The peace treaty with Spain passed the Senate last Monday, by a vote of 57 to 27. Only two Republicans, Hoar and Hale, voting against the measure. Nine Democrats voted for the treaty.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6th, 1899.

If the Senators who aided Senator German in his fight against Mr. Bryan's leadership of the Democratic party, to the extent of voting with him against the ratification of the treaty of peace, could see themselves as others see them, they would hang their heads for shame. There was never a more unnecessary introduction of personal peanut politics in a matter involving the honor of the country than the fight against the treaty which ended with the vote in the Senate to-day—unnecessary, because every man who engaged in it knew from the first that ratification of the treaty was absolutely certain in any event, if not by to-day's vote, by the Senate in an extra session. Knowing this, there was no excuse for the fight; it served no other purpose than to show that nearly all of the Democratic Senators were more willing to follow the advice of Gorman rather that of Bryan, even though they had to vote against the wishes of a great majority of their constituents to do so. Not a few of these Senators have already been repudiated by their constituents, and will retire at the close of this session of Congress, and all of them deserve the same fate.

The War Investigating Commission has completed its report, which will be handed to President McKinley this week. It is expected that the President will very shortly make the report public, and that, as a result of a portion of it, a military inquiry will be ordered of the charges made by Gen. Miles concerning the quality of the beef furnished the army by the contractors, during the war with Spain, which will give Gen. Miles an opportunity to substantiate his charges. If he can do so, there will be very serious trouble for the contractors; if not, there will be trouble for General Miles. While there is some personal enmity between Secretary Alger and Gen. Miles, it is not and has not been, at any time, shared by President McKinley, who is only anxious that the truth shall be shown so clearly as to leave no doubt in the mind of any unprejudiced man, and determined wherever wrong-doing shall be shown, that the guilty shall be punished, regardless

While nothing official has been announced concerning the finding of the Eagan Court-Martial, which is now in President McKinley's hands, there are reasons for the belief that the President has decided what action he will take, and that his action will be to modify the sentence of dismissal from the army to suspension from active

Now that the treaty is out of the way, the Senate Committee on Military Affairs will endeavor to push the Hull Army bill, recently passed by the House, to the front and keep it there untill passed. One of the amendments to this bill agreed upon by the Senate Com-mittee, provides for a revival of the grade of Lieutenant-General. Gov. Shaw, of Iowa, who passed through Washington on his way home from a visit to New York, was impressed by the Iowa Republican Association, and persuaded into an informal talk on public affairs. His remarks about the Philippines were right to the point. He said: "If annexation means that the Philippines should ultimately be admitted as States, then there is not an expansionist in this country; if anti-expansion means that the archipelego should be re-turned to Spain; then there is not one anti-expansionest in America. one anti-expansionest in America.

If anti-expansion does mean that we should not deny the right of warm an overwhelming desire to promote self-government to people competent to govern themselves, then we are all anti-expansionists." In other words, Gov. Shaw told his hearers that the policy of this gov-ernment would always lean toward the freedom rather than to the enslaving of peoples, notwithstanding the ranting of those who pretend to fear the contrary.

When the House adopts the resolution reported from the Judiciary Committee, declaring that the four Committee, declaring that the four Representatives who accepted com-missions in the army, thereby vacated their seats in Congress, as it will, it will merely put on official record what has been practically accepted by the four gentlemen most directly concerned, neither of whom has performed any official duty in the House, or drawn any salary the since accepting their army commissions. The outlook for Nicarauga Canal legislation at this session, was brightened considerably when the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce made the amended Hepburn bill a substitute for the Morgan bill, which has been passed by the Senate, instead of reporting it as an entirely sepa-rate bill. The early passage of the substitute by the House would send the bill to a conference committee, which ought to be able to agree upon a measure that would be fairly satisfactory to those who wish the Canal built at once, and which would at least make sure that it will be built in the near future.

Representative-elect Long, of Kansas, who will succeed Jerry Simpson, and who is now in Washington, said of his State: "Kansas is now back in the Republican column, and though I am not an aspirant for prophetic honors, I am free to state that it will remain there. The people have had their fill of Populist heresy. In our banks, there is more money in proportion to population than in any other State in the Union."

THE SENATORSHIP.

Most assuredly one hundred and thirteen Republicans should not sur-render to fifty-one.—Bloomsburg Republican.

Press dispatches state that Senator William Flinn has again vehemently declared that Senator Quay's re-election is an impossibility—which reminds us of the people who whistle loudest when they get in the woods.—Blairs-ville Courier. ville Courier.

Governor Stone's decisive declara-tion in faver of regular Republican nominees, does not meet with the ap-probation of gentlemen who are try-ing to wreck the Republican party, but it is entirely satisfactory to stalwart Republicans—Shamokin Herald.

The Pennsylvania "Aunties" are criticising Governor Stone because he has declared in favor of the election of Senator Quay. They doubtless expected Governor Stone to turn in and help those who did their best to defeat him and elect a Democrat for Governor. They will learn pretty soon that Gov. Stone isn't that sort of a man.—Crawford Jewren! ford Journal.

The break in the ranks cannot be far The break in the ranks cannot be far off, or, as Senator Durham says, is in the "near future"—when that time comes who can doubt that Senator Quay will be re-elected? There are scores of Democrats who will prefer him to any other Republican, for he has the reputation of being a fair man and stands high in the estimation of the political leaders of the Nation irrespective of party.—Beaver Argus.

John Wanamaker's pernicious accommodification of the political leaders of the Nation irrespective of party.—Beaver Argus.

John Wanamaker's pernicious activity at Harrisburg is significant in view of the fact that he "is not a candidate" at this time. Evidently "Honest John," "who never told a lie in his life," is a candidate for anything he can lay hands on, and if he can't get something he is bound to smash the principle of majority rule. There is no danger of his election —Williamsport Gazette and Bulletin. Gazette and Bulletin.

Gazette and Bulletin.

The reasons are plain why Quay should be invincible. His election was practically ordered by the people, not only through their great majority for Governor Stone, with Quay as the issue, but because the people by their nomination and election instructed more than two-thirds of all the Republican Senators and members to support him. To this verdict all Republicans can bow in honor.—Media American.

The vote this week shows no change can bow in honor.—Media American.

The vote this week shows no change from that of the first few days, save that the absence of members, who are paired, reduces the number of votes cast All sides profess confidence, with Quay as far in the lead as ever. It is a fact that the boasts of the anti-Quay people that there would be breaks in the Quay column have not been realized, thus showing the predictions to have been conjectural.—Easton Free Press.

The opposition to Senator Quay is Easton Free Press.

The opposition to Senator Quay is cemented by the bonds of mutual hate and it has a dozen men who aspire to reap the fruits of it. The fact that Congressman Stone, of Warren, is being voted for by a few friends is no indication that he is a candidate, but is simply a Wanamaker idea carried out to deceive Republicans not posted. The head, middle and tail of the opposition to Senator Quay is John Wanamaker and his bargain-counter organs, and no Republican should be deceived.

—Warren Mail.

Without majority rule the Republic

—Warren Mail.

Without majority rule the Republic would founder upon the rocks, for minority rule is revolutionary.

The danger of Wanamakerism is already apparent. Claiming to be Republican, it long ago rebelled against Republicanism. It entered into the deal to elect Democrats to the Legislature. The ill feeling it caused was responsible for the defeat of Charles W. Stone and several other Republican Congressmen.

personal ambition, and to gain its object it is willing to wreck Republicanism. Repudiated in almost every county in Pennsylvania, and driven to the last ditch, it has been forced to bolt against the will of the great majority. Its last chance is to destroy majority rule or make it inoperative. In a twinkling they have cast overboard all these principles, have discarded consistency and have taken up the revolutionary cry of minority rule.

Republicanism or Wanamakerism is the issue—majority rule or the rule of the minority; Republican principles or the disorganizing and dishonorable creed of a few bolters.—Philadelphia Inquirer.
