HOT? Well I should remark. But, say; go to N. Seger, the Allegheny Avenue clothier, and he will fit you out in a nice, cool, comfortable rig that will make you wonder why every man hasn't one. Cheap, too.

The Burgin Affair.

In our Friday's issue we published an account of Mrs. Burgin's arrest for keeping a bawdy house. At the hour we went to press the verdict of the Justice of the Peace had not been handed in. It was agreed that if Miss Ida Gray, Mrs. Burgin and her paramour, Chas. Morrison, would leave town the next day never to return the case would be dropped. To this they consented. Miss Gray "flew the coop" the same evening, while Mr. Morrison, and Mrs. Burgin departed on the 10 o'clock train the following morning, presumably for Olean, where, it is alleged they were made husband and wife, which will greatly facilitate matters and make it less embarrassing for the balance of the family. Mrs. Burgin departed without making any provision for her little children. The two older sons have made arrangements to have the three girls sent to Williamsport and placed in the home for the friendless, and as for the little boys they have not been able to find a home for them. We are informed that the newly married couple, if that report be true, are staying at Westfield to avoid being re-arrested and taken to Connersport for trial at the present term of court. It is also said that they will return to Galeton after court. We sincerely hope not.—Galeton Dispatch.

The Burgins referred to above formerly resided in Emporium and conducted the candy kitchen, which proved disastrous. They left this place about one year ago and we learn Mr. Burgin died at Galeton, May 18, 1899. Mrs. Burgin and her alleged husband have located in Emporium, or rather came here last Saturday looking for work and Mrs. Burgin endeavored to secure a home for one of her children. We hope they will return to Galeton.

Wedding Bells.

BAIR—BURKE.

Yesterday was a very important day in the lives of four of Emporium's young people.

At 9:00 o'clock, a. m., Mr. PATRICK BURKE lead to the altar of St. Marks church Miss KATIE BAIR, one of Emporium's most highly respected young ladies, Miss Bertha Bair and Wm. Auchu assisting as bridesmaid and groomsmen. A large circle of friends and admirers filled the large and beautiful church, which upon these occasions always looks its prettiest and best. Father Downey was in his happiest mood and quickly tied the knot. Miss Bair is a daughter of our respected citizens, Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Bair and for several years has been one of Emporium's popular school teachers. Councilman Burke is a very industrious young man and has for a number of years been in the employ of C. B. Howard & Co. Our best wishes for a happy future.

MURRY—ROBINSON.

Seldom has it been our pleasure to attend a more beautiful wedding than that held at Emmanuel church yesterday morning at 11:00 o'clock, when Miss JENNIE S. MURRY and Mr. WM. ROBINSON were united in the holy bonds of wedlock. The church was filled with admiring friends of the contracting parties, and promptly at the hour Mrs. W. H. Howard played the Wedding March as the bridal party entered the church and slowly marched up the aisle, preceded by two little flower girls, Misses Alfretta Hackett and Marion Judd, and Mr. Theo. N. King, of Williamsport, and Miss Mame Logan, Mr. Don M. Larrabee, and Miss Jennie Robinson, of Sinnemahoning, groomsmen and bridesmaids; Miss Edith Murry, maid of honor; bride leaning upon the arm of her brother, S. E. Murry. The bridal party was met in front of the floral gates by Rector Robertson and Mr. Bert Edwards, acting as best man for the groom. After a short pause the flower girls threw open the gates and permitted the bridal party to enter within the inclosure of the altar. The beautiful service, so familiar to our readers, was recited and the questions and responses made in clear and distinct voices.

It was a truly happy wedding and love and pleasure were depicted upon the faces of all present. The bride and groom, accompanied by the invited guests, immediately repaired to the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Murry, where elaborate refreshments had been prepared. All was merriment until Buffalo mail, when Mr. and Mrs. Robinson departed for Niagara Falls and other points to pass the honeymoon. Before departure the friends of the happy couple were particular to see that their baggage was properly decorated with the regulation ribbons, old shoes, proper directions, etc.—an important precaution never neglected on such occasions.

Emmanuel church never looked handsomer and the rare flowers and ferns in great profusion filled the church with sweet fragrance and added greatly to the beauty of the occasion. The bridal colors were pink and white.

The groom is an excellent gentleman and is employed in C. B. Howard & Co.'s office, at this place. The bride is a lovely lady and greatly respected by our citizens. Both are energetic workers in the Emmanuel church.

The Press joins in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Robinson much happiness and a long and joyous voyage through the troublesome waters of life.

Big Time at Sterling.

The Knights and Ladies of the Maccabees are preparing for a large and jolly time at Sterling Run on the Fourth of July. The program prepared for the day will consist of base ball games, climbing greased poles, races, etc. There will be dancing both afternoon and evening, also a display of fireworks in the evening. Excursion rates on railroad.

The Stalwart Republicans of Erie elected an entire stalwart delegation to the State Convention last Saturday. Tioga divided the delegation, while Lebanon elected insurgent delegates.

Democratic Convention.

The Democratic State Convention convened at Harrisburg yesterday and was in stormy session until mid-night, when they adjourned until ten o'clock this a. m. There "was a hot time in the old town" and when the platform presented Bryan's name some of the delegates left the convention, resigning their seats. Creasy, of Columbia, had no opposition for State Treasurer. There were ten or more candidates for Judge of Supreme Court, with Judges Kennedy and Yerkes in the lead.

At the hour of going to press the convention is in a dead-lock, with Yerkes in the lead.

purity; Blue the symbol of faithfulness. The Stars point to Lloyd's store where we have just received the largest lot of flags ever brought to this town at one time. All sizes and at prices that cannot be beat. This store is still growing in public favor, because you can get what you want in bicycles, kodaks, stationery, wall paper, standard patterns, musical instruments, books, newspapers, sporting goods fishing tackle and the best smoke in town.

Uncle Sam orders every flag down from sunset to sunrise. There may be some sentiment mixed in—but the flag lasts better. Our flag is a good subject for study. Every school boy and girl knows what the stars and stripes on our flag represents, but did you think about the color? Red the symbol of love and sacrifice; White the symbol of purity; Blue the symbol of faithfulness. The Stars point to Lloyd's store where we have just received the largest lot of flags ever brought to this town at one time. All sizes and at prices that cannot be beat. This store is still growing in public favor, because you can get what you want in bicycles, kodaks, stationery, wall paper, standard patterns, musical instruments, books, newspapers, sporting goods fishing tackle and the best smoke in town.
