WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16th, 1899.

Nobody realizes more fully than President McKinley that the revision of his testimony, eliminating the blackguardism, does not condone the disgraceful conduct of Gen. Egan in personally abusing Gen. Miles, his superior officer—conduct which was aggravated by the furnishing to the Press Associations of advance type-written copies of the Billingsgate before it was uttered in the presence of the War Investigating Commission, but that revision will at least remove the dirty stuff from the official record.

The Senate will this week amend and pass the Morgan bill for the construction of the Nicaragua Canal, and if the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce would drop the bunch of Canal bills it is wrestling with, and report the Morgan bill, even with a few amendments, there would be a reasonable certainty of its becoming a law at this session.

Gen. Otis and Admiral Dewey, who certainly ought to know better than anybody else, do not expect a conflict with the Philippine insurgents. In their official reports to the Government, they say that they have perfect control of the situation in and around Manila, that they are gradually succeeding in making the rank and file of the insurgents understand that Americans are their best friends, not their enemies.

Gen. Otis and Admiral Dewey, who certainly ought to know better than anybody else, do not expect a conflict with the Philippine insurgents. In their official reports to the Government, they say that they have perfect control of the situation in and around Manila, that they are gradually succeeding in making the rank and file of the insurgents understand that Americans are their best friends, not their enemies.

under the Equator, called the Philippine Islands, as much may be said by the people who occupy it, I am ready to listen to suggestions and to hear from men like Dewey and men like Otis, and others that are there representing the U. S., what their conclusions are as to the best course of the government of the U. S. towards these people, and having heard that, to give it and other circumstances full consideration. But, I do not propose, in spite of that treacherous scoundrel, Aguinaldo—that scoundrel who was brought in a ship of Dewey's from Hong-kong to Manila—even in spite of the German Empire, to stop one moment in forming my conclusion as to what are the interests of the U. S., even if it involves the fact that we shall have to whip Germany as we did Spain.

Death can certainly be accused of having been partial to the New England delegation in Congress, when it strikes down so close together two such prominent men as Senator Morrill and Representative Dingley. The funeral of Mr. Dingley took place to-day, in the hall of the House of Representatives, in the presence of almost the same audience of prominent officials and persons, who attended the recent funeral of Senator Morrill, in the Senate Chamber. Mr. Dingley was not an orator, but he was a statesman of hard, horse sense, and wide experience, whose advice was always welcome in the highest Republican councils, and usually followed. He knew the tariff as only half a dozen men have ever known it, and the present tariff, which bears his name, is a monument to the good use to which he put his knowledge. A joint Congressional Committee left Washington, after the funeral with the remains, which will be interred in Maine.

The first contest in connection with the treaty of Peace was over the motion to consider it with open doors. There was no doubt of the fate of the motion at any time, as some of the strongest opponents of secret executive sessions had in former contests specially excepted treaties as the one thing that should be considered secretly.

CALIFORNIA.

Extraordinary Tour via the Pennsylvania Railroad.

America is a great country. In variety and grandeur of natural scenery it is unrivaled. To traverse it, to behold its diversities and its wonders, is a liberal education, a revelation to the immured metropolitan citizen. The Personally-Conducted Tour to California under the direction of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, which leaves on February 9, affords a most excellent opportunity to view the vast variety and boundless beauty of this marvelous land. The party will travel over the entire route in the model Pullman train of smoking, dining, sleeping, and observation cars exhibited at the World's Fair, Chicago, and subsequently at Atlanta, Nashville, and Omaha. This train will be placed in service for the first time on this occasion, and will be in charge of a Tourist Agent and Chaperon, who will look after all details of the trip, as well as the individual welfare of members of the party. Stops will be made at Mammoth Cave, New Orleans during the Mardi Gras Carnival, El Paso, Los Angeles, San Diego, Redlands, Riverside, Pasadena, Santa Barbara, Monterey, Del Monte, Santa Cruz, Mount Hamilton, Menlo Park, San Francisco, Salt Lake City, Glenwood Springs, Colorado Springs, Manitou and Garden of the Gods, Denver, and Chicago. Nineteen days will be spent in California. Round-trip rate, including all necessary expenses during entire trip, $400 from all points on the Pennsylvania Railroad System east of Pittsburgh; $395 from Pittsburg. For itinerary and full information apply to ticket agents; Tourist Agent, 1196 Broadway, New York; or address Geo. W. Boyd, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia. 1203-46-3t

McCulloch, who so successfully conducted a large party from this territory to Alaska and the Klondyke in February of last year, has returned to Buffalo and is organizing another personally conducted party to leave Buffalo via the Nickel Plate Road, on Feb'y 5th, 1899. Mr. McCulloch is thoroughly familiar with the Klondyke country, having several rich claims of his own.

Go West!

And grow up with the country. There are millions of acres of public lands yet to be taken. The crops raised in the West the past few years have never been equalled and the country was never in a more prosperous condition. Uncle Sam is still rich enough to give a farm to all who want one. Be sure your tickets read via the Nickel Plate Road.

For information call on your nearest ticket agent, or address C. C. Lowry, Trav. Pass. Agent, Holland, N. Y. 4-47-4t
