General Orders No. 8.

HEADQUARTERS G. A. R.
PHILADELPHIA, April 20, 1899.

COMRADES: In accordance with the requirements and customs of our Order the Senior Vice-Commander-in-Chief calls attention to the approaching Memorial Day, May 30th, 1899, confident that every member of the Grand Army of the Republic will unite in paying our annual tribute of flag and flowers to the memory of men who, in days gone by, fought for the unity of the Nation, the purity and truth of the flag, and who stood ready to yield up their lives to secure to us as a people the inestimable blessings of liberty.

The year closing with the next Memorial Day has added new strength and power to the Nation and new glory to the flag. The worth and fame of the American soldier and sailor has been gloriously advanced. The achievements of the "days of the sixties" still remain, and have rendered possible the glorious victories won in the interests of liberty and humanity. Let us, then, on Memorial Day, strew Spring's choicest flowers in tenderness and love upon the grave of every defender of the Republic, and in song, story and fitting ceremony recall the services and unmatched sacrifice of those who, sleeping in the gardens of the sea or in the bosom of the Nation, their place of sepulchre unmarked and unknown, gave not only their lives but their very name for their country.

The men whose memory is perpetuated by the loving service of Memorial Day were part of the greatest Comradeship the world has ever known. Let us, who still survive, be so earnest in our tribute, so pure in our affection, and so loving in our remembrance of them, that the lessons of patriotism which we teach shall find a lodgment in the hearts of all the people, binding all together in devotion to flag and country.

II. It is enjoined upon every Post that in accordance with a custom now firmly established, they attend Divine service on the Sunday preceding Memorial Day.

III. The Thirtieth National Encampment provided that the reading of President Lincoln's Address at Gettysburg be made a special feature in all Memorial Day exercises conducted under the auspice of the Grand Army of the Republic. The address is published herewith. Commanders of Posts will direct that it be read in connection with the exercises of the day. By command of

W. C. JOHNSON,

Sen. V. Com.-in-Chief, Com'g, THO'S. J. STEWART, Adj. Gen.

LINCOLN'S GETTYSBURG ADDRESS.

Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battle field of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field, as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But in a larger sense, we cannot dedicate—we cannot consecrate—we cannot hallow—this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it, far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember, what we say here, but it can never forget what it did here. It is for us the living, rather, to be here dedicated to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave their last full measure of devotion—that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain—that this nation under God, shall have a new birth of freedom—and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

Collar Bone Broken.

We regret to notice that our friend Chas. Fry is "winged" from the effects of falling from a step ladder while making some repairs in his barn. His left collar bone is broken but he is able to be about just the same and on the outlook for business.

Big Day.

Last Monday was a remarkable day in the history of Emporium, yet few of our citizens seemed to realize it, yet it is a fact. The combined wages paid by the Climax Powder Co., Mankey Furniture Co., C. B. Howard & Co., Emporium Milling Co., Emporium Machine Co., and railroads, exceeded the sum ever paid in one day during the history of Emporium. We are not dead.

Will Resume.

The Elk Tanning Company have issued orders to resume work at the Sterling Run Tannery, which has been idle so long. Workmen are now engaged and soon the hustling little town will put on that air of prosperity formerly enjoyed by that people. Hides will commence to arrive this week. We understand that carpenters and machinists are rebuilding the work, the intention being to make a long run. Supt. Norris and foreman Norton are up to their eyes in work.

Obituary.

MRS. MINNIE LIETZ, aged 34, years, wife of Fred Lietz, died at the family residence on Pine street, yesterday morning, of pneumonia. The lady had been in poor health about a year ago, but was improving, as her family thought. Her death was very sudden. Deceased was a consistent christian, being a member of the Wesleyan Methodist church. The funeral will take place from the family residence to-morrow, (Friday) at 2:30 p. m. Rev. Fuller will officiate. The Press, as well as our citizens generally, sympathize with the bereaved husband and motherless child.

Fire Department Matters.

The Fire Department of Emporium met last Friday evening and organized two base ball teams. The following committee was elected: Josiah Howard, Eugene Mumford, W. H. Taylor, H. O. Haupt and J. B. Schriever, with C. W. Shafer, Secretary and S. E. Murry, Treasurer.

The charter having been granted for the "Firemen's Relief Association of Emporium, Pa.," the department met at City Hall last Friday evening and elected the following officers: President, A. C. Blum; Vice President, A. A. McDonald; Secretary, C. W. Shafer; Treasurer, John D. Logan; Trustees, Josiah Howard, J. F. Parsons and Chas. M. Thomas.

Shot in the Leg.

A chap named Lorren Mosier, formerly a resident of Beechwood, kicked up a row in D. W. Donovan's restaurant, last Tuesday and threw a beer bottle at a customer. Mr. Donovan issued a warrant for the chap's arrest and placed the same in Sheriff Mundy's hands, who found his man near C. B. Howard's store, Tuesday evening. The Sheriff notified him that he had a warrant for his arrest, when Mosier took to his heels. Sheriff Mundy fired low in order to give him a warning that he meant business. The ball evidently glanced and struck Mosier in the fleshy part of the left leg, but he kept on running and plunged through the creek, taking a position on an island, where he sat until evening. He had not been captured at last account.

Birthday Party.

Last Tuesday was a happy day with the representatives of the Logan family, at this place, the occasion being the celebration of mother Logan's 85th anniversary. Assembled at the residence of her only son, John D. Logan, Esq., agent of Adams Express Company, at this place, were all the venerable lady's children: Mrs. Sallie L. McCloskey, of Wilkesburg, Pa., Mrs. Lide M. Corwin, William-sport, Pa., and Mrs. I. K. Hockley and family. It is not necessary to say that the happy group of children and grand-children made the occasion full of pleasure for mother Logan, as well as those of the several families present. The Press is pleased to note that this lady is enjoying good health and is able to "paddle her own canoe" about the house and not bother the younger folks to assist her up or down stairs. It is a pleasure to see one of her advanced age enjoying life and aiding in making those around her happy. One of the children remarked to the editor that "mother is enjoying herself in her old days as much as though a Queen." The Logan children certainly have always honored and respected their mother and no kindness or attention has been denied her.

Business Booming at the Furniture Factory.

It is with very great pleasure we note the rapidly increasing business enjoyed by the Mankey Furniture Company, of this place. The general boom in business throughout the country is gradually striking this section and the furniture trade, so long quiet, is on the upward bound. The excellent reputation of the furniture manufactured by this company is meeting the business world in the front rank and large orders are now booked ahead, far exceeding any previous time in the history of the enterprise. This will be good news to our people, as well as to all parties directly interested in the plant. Meeting, as did this establishment, many financial obstacles during the past few years, it has required a large amount of hard work and careful management on the part of B. W. Green, the Receiver, as well as C. F. Mankey and A. C. Blum, his assistants, and other employees, to start the business on a firmer footing and to-day a brighter and more prosperous future is in store for them as a result of their labors.

While the Press has no desire to interfere with the private business of the interested parties, we honestly believe that now is the time for them, as well as our enterprising citizens in general, to place their shoulders to the wheel and aid in placing this important industry upon a firmer financial basis. How can we accomplish it, you ask? Join hands with the Receiver, confer with and encourage him, as well as those immediately associated in the business, and show by your actions that you not only desire the upbuilding of this business, but that you wish to see a paying institution well established.

Vetoed the Salary Bill.

Gov. Stone vetoed the County Supt. Salary bill, amending the act fixing the salaries of public school superintendents. The Gov. says: "I am of the opinion that there is no reason for presuming that the school directors of any county are not capable of fixing the value of the services of the county superintendent. In my judgment there has been no such abuse of their prerogative in this particular as justifies me in approving a bill which is a reflection upon their intelligence or their fairness."

BRIEF MENTION.

Bring specimens of fire clay to the Press office at once.

The iron works at this place is a sure go and all doubters can book on that.

Jamestown manufacturers count on working up 5,000,000 pounds of wool this year.

Henry Auchu says he has never known such a demand for lumber in this country.

A mother once remarked that those who say boys are not economical never saw them use soap.

The Emporium Glove Factory will soon resume operations, so we are reliably informed.

The check roll of the P. & E. R. R. employes of this place amounts to $48,000, this month; an increase of $5,000 over last month.—Renovo Record.

The tannery at this place will shut down for a few days in order to make extensive repairs. They will erect a new smoke stack and line it with fire brick.

Mrs. D. F. Cramer has purchased the Racket store stock and moved the same to the store room next to Alex. McDougall's. Miss Lena Evans will have charge of the store.

There is renewed talk of an issue of sh aplasters. Paper currency in denominations of 10, 25 and 50 cents would be of great convenience in sending small remittances by mail.

The Philadelphia & Reading Railroad want 1,000 men to work on the construction of their road between Williamsport and Milton. A double track and several sidings on the Catawissa branch are being built.

The several school districts of Cameron county will receive from the State during the next two years, annually, after June 1st, 1899, $6,663.80, a reduction of $666.38.

Business is on the jump at the lumber mills of C. B. Howard & Co., at this place. The shipments are simply immense—twenty loaders being employed. The planing department is running day and night.

A McKean county man reports that he kept a flock of fifty hens during the past winter, and during four months from December 1st last, he disposed of $50 worth of eggs, or in other words the flock averaged a dollar's worth of eggs apiece during the four cold months.

The best curfew ordinance, says an exchange, is one that is adopted in each family, where the "old man" acts as mayor and common council, night watch and calaboose keeper; where fine and punishment together and a good hickory stick is more to be feared than so much lollypop. But a good many homes are lacking in this respect.

M. C. Green, of Brooklyn, N. Y., has purchased the wood output from C. B. Howard & Co.'s mill, at this place. This firm is in the wood business and is now negotiating for the establishment of a kindling wood plant at Wysiside, in company with Messrs. Barclay. This new industry will add to the business of that lively town.

For the benefit of those who are not familiar with the provisions of the bicycle bill introduced by Representative E. W. Marshall, of Warren, and which became a law when Governor Stone affixed his signature, we reproduce the more important clauses as follows: It is provided that upon petition from twenty-five free-holders, residents of a county, who are bicyclers, the court shall appoint three resident wheelmen as side-path commissioners, to serve without compensation other than necessary expense. A tax of $1, or so much thereof as may be recommended by the side-path commissioners, shall be paid upon each bicycle in the county. The taxes shall constitute a side-path fund, to be used for construction and maintenance of the paths.

Judge Mitchell, of Tioga county, says: "A bicyclist has no right upon a sidewalk, and no borough can by ordinance give him that right, or make his riding upon the sidewalks legal. A bicycle is a vehicle, and as such, has no more right to run on the sidewalks than has a cart or wagon drawn by horses. If a bicyclist rides upon the sidewalk he is there illegally, and if he should accidentally run over a child or any person and kill him, he would be guilty of manslaughter, no matter if he were riding with the greatest precaution and care, for the reason that his being upon the sidewalk was in itself illegal and would make an accident of this kind serious in its results to the bicyclist, whereas, if he were legally upon the highway, possibly no blame could be attached to him by reason of an unavoidable accident of the character referred to."

EDITOR'S NOTICE.

WHEN you see this item marked with an X, in blue or black pencil mark across its face you will know that your subscription is due, or past due. Your name will be found printed on each copy of the Press, as you receive it and gives the last date to which you have paid. Our terms are $2.00 if not paid in advance, $1.50 in advance. Many, very many, of our patrons allow their subscriptions to run year after year. This we are unable to stand—it is not right, fair nor honorable between man and man.

Church, and it is hoped that a large number of people will avail themselves of this rare treat. No admission will be charged, but a silver collection taken up.

Confirmation Ceremonies.

Yesterday was a great day with the Catholics of Emporium, the occasion being the visitation of Bishop Fitz Maurice, of Erie. The eminent gentleman was met at the P. & E. depot upon the arrival of mail train from the east by Fathers Downey and O'Hern and a committee of churchmen in carriages and conveyed them to the church residence. At 2:30 o'clock the large edifice was packed with our citizens, of all creeds, to witness the confirmation of a class of seventy-five. The ceremony, solemn, impressive and beautiful was rendered doubly so by beautiful decorations of banked flowers, plants and evergreens. Chas. Seger and Mrs. Trepswether acted as sponsors for the confirmation class.

The Bishop was highly pleased with his first visit to Emporium and greatly admired our mountain town.

Council Proceedings.

Adjourned meeting Borough Council, May 15, 1899.

Present: Messrs. Warner, Schweikart, Burns, Burke, Lloyd, and Strayer—6.
Absent: Messrs. Shafer and Palmer.

The bids of W. H. Cramer, C. A. VanLew and S. S. Hackett for building a bridge on Pine street, near grist mill, were read.
Moved by Mr. Lloyd, seconded by Mr. Burns, that bid of Mr. S. S. Hackett, to build the bridge for $200.00 be accepted. Ayes and nays were called as follows: Ayes: Messrs. Warner, Schweikart, Burns, Burke, Lloyd and Strayer—6. Nays: Mr. Catin—1. The motion was declared carried.
Moved by Mr. Burns, seconded by Mr. Warner, that all mud sills that are above water shall be of oak and that five dollars additional should be paid therefor. Carried.
On motion the Council then adjourned to meet May 22nd, 1899, at 7:30 p. m.

Lloyd's Long Range Forecast of the Weather.

FRIDAY, Fair westerly wind; warmer.
SATURDAY, Fair and warmer.
SUNDAY, probably Fair.

The confidence we have in the character of the goods we sell, and the prices fixed for them, make us eager at all times to take back anything that fails to please our customers.

Leader

stationer, bicycles, kodaks, musical instruments, wall paper, sporting goods, fishing tackle and the standard patterns. If there is more buoyancy in the trading at one time than there is at another, it is only because of the weather conditions.

Fourth Street.

What does the Leader say? That is the question in your mind as you turn to Lloyd's Long Range Forecast of the Weather advertisement.

In storm or sunshine, heat or cold, in season or out of it, this store is always ripe in material to arouse the interest of careful buyers in stationer, bicycles, kodaks, musical instruments, wall paper, sporting goods, fishing tackle and the standard patterns. If there is more buoyancy in the trading at one time than there is at another, it is only because of the weather conditions.
