Monday. Mrs. Craig and son Willië, of Pitts-burg, are visiting her sister, Mrs. W. C. Heath, at this place.

The road supervisors are doing some work with the township band wagon— Ingersoll fingering the keys.

Buckwalter certainly has some great fishermen, especially Jas. McGuire, who caught an eel nine feet long.

Mayor Hillyard has sold his straw-berry crop to P. Bush, who will do a land office business in that line.

Councilman Pat Curran made a fly-ing trip to Emporium to arrange for special trains to this place the Fourth.

NO.17.

Alf. Smith and J. V. Hanscom did not attend the meeting being too busy working on a patent to put false teeth on a bandsaw. Alf. says he can make a success of it if Mike keeps away. Austin Murry spit tobacco juice on Dug McCall's feet which raised a racket and kicked over Beldin's work bench, upset a pail of paint and all went home in a bad humor.

On Saturday, Harry Decker fell from a lumber pile and injured his side guite serionsly.

What makes some of the boys act so nervous when you mention the fact that the Fourth is approaching?

Ask For Corbett and Harve Smith about those big fish they saw under the First Fork wagon bridge, but be careful that you stand at a respectful distance. How about those eels you speared that moonlight night, boys?

We are sorry to learn that John C. Logue, who has been suffering severely for some years with a cancer in the face, is nearing death's door. He is an old settler here and has a great many old settler here and has a great many friends. Joe M. says he is terribly ashamed of the Liars' Club since they took the reins from his hands. Before that time they boasted or a proud record, but now they were nowhere. Any school boy could discount them now in telling the truth.

Bad management keeps more people in poor circumstances than any other one cause. To be successful one must look ahead and plan ahead so that when a favorable opportunity presents itself he is ready to take advantage of it. A little forethought will also save much expense and valuable time. A prudent and careful man will keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house, the shiftless fellow will wait until ne-cessity compels it and then ruin his best horse going for a doctor and have a big doctor bill to pay, besides; one pays out twenty-five cents, the other is out a hundred dollars and then won-ders why his neighbor is getting richer while he is getting poorer. ## special trains to this place the Fourth. More Hill was well represented in Mayor Hellyor's strawberry patch on Monday, but it would take four of them to do as much as one of our own boys. Everybody get in line for the straw-berry and ice cream festival, Saturday evening. Mayor Hellyor will furnish all the berries free to help the good cause. Windy City couldn't expect to raise strawberries in a place where the sun never shines, and, as for the shoes, I am afraid the writer hasn't got them to put on, let alone fit.
