Profits in Poultry.
 On the first day of January last I reported on hand 26 fowls which I inventoried at $13.00. Since then I have paid for all the food except the refuse from the kitchen where food for six persons has been prepared. It has cost me $5.40. During this time I have gathered 2,069 eggs; 13 of these I set under a hen and have raised six chickens, now half grown. The average wholesale price of eggs during this time, at Emporium, has been over 12 cents per dozen. 2,069 eggs less 13 eggs set leaves 2,056 eggs at 12 cents per doz., $246.72. I have killed five fowls for the table, $2.50. I have now 21 hens, $10.50; six chickens, $1.50, making $35.05, less inventory and food, $18.40, leaves a gain of $16.65 on an investment of $13.00, for six months. Two things are necessary to success in any undertaking: "Know how," "Do it." This applies to catching fish, picking plums, shooting duck, running egg machines, and every calling, profession and business.

Pig Iron at $20.
 Pig iron at $20 per ton means that there is such a demand for it among people who must use iron for plowing and mowing, for bridges and houses and for tools of all sorts that they are willing to pay twice as much for it as they did in January rather than do without. It means that everybody is hustling to the top of their bent for the good things that this big land offers. It means that the iron trade has struck one of the greatest periods of prosperity that it has ever experienced; and the prosperity of the iron trade indicates that everything else is prosperous, for every other trade and occupation depends more or less on it. The news of the extraordinary demand for pig iron is accompanied by the announcement that the New England cotton mills, which not long ago were supposed to have received a fatal blow from Southern competition, are exceeding all of their former records. The old wages have been more than restored and all of their old trade and much more have come to them.

We are informed also that the sales of clothing this summer have broken all former records, and what ever direction we look we find the people able to indulge in the luxuries and necessities of life on a scale hitherto unequalled. The predictions of the prophets of optimism have all come true, and the faith in the resources and energies of the people have been more than justified, and the end is not yet. There never was a time when there was so little chance for those who thrive by calamity howling, and there never was an instance in our history when the predictions of the pervocors of quack remedies for industrial and financial ills were so completely contradicted as has lately been the case.—Pitts. Times.

Board of Health.
 Stated meeting of the Board of Health at Dr. Bardwell's office, July 6th, 1899. Present, Josiah Howard, E. O. Bardwell, S. L. Barton and George Metzger. The Board resolved itself into a committee of the whole for the purpose of investigating the sanitary conditions of the East Ward.

Board met again at same place Saturday at 10 a. m., when the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, 1st. That no permit shall be issued to any hotel keeper to keep more than two pigs on his premises and private families not more than one pig, and the condition of such permits must be strictly complied with or they will be revoked.

2nd. That all deposits of manure in pits or otherwise, within the Borough limits, be cleared entirely removed and not allowed to accumulate during the summer months.

3rd. That application for permits can be personally made to the Secretary or Health officer, as no blanks are furnished to the Board for this purpose.

On motion, P. R. Beattie was elected Sanitary Policeman for the current year. Adjourned.

G. METZGER, Sec'y.

MARRIED.
 LINGENFELTER-RICHARDS.—On Tuesday evening, July 18, at the Methodist Episcopal Parsonage, by the Rev. Wilford P. Shirmer, MR. CHAS. LINGENFELTER, of Emporium, to MISS NINA RICHARDS, of Brookville, Pa.

Fatal Wreck on the Ridgway & Clearfield Branch Monday.
 Renovo News, Tuesday.

A fatal wreck occurred shortly after noon yesterday at Short's Mills, an unimportant station on the Ridgway & Clearfield branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad, not far from Ridgway, in which Michael J. Welch, of Ridgway, was instantly killed, and Engineer James Walsh slightly injured by jumping. The heavy rains of Sunday and yesterday had washed a large log onto the track which curved sharply at that point. The train, heavily loaded with passengers, was running at a high rate of speed and was almost upon the obstruction before the engineer became aware of the danger. He reversed the engine, applied the air brakes and called to Welch to jump and jumped himself.

In striking the log, the engine broke loose and plunged over a fifteen foot embankment into the Toby branch of the Clarion river. The car next to the engine swung across the track and hung half over the swollen waters of the stream.

It was the prompt action of Engineer Walsh which doubtless saved the lives of many of the passengers and beyond a severe shaking up not one received the slightest injury.

The deceased fireman, Michael Welch, was known and highly esteemed all along the line. He had many friends in Renovo who speak most highly of him and are sincerely sorry to learn of his untimely end.

The train is known as No. 103, which leaves Ridgway at 12:20 p. m. The R. & C. is a branch of the Phila. & Erie, and extends as far as Falls Creek.

The engineer of the ill-fated train, James Walsh, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Walsh, of Renovo, and his friends here are glad to learn that he escaped without any serious injury.

Fireman Welch was not in the habit of working on Mondays, but yesterday was obliged to make the run on account of the illness of the fireman who usually was on duty Monday.

The dead fireman was Chief of the Ridgway Fire Department and one of the hardest workers in any enterprise that called for hustle and a clear head. He was married and resided with his wife in Powell's addition, but did not have any children. Mr. Welch was about thirty-five years of age and leaves a father and a mother, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Welch, of Brockwayville. The wrecking train and crews from St. Marys and Kane were called out.

Dairy Rules.
 The Iowa Agricultural College Creamery has promulgated the following rules, which could be profitably observed by all patrons of creameries and dairymen in general:

1. Nothing but tin pails should be used in the milkyard, as it is impossible to keep wooden pails sweet.
2. The cows' udders should be carefully washed before any milk is drawn.
3. Milk should be aired immediately by pouring or dipping from pail to pail before cooling, and then be cooled to at least 60 degrees.
4. Milk should be kept where the surrounding air is pure and free from stable odors or taint of any kind.
5. Morning's milk should be cooled before mixing with the evening's milk.
6. Cows should not be permitted to drink stagnant or impure water, but should have abundance of good water.
7. Cows should be driven quietly to and from pasture.
8. Cans and pails should be washed carefully with warm water, but not hot, and care should be taken to clean the seams of the receptacles; then they should be scalded thoroughly with hot water and be aired.

Valuable Deposits.
 Very extensive deposits of fire clay have recently been discovered in this section—mountains of it. All required now is to find the parties desiring a good location for a brick plant, with cheap fuel and excellent railroad facilities.

Annual Outing.
 The Pennsylvania R. R. shop picnic came to Emporium, again this year, next Tuesday being the day. It is anticipated there will be forty car loads.

The Gas Field.
 There can be no doubt that gas exists in this county in paying quantities, if not oil. The wells lately drilled have shown that a gas, and possibly an oil field, is close by. Let us not give up our research. The well on Sizer Run, is not a failure by a mill site. The gas is stronger to-day than any time, with strong indications of oil.

A Death Trap.
 Last Friday evening the Warner House 'bus had a close call, while crossing the W. N. Y. & P. track, at the junction. The 'bus was heavily loaded with passengers, many of whom got out and walked after their fright. Something surely can, and should be, done at once before we have to chronicle a horrible accident at this death-trap. The proper persons should see to this and not wait until it is too late.

Renovos Beaten by Emporium.
 The Renovo base ball team crossed bats with Emporium at the latter place on Friday, and met with their first defeat this season, in a game in which the visitor's were outpointed and out-classed. The score was 10 to 2 in favor of Emporium, and up to the seventh inning it looked like a complete shut out, when the visitors managed to scratch in one run on a hit and an error, and scoring a run in the eighth on a long left field drive by Gordon. Our boys started out with two runs in the first inning and five in the next and from then on the game was never in doubt. The home team fielded brilliantly and Overturf pitched excellent ball giving the visitors only five hits and striking out ten men. The features of the game were the running catches of high flies by McFadden and Wykoff and the double play by Ganey, George and Farrell. The following is the score by innings:

STABBING AFFRAY.
Wicked Blowville the Scene of the Turdurous Assault.

Last Saturday evening Dan Gratton an employe of the B. & S. R., with headquarters at Blowville, visited William Anson's "pig's ear" to pass away the evening. Having several nickels about his person he concluded to try his luck on the nickel-in-the-slot machine. Considerable money was fed into the machine without any returns, which caused Gratton's angry passion to rise. He accused Anson of having fixed the machine, and Anson replied by calling Gratton a liar. The quarrelling continued a few minutes when Mrs. Anson arrived and she suggested to her husband that he kill Gratton. The advice was adhered to, for as soon as Gratton turned his back Anson stabbed him in the back. Gratton turned about and before he could get his assailant under control he stabbed him twice in his chest. The affray was interrupted by the presence of other woodsmen, and Gratton was taken home and medical assistance summoned. It is believed that Gratton will live. His age is 35 years, and he is married.

We understand that Anson has settled the difficulty with Gratton by paying $500 and the doctor bill.—Galeton Dispatch.

BRIEF MENTION.

Read Harris' new ad on 4th page. Emporium now supports three laundries. Now let us get a glass factory in Emporium. D. E. Olmsted has a new advertisement in this issue. Read it. The Renovo Shop Pic-Nic will take place on the 25th, at this place. The dance at the opera house last Friday evening netted the P. A. A. $20. Why are Spaniards afraid to sleep on an American bed? Ask H. C. Olmsted. J. H. Day has something new to say to his customers this week. Read his ad on 5th page. Secretary of War Alger, has resigned. Attorney General Griggs will possibly succeed him. The Maccabee membership is now 378,936, including the L. O. T. M. which numbers 116,799. Street Commissioner Beattie has a force of men engaged in building a sewer up Chestnut street. Grandpa Walker says that boy is a girl and we hasten to make the correction before the ladies meet us. While driving to the early train, Monday morning, "Tom," one of the Warner House 'bus horses, fell dead, after many years of usefulness. Many a statesman, says an exchange, owes his smooth sentences to a seven-dollar-a-week stenographer, and a good many of them owe the stenographer the seven dollars. The J. G. Daily Quartette was greeted by a large and appreciative audience at the Presbyterian church, on Tuesday evening. These people are fine musicians and gave a fine, high class vocal entertainment. Twenty-six fire companies have already said that they will attend the convention at Bradford next month. The Emporium department will attend we are informed. We understand the Bradford boys have guaranteed a theatrical troupe as an incentive to Emporium firemen. The Renovo ball club met with an ignominious defeat at the hands of the Emporium club yesterday afternoon, the score being 10 to 2 in favor of the latter club. The Emporium's played a fast game and up to the seventhinning had our boys shut out. From that time on the game was never in doubt. This is the Renovos' first defeat and since they have found foemen worthy of their steel the chances are that other games, perhaps a series of games, will be arranged between the two nines. It is understood that the home club will try the Emporium's another whirl in Renovo next Saturday.—Renovo News.

At its recent meeting in Wilkesbarre, the Pennsylvania State Bar Association selected as a member of the executive committee the prominent Emporium, Pa., attorney, a choice which has been favorably spoken of in this city. It is felt that a wise selection was made, as Mr. Green is among the ablest members of the State bar. He has been engaged in active practice for over twenty-eight years and is well read, being widely known in Cameron county and the State generally. He is a member of the prominent law firm of Green & Shaffer and is a man of perhaps fifty years of age. Mr. Green has been identified with many important and intricate litigations during his extended career at the bar, and in his conduct of these has been very successful.—Financial Review, (N. Y.)

Statistics of the iron and steel industry of Pennsylvania in 1898, have just been completed. The production of pig iron was 5,367,979 gross tons; this was an increase of 750,345 tons over 1897. The value of the product was $45,884,564, an increase of $4,446,374. The average yearly earnings of the men employed, 12,000 in all, was 7 per cent. The output of working steel was 3,575,684 gross tons, an increase of 509,450 tons. The production of open hearth was 1,848,732 tons, an increase of 427,359 tons, and of open-hearth, 63,568 tons, an increase of 20,323 tons. The total production of steel was 5,275,984 tons, an increase of 957,362 tons as compared with 1897. The total production of iron and steel rolled into finished form last year was 5,537,249 tons, as against 4,714,333 the year before. Its value was $136,820,442, as against $123,900,771 in 1897. In this production the number of working people employed was 56,230, and they received in wages $27,879,202, an increase in wages of $3,529,236. There has also been an enormous increase in the production of tin plate. Thanks to the protection which the tin-plate manufacturers received in the McKinley tariff, and which is contained in the Dingey tariff, the United States is now producing practically all the tin plate it uses, instead of buying it all from the tin plate trust in Wales.—Rochester Express.

Wet Weather

In storm or sunshine, heat or cold, in season or out of it, this store is always ripe in goods to arouse the interest of buyers. If there is more buoyancy in the trading at one time than there is at another, it is only because by reason of weather conditions; there are more people here to be interested, more to participate in the fruit of our planning. Why not go to Lloyd's store for bicycles, kodaks, sporting goods, wall paper, fishing tackle standard patterns, stationary, sheet music and a good cigar. If it rained dollars it would only be twice as wonderful as some of the offerings in the above stock of goods, for it is an old proverb that "whatever is in the kettle will come out of the spout." We have the goods in the kettle.
