, active and quick to learn; had all the money he needed and more too, without ever having earned a cent. Here was a mistake—he had no idea of the value of money or of time, but lived a careless, heedless life; drifted into bad habits and died years ago, of no good use in the world and a dishonor to his parents.

The other man when young started on the shoe bench, with nothing except what he could earn with his hands and no advantages of education. Having saved some money he started for an academy determined to learn. From this on it was study, work and work, study until he secured a diploma as M. D. Soon after he started a sanitarium where he received young people out of health and endeavored to build them up and make them hale, hearty and strong in body, and at the same time train them mentally. He surrounded himself with the most improved methods of doing both. He died within a year, honored and respected.

Now what I want to call your attention to is the difference in the lives of these two persons. One had an object in life and worked diligently; the other drifted. McKinley and Dewey are not made of driftwood; neither are any of the good business men and women in this or any other community. Don't drift—work, and work with an object. Aim high and then put forth all there is in you to reach your ideal.

To any person having an account at our store, please call and settle at once as we are going to leave Emporium.
41-1y JOHN J. SOBIE.

Hamilton Ball.

Hamilton Hose Co., No. 3, will give their eighth annual ball and supper at the opera house, Manday evening, Feb. 13th. Tickets for dance, $1.00; supper, 25 cents. The boys have engaged the popular DuBois Orchestra and a pleasant time may be expected. The object of the dance is to assist the company in building an addition to their hose house.

Bank Election.

At the annual meeting of the shareholders of the First National Bank the following directors were elected for the ensuing year: Geo. A. Walker, Wm. Howard, B. W. Green, W. S. Walker, N. Seger, J. E. Smith, J. P. Felt, W. L. Sykes and Josiah Howard. The staff of officers is as follows: President, Geo. A. Walker; Vice President, Wm. Howard; Solicitor, B. W. Green; Cashier, M. P. Whiting; Asst. Cashier, T. B. Lloyd.

Cameron's Oldest Lady Dead.

Last Sunday Mrs. Mahala Sibert the oldest lady within the confines of Cameron county passed tranquilly to her reward, at the home of her son James Seibert on Moore Hill, aged ninety-three years.

Mrs. Seibert was born in Somerset county, Pa., in 1806 and came to this county several years ago to reside with her son.

The funeral was held from Moore Hill M. E. church Tuesday afternoon and was largely attended.

Paid for Doing Good Work.

The Swedes have a custom which might profitably be copied by other nations. In the mines of that country the workmen have their tools sharpened by a special blacksmith, and he is paid, not by the number of tools sharpened, but by the number of yards bored by the miners whose instruments he has sharpened during the month. Thus, when the smith is skillful and does his best he makes more money than he does when his work is not well done, and there is a decided gain all around.

A Newspaper Worth Reading.

With a circulation showing a gratifying increase as compared with a year ago, with a more extensive advertising patronage than ever before, with added press facilities which permit of enlarged editions whenever necessary, The Pittsburg Times comes to the public for 1899. It modestly claims to be a good all-around newspaper, neglecting no opportunity to entertain its readers and sparing no effort or expense to get the news accurately and promptly. While it is Republican in politics it endeavors to be fair in discussion. Overlooking no field of human interest, it is carefully edited and courts the favor of the fireside rather than the applause of sensation mongers. For reference it submits to the unbiased judgment of newspaper men anywhere in the territory in which it circulates. Three dollars a year or six cents a week.

A Splendid Promotion.

Willard Fisher, agent for the Wisconsin Central here, has been given a splendid promotion by the company. He was called to Milwaukee yesterday and the officials offered him the position of traveling freight agent. The promotion was such a desirable one that Mr. Fisher accepted and expects to assume his new duties on the first of the year. As general agent for the company Mr. Fisher is in line for rapid promotion to still higher positions if he displays the right ability and his past record is an indication that he will do it. Mr. Fisher is an Ashland young man who has lived here nearly all of his life and his advancement step by step with such regularity is very gratifying to the citizens. The people of Ashland will regret however that his new position will require his residence elsewhere. As traveling freight agent he will make his headquarters in Eau Claire and will move to that town with his bride.—Ashland News.

A Comic History of Spain.

The recent war was a very serious matter, but it had its funny phases. These have been put into jingling verse and merry prose by Charles M. Snyder, author of the famous comic history of Greece. It promises to be the literary laugh of the year and it will appear exclusively in "The Sunday Press," beginning Jan. 15. Each instalment will be illustrated in a lively way, quite in keeping with the text. Next Sunday's "Press" will also contain a visit to a dispensary by "Karl," Frank G. Carpenter's letter on the chances for investment in South America, a fashion article by the famous Anne Rittenhouse, and many other exclusive features which will interest every reader. Be sure to get next Sunday's "Press."

Death of Isaac A. Hirsch.

Isaac A. Hirsch, aged 76 years, is dead. The sad intelligence was announced last Monday evening. Mr. Hirsch, who had been in failing health during the past two years, had but recently returned from New York City, where he hoped to receive medical aid. Mr. Hirsch and family came to Emporium in 1873 and he has conducted a jewelry establishment in this place ever since. No citizen of Emporium has been held in higher esteem by all classes and creeds. Charitable to a fault, his last dollar always being given cheerfully to aid the afflicted and depressed. I. A. Hirsch will be pleasantly remembered by our citizens.

Mr. Hirsch was born in Germany in 1822 and after serving in the German army, learned the trade of jeweler, married and came to America with his most excellent wife, 1854. After a short residence in New York City he located at Rouseville, Pa., and came to Emporium in 1873. He and his estimable wife, (who is prostrated with grief and confined to her bed, her condition being quite serious,) reared a family of five children, all of whom are living and present to-day at the funeral: Alfred Hirsch, (son) of New York City; H. S. Ness, wife (daughter) and children, Johnsonburg; Richard H. Hirsch, (son) Emporium; David Weil, and wife, (daughter) Buffalo; Theo. Hirsch, (son) Buffalo.

Isaac A. Hirsch was an honored member of Emporium Lodge, A. Y. M., No. 382, and Emporium Chapter, No. 227. He has held a number of prominent elective positions and faithfully discharged the duties of every position called upon by his fellow citizens to fill.

The funeral was held this (Thursday) afternoon, from the family residence on Fifth street. Rev. J. M. Robertson, Rector of Emmanuel Church, conducted brief services, after which the Masonic fraternity took charge of the remains and directed the burial according to the rites of the order.

January Thaw.

It is an old saying in this community, that we will have a "January thaw," the lumbermen specially looked forward to a January thaw, that would raise the streams sufficiently to cause a flood, that would float their logs to market. We hereby announce a January thaw in prices, so that our stock of goods will move out. January is the month when the store-keepers off much of the old stock to prepare room for the spring stock. A fruit tree starts the elements of next year's crop while this year's was ripening, so this store has worked out plans for this summer stock while we were serving you during the holidays. Therefore the announcement of a January thaw in prices at Lloyds, will occur with much more certainty than the official weather guesser can fortell whether the January days will call for umbrellas or skates.

We regularly sell worthy goods cheapest.
