Sharon Citizens Indignant.

SHARON, Pa., Feb. 26.-Along with the general grief for the death of former State Treasurer Haywood, there is to-day a feeling of intense indignation. It is just becoming a matter of common knowledge that no longer ago than last week the people behind the prosecution in the cases in which he was involved, had a detective in Sharon, prowling around the house in which he lay dying, in search of any-thing on which to found a charge that his illness was a sham to avoid appearing in court.

The people of this community, among whom Mr. Haywood had lived all his life, have properly fathomed the motives which inspired the suits against him and the Quays. But the malignity which sends its agent prowling like an impatient jackal around the bed of a dying man, interviewing his nearest attendants, and counting the last beats of his pulse in the hope of nosing out something on which to score a point in a suit at law, has been unknown in this community heretofore. It is so well-known now that if the detective were here he would go out of town with a coat of tar and feathers

When Most Girls Marry.

For the comfort of the American women of marriageable age it may be stated that their prospects are much better than women in the older coun-According to an authoritative statistician there are in the United States, as a whole, 965 women to every 1000 men, while in all Europe there 1019 women to every 1000 men. The proportion in the different European States is, however, variable. A woman's prospect of marriage is distinctly affected by age. The statistics of all countries show that the great majority of women marry between the ages of twenty and thirty. Before reaching twenty a woman has, of course, a chance of matrimony, but the objections raised by parents or friends to marriage at a tender age frequently outweigh the desire of the young woman to acquire a husband, and lead her to defer the wedding day. All the statistics that have been gathered in the United States bear out the statement that a woman's best chance to marry is at the age of twenty-five, that over six-tenths of the marriages take place between twenty and thirty, and consequently that a woman's chance increases up to twenty-five, and stead-ily decreases after that age, until it reaches the vanishing point somewhere about sixty.—Professor D. R. McAnally in the March Ladies' Home Journal.

A Narrow Escape. Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally termin-ated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth I would meet Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Dis-covery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am saved and am now a well and healthy woman." Trial bot-tles free at L. Taggart's drug store. Regular size, 50c. and $1. Guaranteed or price refunded.

Gibson Republicanism.

Editor Cameron County Press : DEAR SIR:--There has been a great deal of talk recently concerning Republicans going to election last Fall and being hired by the Democrats to not vote.

It is reported that some of my neighbors and myself are among those who did not vote because we were bribed not to do so.

I want it distinctly understood that I was not hird to go to the polls by the Republican party, neither was I hired by the Democratic candidates to not vote, as is being circulated through the neighborhood. I went to the polls last fall and voted the straight Republican ticket, of which I am not ashamed, and which I feel convinced was more than the man done who is circulating to the contrary concerning his neighbors. Every one knows how he served the party when he was asking for an office some short time ago, and yet he claims he is a staunch Republican. Now, if this letter does not satisfy the Republicans of Gibson township, I will go before any magistrate and be qualified that I did vote last foll, and o will my neighbor who is implicated. Now, neighbor if you wish to concoct any more political fabrications come ahead, but take for your motto: "Be sure you are right, then go ahead. CERTIFICATE OF RECORD.

CERTIFICATE OF RECORD. CAMERON COUNTY, 88: I. C. Jay Goodnough, Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas in and for said county, do hereby certify that it apperts of Record in my said office that at the November election, 1898, Mr. O. B. Tanner cast his ballot and that the said ballot was No. 74. Witness my hand and official seal, this 27th day of February, 1899. [SEAL] C. JAY GOODNOUGH, Prothonotary.

I think the above certificate will at once brand the report as a falsehood. O. B. TANNER.

Judge Williams' Will.

The will of the late Henry W. Williams, of Wellsboro, has been filed for probate. No inventory of the property has yet been filed, but Judge Williams, while not a rich man, was comfortably well off. He had a life insurance of a few thousand dollars only. By the terms of the will his wife and daughter are made executors. After the estate is settled they become trustees of the estate: the net increase of the trust is to be paid to the widow and children. The trust is to terminate on the death of his wife and daughter. On the death of the wife, $10.000 is bequeathed to the Presbyterian church of Wellsboro, the income of which is to be used for the deserving poor of the congregation, and if his children should die without heirs, the balance of his estate is to go to the Board of American Home Missions of Presbyterian church. Judge Williams was not a speculator but an economizer. He saved from his salary, and his estate represents his savings. He gave with a liberal hand or his estate would be much larger than it is now. The Presbyterian church was his special pride and care and he has handsomely remembered it -- Wellsboro Advocate.

An Industrial School for Girls.

The Ladies of the Children's Aid Society of Western Pennsylvania have purchased the McFarland property, located in Indiana county, which they have turned into a school for girls. A matron has charge of the school and it is the aim of the Society to bring these girls up as in a real home.

The ladies have asked for contributions to furnish the home, such as hangings for the walls, playthings, reading books, covers for tables and dressers, or trinkets of any description that will help to make the home more beautiful or pleasant.

Any one feeling disposed to give any of the C. A. S ladies or leave them at Mrs. J. J. Hinkle's room, at the Warner Last Tour of the Season via the Pennsyl-Hous
