Some of those Democrats who have been kicking themselves over the stand Mr. Sibley has taken on the Senatorial situation have no kick coming. They should re-member that he was elected by Republican votes. —Franklin News

The half breed Republicans who are attempting to disorganize the party in this county and district Democratic affiliations, and sharp practice savoring of the pot house political stripe, may succeed in their desire and again they may may not. Republicans who stand for principles will not be led away by unholy combinations.—Frank-Iin Press

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, March 13th, 1899.

Before leaving Washington for a much needed rest, President Mc-Kinley made the appointments of Second Lieutenants in the Regular Army, provided for by the new Army act. There are necessarily many disappointments, as for every Lieutenancy there were a score of applicants. The appointments were divided pro rata among the States, the only condition imposed by the President being that each of the young men appointed should be mentally and physically qualified to fill the position asked for him. The responsibility for these appointments rests upon the Senators and Representatives who recommended the men, but as the President made the requirements plain, it is not likely that any mistakes

Accompanying the President on his vacation are Mrs. McKinley, the Vice President and Mrs. Hobart, Senator Hanna, at whose Thomasville, Ga., residence the party will be guests, and several friends. How long the President will remain away from Washington will depend entirely upon public business. Unless called back by something urgent, he will probably stay at Thomasville a couple of weeks, possibly longer. Although it is not his intention to transact any routine public business while away, Secretary Porter will remain at the White House for the making telegraphic reports to him of anything important and receiving any orders it may be necessary for him

In a statement just made public concerning the work of the last Congress, Chairman Cannon, of the House Appropriation Committee gives a more detailed statement of the appropriations made than was possible for him to make earlier "During the whole of the four years covered by Mr. Cleveland's second administration. the material and industrial condition of the country was calamitous and its contemplation does not bring satisfaction to any American citizen. But the Fifty-fifth Congress, beginning with the administration of Wm. McKinley and promptly called in extraordinary session, as promptly enacted legis-lation which has yielded the additional revenues needed to pay the

and the condition of the whole country improved and has continued to improve from that time to the present. Labor is now universally employed with increased wages, and with such employment the means are supplied for increased consumption. The vast increase of the Navy and the creation of an army of a quarter of a million men, together with the increase of taxation, have not in any appreciable degree checked our industrial ad-

ordinary expenses of the govern-ment, and has at the same time protected American labor. With the enactment of that legislation, hope and confidence struck hands given leave to come home whenever he desired to do so, and he has since remained at his post from choice, and because he desired to complete the work in which he is engaged. This is strictly official.

Gen. Brooke, Military Governor of Cuba, and Gen. Otis, Military Governor of the Philippines, have each been authorized to enlist a batallion of natives for the regular army if they consider it wise to try the experiment. The officers will, of course, be Americans.

Administration officials are not at all concerned over the renewed report that Germony had succeeded purchasing the Caroline Islands from Spain; they regard it as a matter that concerns only Spain and Germany, and are consequently indifferent as to whether the report is true or otherwise.

Now that Gen. Lawton and the reinforcements he carried with him joined General Otis, at Manila, it is expected that a rushing campaign will at once be set in motion against the Filipinos, and decisive results are looked for very soon. In late dispatches, General Otis says he has information that the whipping already administered have made the rank and file of the Filipinos anxious to give up, and that it is all their leaders can do to keep them in the field. As the campaign against them is likely to consist largely of bush fighting, Gen. Lawton's extensive experiences in Indian fighting will make his services invaluable. The sort of a man Lawton is may be judged by one of the names given to him by hostile Indians in the West some years ago-"Man-who-getsup-and-fights-in-the-middle-of-the-night." The War Department has not required Gen. Otis to submit his plans for the campaign against the Filipinos, believing it to be better to leave him free-handed to carry out the campaign in his own way, doing exactly as he may think best to scatter Aguinaldo's forces and if possible, to capture that slippery individual.

The old old story of the Republicans being divided into Reed and anti-Reed men has once more been given a start by those who would enjoy nothing more than to see the Republicans split into such factions. There is no more foundation for the story now than there has been for its numerous predecessors. If Speaker Reed lives, he will be elected Speaker of the next House, unless he positively declines to serve as such.

POINTED COMMENT.

QUAY OR NOBODY.

QUAY OR NOBODY.

The conditions at Harrisburg are such that either Matthew S. Quay will have to be re-elected Senator or Pennsylvania will have to be content with but one Senator when Congress is again in session, says Philadelphia Inquirer. If there shall be no election the "insurgents"—the Republican members of the Legislature who have bolted from the decree of their party—must shoulder the responsibility. They will have to face their constituents, and their antagonism to the great Republican principle of majority rule must blast them as dangerous destructionists and end their carreers.

Senator Quay is the party choice, made so by a two-thirds majority in a a regular called caucus, the machinery adopted, not only in Congress, but in every State in the Union for determining the popular will. Against the choice of the Republican party of every State in the Union for determining the popular will. Against the choice of the Republican party of Pennsylvania—a choice recorded at the polls in November as well as by the caucus—a few individuals, for purely personal reasons, have revolted. It is wrong to call these bolters "insurgents." They are revolutionists, for they would overthrow majority rule and substitute the brute rule of the few. It is the bounden duty of all true Republicans at Harrisburg to fight to the bitter end this pernicious doctrine Republicans at Harrisburg to fight to the bitter end this pernicious doctrine of minority rule. No Republican can, in honor desert his party and join hands with those who are hastening to their own political destruction. No Republican can take up arms against majority rule and remain a Republican Let the revolutionists persue their dangerous course if they will and leave the great state of Pennsylvania with only half representation in the Senate. Far better go without a Senator than that the great foundation stone of Republicanism—majority rule—should be shattered.

There can be no surrender to revolutionists. If the latter wish to join hands with the Democrats and elect a Democratic successor to Senator a Democratic Successor to Senator Quay they have the power to do so. If they do not dare to take this final step of party disloyalty, then let the dead-lock go on until Quay is re-elected, the principle of majority rule is triumple. principle of majority rule is triumph-ant and the revolutionists are overwhelmed—as they will be—at the polls.

A COWARDLY IMPUTATION.

rom The Philadelphia Times If the Press respects itself and hopes to command the respect of the public, it must promptly correct and apologize for the cowardly imputation it made against She Crow in an elaborate local article, supplemented by a leading editorial, imputing to Sheriff Crow, we covarily imputing to Sheriff Crow, the covarily imputing the state of the control of the covarily imputing the covarily imput by cowardly innuendo, some undefined irregularity in the drawing of the jurors for the last term of our criminal degree checked our industrial advance, which began co-incidentally with the incoming of the present administration and the Fifty-fifth Congress."

The Navy Department has no information that Admiral Dewey's health is in a precarious condition; months ago Admiral Dewey was sent the drawing of the March jury to some studied irregularity in the drawing of the March jury to serve Senator Quay. Having no accusation to make, the elaborate threadwork of reproach by subtle and cowardly innuendo is unworthy of any reputable public journal.

There was not a single thing done, or left undone, at the drawing of the jury a few days ago for the next term of the court, that was not done, or left undone, at the drawing of the jury for the March term.

Of this fact the Press could have been fully informed by applying to the Judges who presided at the respective drawings, to the Sheriff, to the secretary of the Board of Judges, who is present at all drawings, and to the Prothonotary of the Court, who has been the custodian of the key of the jury box ever since Crow has been Sheriff.

THE BRIBERY INVESTIGATION.

The Bribery Investigation.

From the Harrisburg Patriot, (Dem.)

The investigating committee of the house which is inquiring into the charges of alleged bribery will hold its next session Thursday night. One of the most important of those to be heard is Representative Spatz. heard is Representative Spatz, of Berks county, who is expected to make a detailed statement of his relations with ex-Senator Coyle and his connec-tion with the statement which it was sought to have Democratic members

Another witness who is booked to give interesting testimony and perhaps shed additional light on the corruption which is alleged to have existed in the which is alleged to have existed in the endeavors to force the passage of the McCarrell jury bill is Sylvester S. Smith, of Cameron county. Mr. Smith was subpoened twice to appear before the Thursday night session. On this occasion he was reported to have been unable to attend, owing to a peremptory message recalling him to his home in the afternoon.

Despite this explanation by him, there were several persons who are quoted as having said they had seen Mr. Smith in Harrisburg an hour or more after the time the committee adjourned.

MAGEE CANNOT BE ELECTED.

Philadeiphia Record.

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 13.—According to leaders at anti-Quay head-quarters here there is no foundation for the story of a break this week from the "Antis" to Magee as a candidate for United States Senator. As the result of a canvass made to ascertain what Magee's strength would be if a sult of a canvass made to ascertain what Magee's strength would be if a break were begun at this time in his interest, it is admitted by close friends of Insurgent Leader Flinn that at least 40 and possibly 50 Quayites would refuse to go to Magee, and he could not get more than 35 of the 56 "Antis." This statement applies only to present conditions growing out of Quay's expression of trust that his friends will continue to stand by him and out of continue to stand by him and out of the change in "Anti" feeling since the beginning of the year, when all of Quay's Republican opponents might have been won to the Allegheny leaders.

The present information does little or nothing more than to disprove the report of an intention on the part of the "Antis" to countenance a single feeler in the direction of Magee this Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

This remedy is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and influenza. It has become famous for its cures of these diseases, over a large part of the civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good works; of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured; of severe colds that have yielded promptly to its soothing effects, and of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the child. The extensive use of it for whooping cough has shown that it robs that disease of all dangerous consequences. Sold by L. Taggart.

I have been afflicted with rheumatism for fourteen years and nothing seemed to give any relief. I was able be around all the time, but constantly suffering. I had tried everything I suffering. I had tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did, and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured. I am happy to say that it has not since returned.—Josh. Edgar, Germantown, Cal. For sale by L. Taggart.
