PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Contributions invited. That which you would like to see in this department, let us know by post card, or letter, personally.

Dr. Baker reports I. M. Reynolds improving nicely.

Frank Murry, of Buffalo, is visiting his parents on East Third street.

Mrs. Nellie Pearl is visiting her father, L. G. Cook, near Emporium.

Fred McVicker, of Driftwood, was transacting business in town yesterday.

Chas. Dice, of Cameron, was a welcome caller at the Press office Tuesday.

Mr. Geo. Geesey, of Altoona, was visiting Miss Laura Evans at this place, last Monday.

Geo. Walker, Jr., and Geo. Crawford favored the Press sanctum with a brief call yesterday.

Andrew Weisenfluk, who resides on Tannery Row, is suffering terribly with rheumatism.

J. H. Miller, of Dents Run, visited with Harry Hemphill, an old-time friend, over Sunday.

Mrs. J. R. Hamilton has been very sick the past week. Her friends hope for her speedy recovery.

Miss Cora Taylor left for Buffalo this morning, where she will visit her brother, W. W. Taylor and wife, until spring.

Chas. C. Craven, of Sterling Run, was transacting business in Emporium yesterday and visited the Press. Mr. Craven is one of our oldest citizens.

Mr. Geo. Gross and wife are rejoicing of the arrival of a beautiful girl baby at his home. The little lady made its advent yesterday and intends ruling that home in the future.

Everybody who lived in Emporium twenty years ago knew "Dick" Shaffer and will be pleased to know he is calling on his old friends in town for a few days and visiting his daughter.

John M. Coyle hands us a copy of the Ulster County (N. Y.) Gazette, dated Jan. 4th, 1899. It contains an account of the death of George Washington, together with proceedings of Congress.

Mrs. W. P. Herrick returned from Philadelphia on Monday with Miss Ella Herrick, who has been a patient in a Philadelphia Hospital. We regret to hear that Miss Herrick is in very poor health.

Mr. R. Seger, of the firm of R. Seger & Co., merchant tailors, was a social caller at the Press on Friday last. Mr. Seger has for many years been one of our substantial citizens and reliable merchants. His merchant tailoring house is among the most popular in this section of the state.

An Old Pioneer Gone.

Ebensburg Herald.

Died—On Tuesday, January 17, 1899, at 10 o'clock p. m., from the effects of grip, John Hughes, of Cambria township, aged 88 years 9 months and 20 days. The deceased was probably the oldest living resident of this section, having come here in 1819 with his father from Lean Bryn Maier Parish, Montgomeryshire, North Wales, and settled on the old Hughes homestead in Cambria township in 1820, where he had resided continuously ever since—76 years. At that time this county was a wild and howling wilderness and it was a question who should control it, the wolves, panthers and bears, or the few straggling settlers. It was in these days that court was adjourned to chase a bear out of a blackberry patch where Judge Johnson's house now stands in Ebensburg. The great rival hunters then were Dick Ashcroft, John T. Williams and Wm. Mills. The ferocious animals were their game—anybody could kill all the deer they wanted, and the deceased had brought down many a one on his own farm, being considerable of a hunter himself. The wolves howled about his cabin all night long.

The deceased was a very intelligent and well read man and was honored and beloved by his neighbors. In politics he was a Republican.

He was a member of the Presbyterian church of Ebensburg and services were held at the house by Rev. M. H. Anderson.

Deceased was father of our greatly esteemed citizen, Wm. J. Hughes.

Are you Troubled with Dyspepsia?

If so, do not neglect until it is too late this opportunity of ridding yourself of this trouble. Dr. Fenger's Dyspepsia Cure, as the name implies, is simply for Dyspepsia and Indigestion. ALL AROUND THE COUNTY.

Buckwalter.

Editor Press:— Mr. Carey is working with Martin's crew.

Mr. Close is in the ice business at present.

Bert Close, of Emporium, is visiting the old folks.

Arthur claims he is picking up quite fast. No joke.

Fred has removed the 'stache and will try his luck for a while.

C. M. Kresge is getting quite a good supply of down on his upper lip.

Gust Oleson resigned his position on the railroad, at this place, last week.

Renovo carpenters were doing some repairing around our burg last week.

Fred says if he didn't get there, he saw some pretty girls at Rich Valley.

Walter Hopkins, of Hopkinsville, is acting as assistant manager for A. Kresge.

Mr. Perry, of Westport is operating at this place in the absence of Mr. W. C. Heath.

L. K. Huntington, one of Emporium's hustling business men, was in our burg last week.

Laie Norton moved Henry Weiting to his father-in-law's farm, last week.

Uncle Tom's Cabin show, drew all our farmer boys to Emporium, Thursday evening.

Mike Davens and Wm. Farrel, of Emporium, were resuscitating in our city last week.

One of Mr. Hilliard's valuable horses met with a very painful accident at Glen Hazel last week.

Owen Denny returned to Glen Hazel last week where he will give medical aid to Mr. Hilliard's horse.

Miss Ethel Waddington visited her parents at Emporium and took in the show, last Thursday evening.

We understand that Jesse Laucks, of Emporium, has leased part of Mr. Sipple's farm, and will take possession soon.

Mike Hillyard has posted $100 to back his new horse against anything in the county for one mile. Now North Creek.

W. C. Heath returned Saturday evening on No. 4, from Pittsburgh, where he has been in attendance with his wife, who is at the private sanitarium of Dr. Sutton.

Fred Mills, the successful Klondiker, and his gang of cowboys passed through here last week with a drove of blooded cattle. It is reported that he has purchased a large tract of land near Beechwood and is about to start a cattle ranch.

SAM SLIP.

Sinnemahoning.

Harvesting ice was the principal industry here last week and every one secured an ample supply; so now Mr. ground hog may send any kind of weather he thinks proper.

Rich Shafer, of DuBois, is visiting his old home and friends at this place. Mr. S. was born and reared here and tells many interesting stories of his boyhood days on the old Sinnemahoning.

A series of revival meetings is in progress here under the auspices of the M. E. Church, and several have already confessed conversion. Rev. Piper is a conscientious and tireless worker in the cause of religion and deserves success.

Again death has removed one of our old and honored land-marks. J. L. D. Foults died at his residence in Sinnemahoning on Friday morning, Feb. 3, at the ripe old age of seventy-six years. He had been in poor health for some time and his demise was not unexpected.

Mr. Foults came to this place in 1850 and has been a prominent figure in the county ever since, has held many offices of trust and was Jury Commissioner of the county at time of his death. He was a charter member of Camp No. 136, P. O. S. A., and was always one of its most zealous and faithful members and in accordance with his request he was buried with the full rites of the order. The funeral services were held on Sunday at 2:00 o'clock and were conducted by Rev. M. C. Piper, of the M. E. church, of which deceased had been a member forty years. He leaves a wife and nine children to mourn his death, one daughter, Mrs. T. J. Cupp, having died eight years ago.

JOE.

Austin.

The new opera house is to have its first show on Thursday.

Orrin Courtwright has moved out of the Hotel Martin and Mr. Bellinger has moved in.

The Enterprise hotel lately vacated by Heath & Stone is to be opened up next week by a Mr. Adams, of Port Allegany.

Geo. W. Huntley, Jr., of Medix Run, stopped over between trains Monday on his way to Galeton, on business with F. H. Goodyear.

Several young men left here on Monday to go to Almagordo, N. M., with a crew from Minn., that are going down to work for the Almagordo Lumber Co., who are going to build a large mill, right away. Their present plant being too small to fill the bill.

Early Monday morning a house belonging to S. Cleary on the hill back of "Snowshoe," part of the town, was totally destroyed by fire. Three families were burned out, viz: Thos. Hunter, W. Sullivan and T. Gavin. All of them saved some of their belongings. House and furniture of Mrs. Cleary was insured for $800, we understand.

About mid-night Monday night, fire broke out in the Cottage Hotel, owned by J. S. Vesey and communicated to the Kellogg building close by, pretty much destroying both buildings. E. O. Austin's Justice office, on one side was slightly scorched but no great amount of damage done. The house occupied by A. W. Colcord stood on the other side of the fire, and on account of the wind being favorable was damaged but little.

DR. BULL'S Cough Syrup cures coughs and colds. Don't go to church or public meeting and disturb the audience by incessant coughing; but use this wonderful remedy at once.

Rich Valley.

Sleighing is good once more. R. Dewey has been having a tussle with that well known fellow, la grippe.

A number of our people attended the farmers' institute. All report a good time.

Master Clive Lewis spent Sunday with grand-ma Lewis.

W. Lewis returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Lottie Lewis spent a few days last week with her grandma Swope.

A crowd of people of North Creek, attended church Thursday night. We noticed the driver and some more got strayed away from the crowd and landed at the opera house.

Miss Dessie Lewis spent Sunday with her sister Mrs. Geo. Huffman at the county seat.

Mrs. W. Carter is gaining some at this writing. Things are looking strange around here. We would not advise some folks to visit too long away from home.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Brown, of Cross Forks are visiting Mrs. P's parents at this writing.

Garnie Housler and sister Chrystal visited their cousin Lew Lewis over Sunday.

Miss Hattie Craven visited her aunt at Sterling Run a few days last week. She informs us her aunt is much better.

Quite a number of the grip victims are left with a severe heart failure.

Mr. R. Warner drove through our streets with a load of young ladies on Sunday, treating them to a sleigh ride.

DISGUSTABLE.

Cameron.

Hello Central, Hello. Fine weather this if the snow is deep.

This is the constant talk of our town, "I wonder who writes the items for the Press?" When you find out, give us a call.

We have not had any school for a couple of days on account of the death of the teacher's cousin, Mr. Garry Mason, of Sterling Run.

Miss Olive Martin visited friends in Emporium a few days last week.

Wonder what two boys left town on account of breaking a sleigh.

The young folks of Sterling Run appear to be enjoying this good sleighing, if no one else is.

How could any one have the audacity to talk about our stores. "Remember you people who write for the Press, we will stand no more of it."

On account of the ice the trolley cars met with an accident, while turning the corner of Main street on Tuesday morning, and there was a passenger left behind.

Mr. Daniel Sullivan is thinking of removing his family into the Bon Tom hotel on Railroad street.

Don't look so sad Rosie, George don't go with any other girl.

Girls you men, do not wink at the boys in church any more or you will find yourself winking in jail.

We young men are slow in this town. We can't even get up a sleighing party.

DEWEY.

Dangers of the Grippe.

The greatest danger from La Grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe we have yet to learn of a case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventative of that dangerous disease. It will cure la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by L. Taggart.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe. George W. Waitt, of South Gardner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by L. Taggart.

BRONCHITIS

Bronchitis is very prevalent. It generally begins with a common cold, attended with cough, hoarseness, soreness of the lungs, tightness of the chest and difficulty in breathing. If not attended to, it becomes dangerous—thousands die from bronchitis annually.

Dr. John W. Bull's Cough Syrup is the best remedy for this disease; it relieves the cough at once, effects an easy expectoration, and cures in a few days.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup

Will promptly cure Bronchitis. Doses are small and pleasant to take. Doctors recommend it. Price 25 cents. At all druggists.
