JOSIAH ALLEN'S WIFE'S NEW STORY. "Josiah Allen's Wife" (Marietta Holley) has finished her new story, and the first installment is published in the August Ladies' Home Journal. The Shop Picnic.

The annual picnic of the Renovoites, at this place, last Tuesday, was very largely attended, about eighteen hundred being in attendance. The day was exceedingly warm and dusty yet the great crowd seemed to have a good time. There was a noticeable scarcity of fakers.

From Austin Republican.

S. D. McDonald, of Emporium, called in town on Monday last.

H. P. Minard was over from Emporium on business, the first of the week.

Allen Baldwin, of Emporium, formerly of this place, was in town on Monday.

The club called the "Jolly Nine" were entertained by a party of Emporium "swells" last evening. The party was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Gallup.

The contracts have been signed for the erection of a large new saw mill at Galoton. The work of clearing the ground was commenced this week. The new company is the Emporium Hardwood Co., with W. L. Sykes as manager. The site chosen is the land on the flat in the center of the town. Fifty men will be given employment and the mill will be completed and in operation before snow flies.

Dangerous Sidewalks.

There are numerous outrageously dangerous walks in Emporium and it will be well for property owners to pay attention to the law, ere some one is injured. The law says, "Whenever the abutting owner is by law bound to keep the highway in repair, he is liable for any injury caused by his negligence and municipality if subjected to action by reason of negligence, has recourse over him." The law accepts no excuses, so get on a hustle before you get a bill of damages to pay.

A Chapter of Accidents.

Joe, the little son of James Farrell, while crossing the street on Saturday evening was knocked down and run over by a bicycle, but fortunately was not very badly hurt.

Last Thursday ex-Sheriff J. W. Krimer, who has been superintending the erection of a barn at Frank Shives' farm, near Emporium, met with a painful accident. He fell through the barn floor, striking his face against a plank, sustaining severe injuries and has been confined to his residence ever since. Mr. Krimer was unconscious when picked up and suffered considerably until Sunday. He is now able to be about again.

Last Monday, Mr. S. Hilliard, who has been employed in C. B. Howard & Co.'s mill at this place, had the misfortune to get the two middle fingers of his left hand caught in the chain of the gang, cutting off about one inch of the fingers. He was taken to Dr. Bardwell's office and the injured members amputated at first joint. Mr. Hilliard is one of Howard & Co.'s most faithful men and his accident—the first we believe—will lay him off for only a few days. His friends, and they are legion, are glad the injuries were not more serious.

Lost in the Mountains.

Last Thursday the campers at the Cabin, near North Bend, enjoyed (?) a genuine scare. The party from Emporium were winding up the week's sport, preparatory for leaving for home, when two of the young ladies composing the party, Miss Iva Cole, of Keokuk, Iowa, and Miss Ada Hockley, of Emporium, thought it would be fun to take a stroll up the steep mountain in the rear of the cottage and pick a few berries for tea. The girls not returning as soon as they were expected, men were started in search. Night was almost on the party, yet no traces of the missing girls. Excitement was now intense. Just think of two young ladies alone in a dense forest, surrounded by snakes and all kinds of wild animals. Launches were quickly packed for an all night search and a messenger dispatched to the Bend for additional men. Riley Warner and I. K. Hockley plunged into the briars and slashing, while B. W. Green and Wm. Howard started for Italy to call out the construction crew. At this time up went a shout—the lost were found. The girls had taken the wrong road and wandered through the mountains, coming out seven miles from the Cabin. They had traveled fifteen miles and when found were foot sore and about tired out. Of course they were received with cheers and music by the band—all the tin utensils of the camp. It was an experience long to be remembered and not soon to be forgotten, especially by the brave young ladies.

Volunteers for Philippines.

Frank T. McNarney, a former captain of Company H, 12th regiment, and late of the U. S. army has been authorized by Adjutant General Corbin to raise men from this district for service in the Philippines. Captain McNarney has the assurance that the men will be assigned together with him and go direct to the Philippines, there to join one of the two skeleton regiments now being formed. It is quite an advantage for the men of this district to have the opportunity to enlist and serve with a man who has been proven a thorough soldier in peace and war.

Captain McNarney is the only man in Pennsylvania who has received a certificate of merit for bravery in the Spanish-American war, and is thoroughly competent to handle his men under any and all circumstances. The Adjutant General has instructed the recruiting officer at Williamsport to muster in the men as volunteer Philippine soldiers, and place them at a hotel until the required forty men are together, when they will proceed to the Philippines by way of the Presidio.

Captain McNarney is now in this city and can be seen at the Keystone printing office on Bellevue—Clinton Republican.

This will be an opportunity for Cameron county men to enlist for two years. Apply at once to Capt. McNarney, at Williamsport. Capt. McNarney is well known in Emporium, being brother of J. P. McNarney.

BRIEF MENTION.

Dusty on Tuesday.
Buy a road sprinkler.
Emporium schools commence August 28th.
The sewer up Chesnut street is completed.
Landlord Murphy is treating the Commercial Hotel to a fresh coat of paint.
Fourteen men are now employed in Emporium Machine Co.'s plant, at this place.
Workmen have just finished painting and otherwise repairing the residence of Thos. Gallagher.
The Free Methodists held an open air meeting at the corner of Broad and Fourth streets on Saturday evening.
The section men on the B. & S., have been given an increase of ten cents a day in wages. The advance went into effect on the 17th.
An ace, thirteen feet in length, was caught in the Seneca lake recently. Respectfully dedicated to the Sinnemahoning Liars Club.
Howard & Co.'s mill shut down on Tuesday afternoon in order to give the men an opportunity to witness the ball game between Renovo and Emporium.
We understand that, owing to the outbreak of Small Pox in Clearfield and other near by counties the State law requiring all school children to be vaccinated before they can attend school, will be rigidly enforced this year.
Attorney J. A. Ormerod, of Austin, has leased about 1000 acres of land in Southern Potter and Cameron counties for an oil company, who will commence operations immediately.—Potter Journal.

Ex-County Commissioner Elihu Housler, died at his residence on North Creek, yesterday afternoon, aged 70 years. He leaves a widow and several grown up children. We have not the date of the funeral, as we go to press.

On Saturday the alarm of fire was sounded and the fire located in the ware room of M. C. Tulis' store. The fire department responded promptly, but the fire had been extinguished before they arrived. No damage was done.

At the biennial convention of the Maccabees held at Port Huron, last Wednesday, week, the following officers were elected: Hon. P. D. Markey, Com; G. J. Siegel, Supreme Record Keeper and Dr. E. Ross, Medical Examiner.

There has never been known a time in Emporium when the sidewalks were in such a deplorable condition. In very many cases there can be no excuse offered, for the property owners are abundantly able to repair or rebuild. Where is the sidewalk committee?

Gen. J. B. Gordon will lecture at this place, before the Teachers' Institute, Oct. 17, delivering his popular lecture "Last Days of the Confederacy." This, in all probability, will be the last opportunity the people of this section will have to hear this well known lecturer. Gen. Gordon is the last living Confederate General of high rank.

Alden Deets, 27 years old, was perhaps fatally injured while engaged in dynamiting fish near Franklin, on Saturday. He was in a boat, and was preparing to explode a stick of dynamite in the water when it exploded in his hand. The right hand was blown off, one eye was blown out, and the sight of the other destroyed, and he was terribly cut and bruised about the head and limbs.

A great sensation has been caused in Clearfield by the extraordinary revival meetings of the Free Methodists. A few days ago some sixty men and women came to the park and formed a camp meeting. They were from McConnellsburg, Clarion and Cameron counties. They paraded the streets of the town before each of their meetings, singing hymns and exhorting the crowd. At their meetings their religious ecstasies recall the tales of the revival of the last century. During a heavy storm one woman lay for two hours in a trance, another ran up and down in front of the platform until she dropped exhausted to the ground. Others watched nightly for the second coming. Great crowds attended the meetings.—Bellefonte Watchman.

R. R. Picnic Weather.

Last Tuesday morning it kept everybody guessing whether it would rain that day. But we want to remind you that in last Thursday's PRESS, our local weather forecaster said, "At this time it looks like showers for R. R. picnic." It sprinkled in the morning and rained in the evening, but it was an ideal picnic weather. You can get the weather in the PRESS as well as the news.

BASE BALL GAMES.

Emporium Shut Out at Renovo—the Best Game Ever Played There.

The Emporium base ball team went to Renovo last Saturday and crossed bats with the latter team and meeting ignominious defeat, being completely shut out by a score of 3 to 0. Nevertheless it was a hotly contested game and clearly demonstrated that even though our boys were shut out, that they can put up a thoroughly interesting and exciting game. A special dispatch to Grit, dated Renovo, says "it was the best game ever played here, the visitors certainly played an excellent game, allowing Renovo only one earned run, the other two scoring on errors. Farrell played his usual errorless game at first base, Overturf was in fine form, while the superb fielding of Wykoff and Pearsall were prominent features of the game, and Mumford, behind the bat, did effectual work. The score taken for the PRESS is as follows:

Batteries, Overturf and Mumford, Stout and Friel struck out, by Overturf 3, by Stout 4; bases on balls, by Overturf 2, by Stout 2; two base hit, O'Connell earned runs, Renovo 1. Umpire, O'Connell.

Renovo News: Don't think the Renovo club can't play ball after Saturday's game. It was as pretty a contest as was ever witnessed on the home grounds and reminded the spectators of the famous games played by the old resolute many years ago. There were only seven hits made in the game, five of which were made by Renovo players. Renovo had three and Emporium four errors, yet the game was a faultless one throughout. It was a gentlemanly contest, too, no wrangling, no hickering and nothing to mar the pleasure of the spectators, except the unusual friendship of Old Sol who made humanity sweat. It was hot. Every person present will concede that, but if it were twice as hot the spectators would have remained for it was a battle royal between the two teams, the members of which know how to play the national sport.

The battery work of Stout and Friel was spicery. Only two hits were made off "Jimmy" and these were of the "scratchy" order amounting to naught. Will Friel is as good behind the bat as in the pitcher's box, and proved beyond all doubt that he is an exceptional all round player. But McManigal's work at third captured the hearts of the fans by storm. Harry is a natural ball player and a quick one, too. He had four put-outs, of the gilt-edged order, and four assists of the lightning variety besides one hit.

The work of the Emporium club was also good—better, in fact than any club that has played here this year. The score of 3 to 0 is no disgrace to Emporium because it takes a first-class nine to hold the score this fine. And the Emporium boys made a most favorable impression, too. They are a crowd of gentlemen as well as a nine of ball players.

Handsome Market.

Alex. McDougall believes in being fully up to the times and occupying a front seat on the band wagon. He has enlarged his meat market, connected with his popular grocery establishment, and furnished it with an up-to-date city outfit, making it one of the most attractive meat markets in town. His admirable cold storage room adjoining his market, enables him to handle a greater variety of meats and to better accommodate his increasing patronage.

Jolly Pleasure Seekers.

Last Tuesday, while journeying through the dust towards the Renovo picnic, being held in Wiley's Grove, we were "flagged" by a jolly party of Renovoites, who were taking a rest on E. C. Davison's terrace. We noticed the following in the party: John U. Shaffer, Jr., associate editor of the Renovo Record, L. C. Smart, E. W. Shaffer, foreman of the Renovo Record, Truman Neyheart, L. J. Reynolds, accompanied by Misses Carry Heck, Millie Carl, Ella Good, Clara Hollingsworth, all of Renovo and Miss Carrie Smart, of Westport, and Miss Lillian Shaller, of Williamsburg. The jovial party certainly did have a fine time.

The editor of the Coudersport Enterprise must be a beautiful cuss and after reading his last boiler plate edition and grabbing news from his exchanges, one is led to believe that he knows little or nothing of what constitutes the position of an editor of a newspaper. Some weeks ago there appeared a communication in the PRESS relative to a game of ball played between Emporium and Coudersport nines, which appears to have been highly displeasing to the immauculate editor of the Enterprise and he forthwith empties his vile stomach upon the editor of this journal. We know no more about the matter in controversy than the Enterprise, yet we are informed, reliably, that the Emporium boys have just cause to be aggrieved and only want fair play, but this the Coudersport nine dare not even attempt to give. You may vomit your venom on us, Mr. Enterprise, to your heart's content, but you can't play ball a little bit—marbles would answer the better.

We have no time for such "rot" as the editor of the Enterprise indulges in and the disgusting exhibition he delights in making of himself upon the least provocation. An editor who allows himself to be drawn into such tirades only lessens his manhood and the community in which he resides despises the author. In reply to the beautiful (?) and affectionate (?) reference to ourselves, as well as the PRESS, we have only this to say: When the Enterprise editor and his subsidized journal has established a record equal to the PRESS for clean journalism, loyalty to its party and county then, and only then, can it look at home for consolation. Personally we are abundantly able to defend our political course and that is more than the Enterprise man dare attempt, for fear he might take a flop while at it—if the right man "sees" him first.

Low-down bar-room language we never learned. That we leave to Butterworth, if he enjoys it. Good bye.

Why Not Pave Fourth Street?

The question, "Shall the Borough of Emporium pave Fourth street?" we daily hear discussed by our citizens and property owners. While a few, of course, protest against any such extravagant and useless (?) expenditure of money, the great majority of our citizens realize that the more useless expenditure of money in keeping up the street the past twenty years has been an outrage. After the expenditure of many thousands of dollars what have we to-day. Nothing but mud or dust. Let our borough fathers properly investigate the question and should they find the project feasible submit the matter to the people. Emporium has practically no debt to speak of. The borough can be bonded for $18,000 for a long term of years and the bonds readily disposed of at a low rate of interest, thereby allowing the rising generation to pay the principle. Fourth street paved would be one of the handsomest in the state; property would increase in value as a result of the expenditure; mud and dust would not cause the merchants annoyance and the housewife hard work. In short, it would be economy in the right direction.

We should like to hear from our leading citizens and taxpayers upon this question. Think it over and let us hear from you. Our columns are open to all. Now is the time to strike.

Niagara Falls Excursion, Sunday, Aug. 6.

The W. N. Y. & P. Ry. will run a popular low rate excursion to Niagara Falls, Sunday, August 6th. Special train will leave Emporium at 8:30 a. m. Fare for round trip $2.50. Seven hours at the Falls. Returning, special train will leave Niagara Falls 7:30; Buffalo 8:15 p. m. Tickets also good for return passage on all regular trains Monday, August 7th. About the first thing a man or woman wants to do in hot weather is to get rid of as much clothing as possible. What we want to do is to get rid of as much as possible of our kodaks, sporting goods, fishing tackle and wall paper to make room for our fall stock. While we do not quote prices in this advertisement, it is not because we could not, but because there are too many lines. No one can quote you lower prices, and no one can offer you better goods. What more do you want, or what more could you ask?
