Ward Beaton and Miss Mary May, two very popular young people of this place, were united in marriage last Sunday, by Father Downey. Mr. Beaton is an industrious, hard working young man in the employ of the Elk Tanning Company. The bride is a very estimable young lady and will make a charming helpmate. The Press hopes their happiness may be unalloyed.

W. C. Heath, P. & E. telegraph operator at Buckwalter, accompanied by his student, Chas. M. Kresge, called to pay their respects to the Press on Tuesday. The boys now say that Chas. has a new girl and is happy. There must be something to it, for while Chas. was viewing our stock room, his eyes brightened when he espied the wedding stock and mumbled something to friend Heath about "having a couple hundred of those soon."

All right, Charles; you shall have the best at cost. Stand by your line marked out and you will wear diamonds some day.

A. C. Blum, the very gentlemanly book-keeper at the Mankey Furniture Company's works, celebrated his 50th anniversary, last Saturday. He royally entertained a few of his gentlemen friends during the evening. Emporium cannot boast of a better citizen than A. C. Blum and his friends and legion.

About two years ago the Press made mention of the fact that Mrs. Thos. Gallagher had stepped upon a needle, breaking it off in her left foot. Mrs. G. has suffered terribly these many months and the doctors have probed several times but failed to find the piece of needle. Yesterday, while polishing the foot Mrs. G. felt something sharp on top of her foot, below the instep. Upon close examination she discovered the eye of a needle and taking another needle and placing the point in the eye, pulled out the cause of her suffering.

If you want to get in a lively and sporty (?) place, just stop at Millers Run.

I wonder what great attraction there is on the Hills that draws all of the young people out there. If anybody knows, tell us in next week's paper.

GETTING READY

Every expectant mother has a trying ordeal to face. If she does not get ready for it, there is no telling what may happen. Child-birth is full of uncertainties if Nature is not given proper assistance.

Mother's Friend

is the best help you can use at this time. It is a liniment, and when regularly applied several months before baby comes, it makes the advent easy and nearly painless. It relieves and prevents "morning sickness," relaxes the overstrained muscles, relieves the distended feeling, shortens labor, makes recovery rapid and certain without any dangerous after-effects. Mother's Friend is good for only one purpose, viz.: to relieve motherhood of danger and pain.
