LOCAL NOTICES.

Now is the time to buy clothing, if you want first-class goods at low prices.

Mr. J. D. Killheffer, the optician will be in Emporium, at Hirsch's Jewelry Store, on Thursday, Aug. 17th, 1899. Persons wishing any work in this line should call on the above date.

SUMMER STYLES.

Of parasols in a bright array of colors, materials and patterns and a pleasing variety of handles fill up our arsenal of defiance to sun-shine. Every succeeding year adds to the charm of these rich and beautiful creations, which realize artistic effects hitherto unattempted but always in perfect harmony with the costume.

LADIES WAISTS.

A few words tell the tale of a great many waists. We profited by hints from you during May, June and July, and bought only of the styles in demand. So while the assortments show the inroads made by the greatest seasons selling we have ever known, the styles are pretty and the patterns are the sorts asked for. Our stock offered at prices lower than ever before is clean and attractive, there is no collection of unsalable stuff here, hanging like a millstone on the few desirable survivors.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR.

We make it a point to have full stock and the newest effects for summer wear, and our showing of Ladies Muslin Underwear was never so complete as during this season. What the stock contains makes it a harvest of rare opportunities.

M. C. TULIS.

N. Seger's is the best and cheapest place to buy clothing, gents furnishings—well in fact anything in the line of dress, in this section of the state.

LADIES! clean your kid gloves with Miller's Glovine, for sale only by Balcom & Lloyd, headquarters for kid gloves and the famous Dartmouth gloves; all the latest shades. 5-ly

 Our baked beans are simply delicious. Fresh crackers, pickles in bulk or bottled, olives, canned and potted meats, boned chicken and turkey, canned fish, baked beans, jelly, meat dressing, and don't forget Uneeda Jinger Wafer.

School Children Must be Vaccinated.
 At a meeting of the Board of Health on August 3rd, 1899, the following resolution was adopted for the benefit of whom it may concern:
 Resolved, That the public be notified that the State law requiring all children to be vaccinated before they can attend the public schools will be rigidly enforced this season, owing to the prevalence of small pox in nearby towns.
 Parents are advised to have their children vaccinated before school begins and thus avoid any delay the first week of school.

Music all the Way.
 The W. N. Y. & P. Ry. will run one of their popular week day Family Excursions to Portage Falls, Saturday, August 19th. Special train will leave Emporium at 7:30 a. m. Fare, $1.00. Children 5 to 12 years of age, half rate.

Low Excursion Rates to the Firemen's Convention.
 The Fifth Annual Meeting of the Northwestern Pennsylvania Volunteer Firemen's Association will be held at Bradford on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Aug. 16th, 17th and 18th. On Wednesday occurs the business meeting of the association, election of officers, etc., concluding with a banquet in the evening to delegates, chiefs and invited guests. On the second day the great event will be a grand street parade in the afternoon, and on the third day, Friday, there will be a prize drill and hose races at the Driving Park. For the benefit of those who wish to attend, the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh Railway will sell excursion tickets to Bradford and return at a single fare for the round trip, going on all trains August 16th, 17th and 18th, and limited for return passage until August 19th, 1899. In addition to the regular service a special train will leave Ridgway at 7:00 a. m., on Thursday, August 17th, parade day, and returning leave Bradford at 10 p. m.

As Others See Us.
 Hon. John U. Shaffer, editor of Renovo Record, visited Kane last Sunday and writes a very interesting article from notes gathered while passing along the route. This is what he has to say relative to Emporium: "The ride along the mountains and picturesque route of the P. & E. railroad between Renovo and that city, plainly disclosed the wave of business prosperity that has been sweeping over the country since the opening of the present year.
 "The first striking evidences may be seen when the train stops at Emporium, where a large force of carpenters and laborers were at work Saturday morning putting things in shape to start the extensive iron mill which has been idle for many years. Ever since the mill was abandoned, business and property interests have been on the down grade. The wild stories which naturally followed about the impossibility of its competition with other iron manufacturers, gave Emporium a 'set back' from which it could not fully recover. The old iron plant will now shortly resume. It will be operated by Frank B. Baird, of Buffalo, N. Y., who has recently purchased it, and being wealthy and a man who thoroughly understands the iron business, is now spending a large sum of money to refit it with all the best modern machinery, to run at least for the next five years without a break. In addition to resuming operations at the mill a large number of coke ovens will be built at Emporium. The result is everybody about that town is feeling good, buoyant with hope, and ready to go ahead and make it a desirable and profitable place to reside."

Prices marked away down at N. Seger's. The goods must be sold to make room for our new stock.

Social Events and Outings.
 Miss Abbie Metzger pleasantly entertained a number of friends last Saturday evening.

The Emmanuel Sunday School held their annual picnic at Sinnemahoning yesterday, a large number being present.

The Misses Leet entertained a number of friends last Monday evening, in honor of their guests, Miss Groves and her brother, of Coudersport.

Mrs. John J. Hinkle gave a duplicate whist party Wednesday afternoon, in honor of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Cole. About twenty lady friends were present.

Miss Nellie Hogan, one of Emporium's most charming and popular young ladies, entertains a large party of lady and gentlemen friends this (Thursday) evening.

About twenty couples of Emporium young people enjoyed one of their popular open air hops, at Wiley's Grove, last Friday evening. Shadman and Hockleys' full orchestra furnished the music for the occasion.

The Misses McInnes entertained a large number of friends in honor of Miss Esther Chew, of Bradford, at their spacious home on Alleghany Avenue. Dancing and exhibitions of high-class musical talent was the order of the evening.

Mrs. Fred A. Hill entertained a number of school day girl friends, last Monday, at lunch. They were mostly members of the famous "Club of 1869-1870 Belles." The guests evidently hugely enjoyed the pleasantries of their visit and reunion.

The Junior League of the M. E. church will picnic at Wiley's Grove on Friday. The smaller children will be driven to and from the Grove and are to meet at the church at 9:30 a. m. Baskets left at the church will be hauled to and from the Grove. Parents and friends are invited to join with the Juniors in the outing.

Last Friday a jolly party of Emporiumites enjoyed a ride over the Emporium & Rich Valley R. R., one of the most beautiful scenic routes in the country. Mr. Henry Auchu, President of the Company, was untiring in his efforts to make the trip one of pleasure. The party consisted of Henry Auchu and wife, Mrs. J. H. Cole, Miss Iva Cole, Mrs. C. A. Bell, Mrs. G. M. Pott, Henry Pott, Miss Helen Reinohl, Mrs. Thos. Gallagher, Mrs. John J. Hinkle, Mrs. F. G. Judd, Miss Sylvia Mayze, Hubert and Ned Brady, and H. H. Mullin and wife. The day will long be remembered as one pleasantly passed. The delightful ride and beautiful scenery surpasses description. Every citizen of Emporium should take that ride before the timber comes in contact with the woodsman's axe.

A pleasant reunion of former Emporium "girls" took place at Emporium last Saturday, the occasion being a reception tendered by Mrs. J. H. Cole, of Keokuk, Iowa, to several of her school day friends at the residence of her sister Mrs. F. G. Judd. Around the festive board sat: Mrs. J. H. Cole, (Lulu Warner), of Keokuk, Iowa; Mrs. Jos. Emery, (Jennie Freeman), of Westport; Mrs. John F. Derr, (Orpha Freeman), of Renovo; Mrs. O. T. Chase, (Dora Goodrich), of Smethport; Mrs. W. Frank Taylor, (Jennie Zacharias); Mrs. F. A. Hill, (Nettie Mosher); Mrs. John J. Hinkle, (Lizzie Warner); Mrs. F. G. Judd, (Maggie Warner); Mrs. H. H. Mullin, (Ella M. Gould); Miss Sylvia Mayze, of Emporium. To make the occasion complete Mr. and Mrs. Riley Warner joined the happy gathering and aided in the gaiety. It is not necessary to relate that the occasion was certainly a happy one and "the belles of 1869-72" hope to meet again in 1900. The editor of the Press took a peep at the happy gathering and accepted the kind invitation of the hostess to join in devouring the good things prepared.

Cash Prizes.
 Harry S. Lloyd's advertisement in this week's PRESS is entered in class C of Eastman Kodak Co., cash contest for the best advertisement on kodaks.

Emporium Sengerbund.
 Judge Brennan has organized a Sengerbund Society, composed of the best singers in Emporium and expects at an early day to give a public recital under the directorship of Prof. Fritz Von Seger.

Epworth League.
 The Seventh Annual Epworth League Convention will be held on the Sinnemahoning camp ground, August 18th, 19th and 20th, 1899. All Epworth Leaguers of the county are invited to be present. A good program will be prepared and an interesting meeting is anticipated. Come.

Why Trust Them?
 The Republican Party gave the country a Protective Tariff. Now watch the ever increasing exports: In 1895, $807,000,000; in 1896, $882,000,000; in 1897, $1,000,000,000; in 1898, $1,231,000,000; when the present fiscal year is completed on the 30th of June instant, look out for a larger figure even than the last one. And yet Democratic Free-Traders predicted—they wouldn't have it any other way—that Republican Protection would destroy our foreign commerce by killing our exports. What prophets!—and should the country further trust them?—Mansfield, (O.), "News."

Death's Doings.
 QUINN.
 A two year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. J. Quinn died on Monday. The funeral took place from the Catholic church yesterday at two o'clock.

STREICH.
 MRS. JOSEPH STREICH, aged 37 years, died at the family residence, in Plank Road Hollow, Wednesday morning, August 9th, 1899, after an illness of only a few days. Deceased leaves a husband and five children, the youngest being five years old. The funeral will take place Friday at 2 p. m. from Presbyterian church. Our old friend Mr. Streich, who is one of our most industrious citizens, has the sympathy of our people in his terrible affliction.

OWENS.
 MRS. SUSAN OWENS, aged 54 years, died at her family residence last Saturday, after an illness covering several years. Deceased came to this country from England, where she was highly connected. Misfortune overtook her husband and he died, leaving his wife with two small children—Mr. Clippson Martin, a respected and industrious young man of this place, and Mrs. Alfred Taylor, of Buffalo. Mrs. Owens' second husband died in Emporium. Deceased was a member of the Episcopal church. The funeral was held on Monday from the family residence near W. N. Y. & P. Junction, Rev. J. M. Robertson officiating.

Railroads Consolidated.
 It is announced that seven short coal roads of Western New York and Pennsylvania have been merged into one railway through the bituminous coal fields and timber lands between Pittsburgh and Rochester. The road will be known as the Pittsburg, Shawmut & Northern Railroad. Practically all of the bond issue of $6,000,000 has been placed. The bonds bear interest payable in gold and are secured by a first mortgage. Nearly $1,000,000 bonds have been placed among Chicago capitalists. The capital stock is to be $12,000,000, but not all of this will be issued for the present.
 The lines included in the deal are: The Buffalo, St. Marys & Southwestern; the Central New York & Western railroad; the Clermont, Mount Jewett & Northern railroad; the Clarion River Railroad, and the Smethport & Ocean railroad. The mileage is 350.
 The officers are: President, John Byrnes; vice presidents, Henry Marquand and Frank S. Smith; general counsel, Lewis F. Wilson; secretary, Harry McGough, and treasurer, Henry S. Hastings.

BRIEF MENTION.
 Revenue stamps are not required on pension papers.
 Samuel E. Harley, of Ithaca, N. Y., committed suicide at Coudersport on Tuesday.
 Thirty-four fire companies have notified the committee that they will be in attendance at the convention at Bradford.

The Pennsylvania R. R. Co., have extended the limit of Atlantic City excursion tickets to fifteen days. See the notices under proper department in this issue.
 An exchange gives the following advice: "Never borrow your neighbor's paper. There is no greater nuisance than a paper borrower. If you are too penurious to subscribe and pay for your own paper—read the Bible. You ought to."

The Coudersport "Colts" won a game of ball Saturday a week, with the aid of a member of the Emporium team. The Enterprise says: "It must be said in justice to our boys that the infielders with the exception of 'Pink' Peersall, of Emporium, who put up a good and clean game, were playing in strange positions."
 A Kansas printer, in making up the forms one day in a hurry, got a marriage and a grocer's notice mixed so they read as follows: John Smith and Ida Quay were united in the bonds of holy matrimony, which will be sold by the quart or barrel. Mr. Smith is an esteemed coddish at 10 cents, while the bride has nice pigs' feet to display.
 Out at Emporium the owners of a furnace that has been idle for some years last week started up their largest blasting engine and began such other preliminary work as is necessary before a general firing up. Mr. Dingley knew, when he framed the bill which is now admitted to be his proudest monument, that its operations would be beneficial, but it is a pity that he could not have lived to see how much better he fashioned even than he knew.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Without feeling called upon to apologize for the articles in the Potter Enterprise, regarding our neighbors in Cameron county, we wondered whether they would make the mistake of supposing that the Enterprise represents any portion of the respectable people of Potter county. It is gathered from the reply of the Cameron County Press that they have not made that mistake and yet they must wonder how any such a character could be tolerated by the class of people of which Potter county has every reason to be proud. Of course there is a class everywhere who relish just such wit as embellishes the pages of that political nondescript. Unfortunately there is another class of respectable but misguided people who imagine themselves benefactors in upholding and patronizing such a character. It may be right but it does not look very well to outsiders.—Coudersport Journal.

BASE BALL GAMES.
 Sterling Run and Emporium Play an Exciting Eleven Inning Game.—Methodists Beat Presbyterians.
 The game of ball played here last Friday between Emporium and Sterling Run was very exciting and resulted in a victory for the home team by a score of 9 to 8. We were prevented from seeing the match, yet we are informed that the game was rather loosely played in the first but that the boys settled down and played good ball the latter part of the game. An unusual amount of "rag chewing" was indulged in and several ugly scraps were narrowly averted by the magnanimity of Captain Peersall. The Sterling Run team was greatly strengthened by the addition of Johnsonburg, Renovo, Sinnemahoning and other outside players, while the Emporium team was weak, having been compelled to play several substitutes in place of such good players as Farrell and McFadden. Boys, try your luck again.

The Presbyterian and Methodist Sunday School teams crossed bats at Athletic Field on Wednesday, and indulged in a scrimmage on the diamond which ended in a victory for the M. E.'s by the magnificent score of 15 to 14. It was evidently a game between a lot of old rheumatic, back numbers, with a sufficient commingling of young blood to make the game interesting. The way Goodnough pounded the leather covered spheroid and chased those "old fellows" around the bases was a caution to St. Peter. It was a pretty fair exhibition of the national game, anyway, and the enjoyment they had left no cause for any ill-feeling. It was thoroughly a game for fun, not for blood.

Union Sabbath School Convention.
 The second annual convention of the Driftwood, Grove, Gibson and Lumber Union Sabbath School Convention will be held in the Messiah church, at Sterling Run, on Monday and Tuesday, August 14th and 15th, 1899. An interesting program has been prepared. There will be a large gathering of Sunday School workers.

Dr. Deavor at M. E. Church.
 The Rev. E. E. A. Deavor, Ph. D., of Austin, Texas, who will preach next Sunday morning and evening in the M. E. church of this place. Dr. Deavor will no doubt be greeted by many friends. The pastor, Rev. W. P. Shriner officiates in the M. E. church at St. Marys on the same day.

EASTMAN'S KODAK

WILL PHOTOGRAPH THE WEATHER.

FRIDAY, Probably showers, but you take an Eastman Pocket Kodak with you.
 SATURDAY, Showers.
 SUNDAY, Fair weather.

You can carry it in your hands, on your shoulder, in your pocket or on your bicycle. You press the button and the Kodak will do the rest.

LLOYD'S LONG RANGE FORECAST OF THE WEATHER AND EASTMAN'S KODAK.

KODAK

1900 years ago the wise men of the East were attracted by a wonderful star shining in the heavens, which stood over the town of Bethlehem in the land of Judea. In this nineteenth century the people of the world are attracted by a wonderful star in the East which stands over Rochester, in the state of New York, where the Eastman Kodak Company manufactures the only kodak known to the world. These points characterize the superiority of Eastman's Kodak, simplicity, light weight, cartridge system, daylight loading, achromatic lenses, film or glass plates.
 This Kodak can be used by boys or girls, men or women, professional or amateur, at home or abroad, in rain or shine, in daylight or darkness, in summer or winter, standing or riding. "You press the button and the kodak will do the rest." There is no kodak but the Eastman Kodak. For sale by

HARRY S. LLOYD.

The confidence we have in the character of Eastman's Kodak, and the prices fixed on them, make us eager at all times to take back any of them that fail to please our customers.

There is no kodak but the Eastman Kodak.
