The John Rohn Case.

The Clearfield Republican of last week says:

"The John Rohn mystery promises to eclipse all former mysteries in these parts. Since the day he is said to have walked out into the woods. April 6, 1899, nothing has been seen or heard of the man so well known from Karthaus to Lock Haven.

"Reasons of all kinds are advanced to explain why John Rohn is not to be found about his home, but the most logical reason, the one advanced by the best men in the neighborhood, is that John Rohn was foully murdered by some person or persons who expected to benefit in some way by his death.

"Down on the Karthaus hillsides, seemingly well authenticated, are circulated regarding the domestic relations existing in the Rohn family which tend to show that several persons might be implicated in his disappearance.

"All the people in that locality know that John Rohn always carried large sums of money on his person and always kept a good sized bank account. It was known that he intended to pay out several thousand dollars the week following his disappearance. Neither this money nor any of the papers known to be in Rohn's possession at the time of or shortly before his disappearance have ever turned up except a Pennsylvania Railroad voucher for $150, for ties furnished, which was presented to the Clearfield National Bank for payment by Dr. F. S. Neveling, of this place. Payment was refused by President A. P. Powell, of the bank, on the ground that the voucher was not properly endorsed.

"Dr. Feveling says the voucher was given him by Mrs. Rohn in part payment of a bill for medical services rendered. Mrs. Rohn in explaining the voucher says her husband, a few days before his disappearance, took it out of his pocketbook and handed it to her son, who was going to Lock Haven to have it cashed there. The young man went off and forgot it, leaving it lying on the organ in the parlor. No one however, explains, why John Rohn did not endorse it before handing it to his son. It is not explained whether or not the son had authority to endorse his father's name or if he had why the voucher when presented by Dr. Neveling for payment at the Clearfield National Bank, was so bunglingly endorsed.

"It is also known in the community that certain persons talked of taking out letters on John Rohn's estate although the law provides that a man must be proven dead or proven absent seven years before letters can be granted to anyone. "Several officers have worked on the case and each claims he has dug up plain clues, but the main thing is yet undone—the finding of the body or enough of the body of John Rohn to satisfy the law that he is dead. "If the body of John Rohn is found several arrests will be made immediately, but until that time the suspected parties will continue to breathe free air.

Sabbath School Convention.

Penfield, Pa., Aug. 15, 1899.

Editor Press— I have just come from the Union Sabbath School Convention held at Sterling Run, in Cameron county. The district is Driftwood, Lumber, Gibson and Grove. Rev. S. Ebersole of Sterling Run, was President and Jos. Farley, Secretary.

The four sessions were well attended by people from Sterling Run and surrounding neighborhoods. Rev. E. E. Mulliner, of Cameron, gave an interesting talk, showing that punctuality is important to success of schools.

Rev. M. C. Piper, of Sinnemahoning, opened the subject of how to secure general attendance in a practical and interesting manner.

Mr. C. D. Osterhout, President of Elk county Association, gave a bright and useful address on "Home Sabbath, etc." He said they were moving for a house visitation of the entire county on Sept. 30th.

Rev. Chas. Roads, D. D., General Secretary of the State S. S. Association, gave several most interesting talks and answered lots of questions. The audience wanted more every time. We had hoped to hear Mrs. Barnes, the State Supt. of Primary Work, but we were disappointed.

OFFICERS FOR NEXT YEAR.

President—Rev. M. C. Piper, Sinnemahoning; Vice Pres.—J. M. English, Mason Hill; Secretary—Laura Griffith, Driftwood; Treas.—Mrs. G. L. Smith, Driftwood; Cor. Sec'y.—Rev. S. Ebersole, Sterling Run. Other members Ex. Com.—Jos. Farley and Victor Brooks.

It is probable the convention for 1900 will be held at Driftwood. The time will not be the same as this year on account of the regular annual meeting of the Epworth League at Sinnemahoning.

OFFICERS FOR CAMERON COUNTY S. S. ASSOCIATION. Pres.—Rev. E. E. Mulliner, Cameron; Vice Pres.—Josiah Howard, Emporium; Sec'y.—Jos. Newton, Emporium; Cor. Sec'y.—H. F. Stauffer, Emporium; Treas.—Adlai Mason, Sterling Run. Other members Ex. Com.—Rev. McCaslin, Emporium; Rev. S. Ebersole, Sterling Run.

This was a live Convention. Good reports were given from all the schools of the district. L. BAIRD.

In Honor of the Soldiers.

Welcome the brave Tenth Pennsylvania heroes. Next Sunday's "Philadelphia Press," (August 20) will be a souvenir in their honor. It will be filled with half-tone reproductions of the photographs taken in San Francisco by the "Sunday Press" photographer, especially for this edition. The landing of the troops, incidents of the rousing demonstration made in their honor, the individual heroes and snap shots of many scenes will be shown in this magnificent souvenir edition. Colonel George Nox McCain, the only Philadelphia staff correspondent who went out to meet "the boys in blue," has written for this edition all about their work in the Philippines, the tragedies and comedies of war, incidents which make heroes, stories that will make you laugh and tales that will bring the tear. Artists and photographers will unite to illustrate the deeds of the sons of the Keystone State, in this great souvenir edition. Be sure to get next Sunday's "Press."

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand a foot by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, bacchic fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold by L. Taggart, druggist.

Where the digestion is good, and the general powers of the system in a healthy state, worms can find no habitation in the human body. White's Cream Vermifuge not only destroys every worm, but corrects all derangements of the digestive organs. Price 25 cents. L. Taggart.

About one month ago my child, which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief, we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete change was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L. Boggs, Stumptown, Gilmer Co., W. Va. For sale by L. Taggart. aug

The Best Remedy for Flux.

Mr. John Mathias, a well known stock dealer of Pulaski, Ky., says: "After suffering for over a week with flux, and my physician having failed to relieve me I was advised to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have the pleasure of stating that the half of one bottle cured me." For sale by L. Taggart. aug

If sleep were vouchsafed to the man with an insipid moustache it would never reach maturity, but would be pulled out root and branch through the vain efforts of its proud possessor to curl ends that are hardly beginnings.

Diphtheria is in Los Angeles, Cal., and a telegram is received by the Cure U Co., Butler, Pa., ordering Armstrong's Diphtheria and Quinsy Drops to be sent at once by express. This shows how a good article is appreciated.

How few persons realize how much their little means to others.

The Rev. W. B. Costley, of Stockbridge, Ga., while attending to his pastoral duties at Ellenwood, that state, was attacked by cholera morbus. He says: "By chance I happened to get hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and I think it was the means of saving my life. It relieved me at once." For sale by L. The skirts of chance are often a good bit frayed about the edges.

"DeWitt's Little Early Risers did me more good than all blood medicines and other pills," writes Geo. H. Jacobs of Thompson, Conn. Prompt, pleasant, never gripe—they cure constipation, arouse the torpid liver to action and give you clean blood, steady nerves, a clear brain and a healthy appetite. R. C. Dodson. Sly

Strange as it may seem, a woman may have a good figure and not be good form. "Our baby was sick for a month with severe cough and catarrhal fever. Although we used many remedies she kept getting worse until we used One Minute Cough Cure—it relieved at once and cured her in a few days"—B. L. Nance, Prin. High School, Bluffdale, Texas. R. C. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure quickly cures dyspepsia because its ingredients are such that it cannot help doing so. "The public can rely upon it as a master remedy for all disorders arising from imperfect digestion."—Jas M. Thomas, M. D., in American Journal of Health, N. Y. R. C. Dodson. Sly

Some women make themselves so tired getting ready for a vacation that they are not quite rested when it is over.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure thoroughly digests food without aid from the stomach, and at the same time heals and restores the diseased digestive organs. It is the only remedy that does both of these things and can be relied upon to permanently cure dyspepsia. R. C. Dodson. Sly

Friendliness in a dog is a delightful quality until he manifests it indiscriminately for both burglars and bosom friends.

He who is ashamed of the pedigree he got from his father is never going to leave one his children can brag of.

Some women do nothing but talk about their money, instead of letting the money have a chance to talk once in a while.

The hotel piazza gossips seldom realize that they in turn are as much talked about as any of the victims they so unmercifully criticize.

No one knows the unbearable torture the peculiar and agonizing pain, caused by piles, unless they have suffered from them. Many believe them incurable. This is a mistake. Proper treatment will cure them. Tabler's Buckeye Pile Ointment is an infallible cure. Price, 50c. in bottles, sells 75 cts. L. Taggart. aug
