Alex. McDougall claims the attention of the PRESS patrons and something to say of importance. Alex. is a first-class grocer and meat man and treats his customers well.

Farewell Party for Grant S. Wiley.

A brilliant social event was given in Clark's Opera House on Wednesday evening in the form of a farewell party for Grant S. Wiley, who is about to leave for Seattle, Washington, where he expects to make his future home.

About forty guests were present and the merry crowd spent the evening in tripping the "light fantastic" to the delightful strains of Shadman's orchestra. Refreshments were served at midnight, after which the merriment was continued up to the "wee, small hours of the night," when the crowd dispersed and repaired to their respective homes. From all reports it certainly was one of the most pleasant affairs of the season and an event that Grant will ever recall with a deep sense of pleasure; when in the fairy land of the Pacific Slope, reverie's fancies shall cause him to wander back to the familiar faces and scenes of his boyhood home.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

Death of R. F. Edwards.

Sumnerland, (Cal.) Advance.
After a brave struggle, lasting for more than a year, on Monday morning, March 13, R. F. Edwards finally succumbed to consumption and passed peacefully away, surrounded by his sorrowing wife and relatives. The funeral services were held at Liberty Hall on Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Westenberg, pastor of the Santa Barbara Methodist Episcopal church, officiated. A large attendance of relatives and friends of the deceased were present. In his sermon Mr. Westenberg dwelt on the solace to be found in the hope of a future state that is founded on a faith in Jesus and an unshaken belief in the teachings of the Bible. Without this faith, he said, poor humanity was adrift, a helpless hulk upon an unknown sea. He quoted the words of the prophet Isaiah, who compared it the shadow of a great rock in a weary land. On this theme he made a moving discourse that brought tears to the eyes of many of his hearers.

After the services the remains were carried to the station by the pall bearers and shipped to Los Angeles, where they were deposited in the plot belonging to the Typographical Union of that city.

Many beautiful floral pieces covered the casket and the hall was tastefully decorated with evergreens and flowers.

Richard Franklin Edwards was born 1870 at Bloomsburg, Pa., August 25, 1870. He came to this coast in 1893, stopping at Tacoma, Wash. In 1895 he came to Los Angeles and in 1896 came to Sumnerland to take a partnership in the Advance-Courier, retiring from the newspaper business to accept a position as salesman for the cigar firm of Snyder & Davis. When this firm dissolved partnership he returned to Los Angeles to take his old position as compositor on the Morning Herald.

It is supposed that arduous labor, combined with exposure, first planted the seed of the dread disease which ultimately caused his death. That Dick was highly esteemed and well beloved by all who knew him was demonstrated by the unceasing care and general interest that was taken in him during his long illness. Peace to his ashes, and may his poor, troubled soul find rest in that long sleep in the misty beyond for which he yearned so long before his passing.

Base Ball Notice.

Are we to have a base ball team in our city this season? This is the question that it being asked by many sports who are getting anxious for the matter to assume definite shape. But nothing can be done until the balling public produce some one one to assume the management. There was in '98 a ball committee who should, now that the season is drawing near, take the matter in hand, call a meeting and appoint a manager. Surely we had a team last year we were proud of, having met defeat only a few times and then always owing to imported players.

All of our last season's players are still in town. With such players as Mumford, McFadden, Ganey, Pearsall, Morrisey and others, we can put in a winning team, which, I can assure you, can make it interesting for the minor league clubs. So let the public get together, as the matter rests with them, and call a meeting as soon as possible. Come ye base ball cranks and help the movement along. Surely you are still with us.

Respectfully,
MASCOT.

Cameron County Boys as Nabob New York Farmers.

From Port Jarvis New Yorker.
Situated at the pretty little village of Arden, Orange county, New York, on the line of the Erie Railroad, 44 miles from New York, is the headquarters of the Arden Farms Dairy Co. Until three years ago the business was conducted by Mr. E. H. Harriman. At that time a stock company was formed, the principal stockholders of which are E. H. Harriman, W. A. McClellan and William Viner. Mr. McClellan is President and Treasurer, and Mr. Viner is General Manager of the company. The company controls 15,000 acres of land, extending from Southfield to a point two miles west of Arden, a distance of four miles. The actual farming land comprises 5,000 acres divided into seven farms. Each farm is in charge of a foreman. The offices and principal building of the company are located at Arden.

Mr. Viner, the general manager of the company, is a gentleman thoroughly conversant with all the details of farming and the outside work connected with the affairs of the company. At the time Mr. Viner took charge of the Arden Farm, some five years ago, the total milk production was from 80 cows. Under his careful management the business has increased until at the present time the company owns 375 cows, 250 of which are milkers, supplying 60 cans of milk in summer and 35 in winter, and the demand is steadily increasing.

Mr. McClellan, the president and treasurer, attends to the official and clerical business of the company. Besides their farming interests the company operate two stores, one at Arden, the other at Southfield. They have since August last expended upwards of $30,000 in the building of barns, creamery, ice house, grading, etc.

The company has in contemplation the erection of another and much larger barn with a capacity of 150 cows, about one mile from the village of Arden. By so doing, the cows of three farms will be centralized, thereby further facilitating the work.

Some 40 men are constantly employed by the company. They are well paid and comfortable and as a consequence they are faithful and reliable employees and a position at Arden Farm is eagerly sought.

Mountaineer Smoker.

Mountaineer Hose Company held their annual election Tuesday evening, at the parlors in the City Hall. There was a large attendance and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, C. W. Shaffer; Vice President, Don M. Larrabee; Secretary, J. W. Kaye; Treasurer, Geo. Walker, Jr.; Foreman, A. C. Blum; First Assistant, E. G. Strait; Second Assistant, J. W. Kaye; Trustees, I. K. Hockley, H. H. Mullin and W. M. Lawler.

After the election all hands partook of a spread prepared by Mr. Schmidt. Sauer kraut, with all the usual accompaniments, were enjoyed to the fullness of all present. In fact some of the boys ate too much of the popular dutch concoction—the Chief can tell how it goes.

Reduced Rates to the Pacific Coast and the North West.

The Nickel Plate Road is now selling very low rate tickets to points in California, Oregon, Washington, British Columbia, Idaho, Montana and North Dakota. The service is unsurpassed, consisting of three fast express trains a day from Buffalo to Chicago, made up of modern day coaches, elegant vestibule sleeping cars, and dining cars. Close connection is made at Chicago with the fast trains of all western roads. If you want to travel safely, economically and comfortably, see that your tickets read via the Nickel Plate Road.

For information, call on your nearest ticket agent, or address F. J. Moore, Gen'l Agent, Nickel Plate Road, 291 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y. 17-5-3t

DR. BULL'S Cough Syrup will positively cure croup. Many a home has been made desolate by the loss of a dear child which could have been saved by this great remedy.

Easter at the Churches.

Although Easter was a cold, dismal day, and a cosy fireside seemed more enticing than the melodious chant of a church choir, yet there were many people out, both in the morning and evening, in attendance at the impressive Easter services at the various churches.

The following is a summary of the Easter day ceremonies at the leading churches:

PRESBYTERIAN.

There were no great preparations at the Presbyterian church, in the way of floral decorations, there being but a few potted plants, some lilies and palms in the pulpit and about the chancel.

Rev. McCaslin preached an interesting and touching sermon to the children, in the morning, touching upon the power of the resurrection in its relation to christian humanity. The choir, with its full complement, rendered several anthems in which were beautiful solos by Mr. John McInnes and Miss Grace McCaslin.

EMMANUEL.

The floral decorations at Emmanuel church were neatly arranged and conspicuous in chaste and simple beauty. Calla lilies and carnations being placed on the altar, Easter lilies on the font, potted lilies at the end of the choir stalls and potted hyacinths in front of the prayer desk, conveying the beautiful conception of the resurrection in its natural phase as well as the spiritual.

The musical part of the service was well rendered and very impressive, the choir being greatly strengthened by Mrs. T. F. Hudson, of Cameron, and Mr. Ralph Goodall, of Driftwood. Tours' service was used in the morning and evening, together with Stainer's Easter anthem, "They Have Taken Away My Lord."

The Rev. Mr. Robertson delivered the morning sermon from the text: "The Power of His Resurrection," and laid much stress on the leading thought that "The Resurrection has been the power which has changed the thought of the world concerning God, and changing the world's thought of God, has changed the character of the world's life."

There was a goodly attendance at communion service, there being sixty-five communicants received at the two celebrations.

At the Sunday School festival at 3:00 p. m., carols were sung and short addresses were made by the Superintendent and the Rector. The mite boxes were not all returned, but the amount received was $35.50.

At the Parish meeting on Monday evening the members of the old Vestry were re-elected.

ST. MARKS.

The floral decorations at St. Marks were of exquisite taste and beauty and almost beggar description. Each post and pillar was draped in fern and evergreen. The altar decorations were especially attractive, being made up of arches, extending over the whole and set with candles; especially pretty designs were those of a heart and cross of candles on either side of the altar, which, when lit, stood out in bold relief against a background and arch of fern. Inside the chancel rail, in endless profusion, but tastily arranged, were palms, lilies, carnations, roses, hyacinths, etc., each piece seeming to set forth in a manner all its own the glad tidings of "Peace on Earth; Good Will to Men!" In the evening, when the candles about the altar were lit, one gazing for a few moments on the mellow effulgence of pretty flowers and tri-colored lights might close his eyes for a moment and realize a vision of Paradise, disturbed only by the chant of the choir, which would serve only to lead a realization to the enchanting scene.

The service was the usual morning prayer, High Mass at 10:30 and Vespers at 7:30 p. m. The offering of the day was for the benefit of the orphans and amounted to $135.00.

The following is the musical program as carried out by the choir:

1. Organ Solo, "Toccata in D Minor," S. Bach
2. "Kyrie," D. Flat, W. C. Peter
3. "Gloria," D. Flat, W. C. Peter
4. "Credo," F. Sharp, J. Concone
5. "Offertory," Haece Dies, Organ and Choir
6. "Sanctus," A. Wagner
7. "Agnus Dei," Beethoven
8. March, Mendelssohn

EVENING SERVICE, 7:30 P. M.

1. Organ Solo, Batside
2. Vespers, Marco
3. "Regina Coeli," E. Mikal
4. "O Salutaris," Verdi
5. "Tantum Ergo," Verdi
6. March, Clark

METHODIST EPISCOPAL.

The Easter services at the M. E. church were very elaborate. The floral decorations were beautiful and presented a striking example of efficacy in decorative art. The new minister, Rev. Wilford P. Shriner, preached his first sermon to his congregation, at the morning service, and made a lasting impression on his hearers. The Sunday School program for the day was thoughtfully arranged and carried out to the letter.

BRIEF MENTION.

DR. BULL'S Cough Syrup always cures coughs and colds. It is poor economy to neglect a cold when a bottle of this reliable remedy will relieve and cure it at once. Price only 25c.

Business at Bupp's cigar factory is increasing. Were all of our business men to patronize this first-class firm it would give employment to several more hands. Foster home industries—that builds up a town.

The Emporium Machine Company have contracted with the Iron Company to repair the roof on the machine shop, near the furnace. They may be given the contract to repair all the roofs of the Company's buildings.

The Emporium Creamery Company expects to start their plant for the season on Wednesday, April 12th. They have abandoned the old separator and will begin the season with a new and latest improved up-to-date machine.

The Sterling Run tannery has resumed operations, or rather work has been resumed in the rolling department. They will polish all stock on hand and it is hoped all departments will resume by the time the present stock is prepared for the market.

The Pennsylvania R. R. relief fund paid out $571.80 in sick and accident benefits to members on the Tyrone division during the month of February. The total disbursements for sick, accident and death benefits on the P. R. R. system were $85,045.30 for February.

Postmaster Seger has gone into the rabbit business on a large scale and is prepared to fill orders for all varieties on short notice. He may tell you that those scratches on his wrists came from slivers on mail bags, but Alex. McDonnell can describe the ordeal through which they passed.

A large party of hustlers from Potter county passed through Emporium, Monday evening, en route for Harrisburg. The bill for the repeal of Potter county's prohibitory liquor law came up yesterday on final passage. The friends and enemies of the measure are very actively engaged.

"Beautiful Spring" has arrived at last and now you will want to shake your entire winter outfit and get in the grand march with one of our latest cut suits, elegant shirts with cuffs to match, a neat tie and stylish Dunlap hat in the newest block shapes. Surely with such an outfit you will make a stylish appearance, will look better, feel better and live better.
