The demand has never been greater at the beginning of the year than it is now .- Dun's Review.

The Popular Vote.

The popular vote cast in all the states last election has been printed. For an off year it is probably the largest vote ever cast in the United States, with the possible exception of 1894. As it is, it reaches 11.-097,848, not including a few thousand scattering the blank votes, a large total for an off year.

The next striking feature is the have over the Democrats. This manifesting toward them a friendmajority is 738,181. As the Republicans had 598,274 majority over the Democrats in 1896 their majority this year is 139,907 larger His lack of that experience was than two years ago. In the Congressional election of 1894 the popular disgust with Cleveland and the disastrous effects of his low tariff policy brought on a reaction against the Democracy which gave the Republicans a great popular plurality. This was repeated in 1896, and in the Conlarge popular plurality appears. This is an indorsement of which any party might feel proud. Both the Republican and the Democratic poll shows a falling off from 1896. The Republican decrease is about 1,550,000, and the decrease is about 1.700.000.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9th, 1899. President McKinley is no more inclined to officially recognize Aguinaldo's man, Agoncillo, now that he claims to be Minister from the Philippine Republic, than when he came to Washington as Aguinaldo's personal agent. Then the President consented to receive him as an individual, with the stipulation that nothing of an official nature should occur at the interview. That is further than Agoncillo is likely to get this time. This fellow, aided by the anti-expansionists, in and out of Congress, is largely responsible for the present unsatisfactory condition of things in the Philippines. He gave Aguinaldo advance notice that the policy of this government would be conciliatory towards the insurgents, and told him that the anti-expansion element in this country was powerful, and that if he would take a bold stand it would aid him in getting recognition from lowers, as it may cause orders to be sent to Gen. Otis to put them down by forcible instead of persuasive means. Owing to the illness of Chairman Hull, of the House Military Com-mittee, the Army bill has not been called up in the House, but Mr. Hull expects to return to duty this week, and to push the bill through the House without further delay.

Senrtor Morgan will endeavor to get the Senate to set a time for voting on his Nicarauga Canal bill, this week, and he is confident of

With less than one-third of its members in attendance, the House, by a majority of six, while sitting as a Committee of the whole, voted to strike out the appropriation for the Civil Service Commission, but the vote was reversed to-day, when the matter came up before a larger attendance.

Senator McLaurin came very near making a bull's-eye when he said: "There ought to be a law that every President of the U.S. should first serve a term in the Senate or the House. A very large degree of President McKinley's popularity is due to the fact that he has been through the Congressional mill and knows how to deal with Senators and Representatives. He appreciates their difficulties large majority the Republicans and helps them to the utmost, liness, which they appreciate. If President Cleveland had had a Congressional training he would not have made so many enemies.

The late James G. Blaine foreshadowed the annexation of Hawaii and the Philippine Islands in an editorial in a Maine newspaper, this year on the popular vote. years before he became prominent This is the fate of most parties in as a statesman He wrote—it seems like inspired prophecy when read in connection with recent the Republican party did not meet events-that the time would come the usual fate this year is owing to when the United States would have to enlarge its boundaries, if it was to hold its fair share of the commerce of the world, and pointed out that Hawaii and the Philippines This is the third national election our influence, and predicted that in succession in which the Repub- it would become absolutely neceslican party has had a large plural-ity. In the Compositional election says for this country to control the Philippines as the key to the trade of the Orient. There was no significance in the adoption by the Senate of Mr. Hoar's resolution-asking the President if not incompatible with public interests, to send to the Senate all the instructions given to our Peace Commissioners, although some of the anti-expansionists are gressional elections of 1898 a third trying hard to make themselves and the public believe there was. The resolution is no more binding than his discretion makes it; he can give or not give the informa-tion asked for. The anti's have somehow got the idea that it will hurt expansion to bring out officially what everybody has known unofficially for months; that our Commissioners were originally instructed to only demand the island of Luzon of Spain, and that their instructions were changed upon reports made by them after their arrival at Paris. So much has been told to individual Senators already by their colleagues who were Peace Commissioners, and the story would doubtless have been more fully told as soon as the Senate begins to consider the treaty of peace in secret session, regard-less of this resolution. Whether all his reasons for changing those instructions will be told at this time, is a question that President McKinley will decide for himself. The Committe on Foreign Relations will this week favorably report the treaty to the Senate, and then it will speedily become ap parent whether the anti's will dare to delay the ratification of the treaty, knowing that it will be impossible for them to defeat it by votes.

The appointment of Benj. P. Fifield, to succeed the late Senator Morrill, of Vt., was somewhat of a surprise in Washington, although those who know Senator Fifield speak in the highest terms of him. The general belief in Washington is that Gov. Smith chose Mr. Fifield to serve until the Legislature meets—in October, 1900,because he did not care to decide between the stronger political claims of ex-Gov. Dillingham and Representative Grout.

LaGrippe Successfully Treated:

LaGrippe Successfully Treated: "I just have recovered from the second attack of la grippe this year," says Mr. Jas. A. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days against ten days for the former attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy, as I had to go to bed in about six hours atter being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.'"
