"God's Rulin this Universe Yet."

When you're feelin' blamed tough 'cause the world treat you rough, An' things never seem to go right, When you're credit you bust, an' you're eyed with distrust, An' the future don't look very bright, Don't give up an' cry, an' wish you could die, Just hustle—its no use to fret— There's room for you still, if you work with a will— God's rulin' this universe yet.

No use to get blue—take a happier view, Keep you're courage a-boomin' at par, If you're made of right stuff, don't you take any bluff, Always let people know where you are; Strike out for the right an' your weakness fight, An' you'll soon at the pinnacle get, The right will prevail—never knew it to fail— God's rulin' this universe yet.

When trials come fast an' your sky's overcast With a mighty thick lowerin' cloud, An' you hopelessly try to reason out why Your sin wears a dark dismal shroud, Don't doubt Providence 'cause you're held in suspense, An' your way with affliction's beset, Look up with a smile trustin' God all the while— He's rulin' this universe yet.

Wisdom in Chunks.

The trouble with some people in most towns is they will not cast their bread upon the water unless they are assured in advance that in a few days it will all come back to them a full grown sandwich, all trimmed with ham, butter and mustard and rolling in a warranty deed for one half of the earth and a mortgage on the other half.—Ex.

Can be Arrested for Fraud.

The latest postal laws are such that newspaper publishers can have arrested for fraud any one who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. Under this law the man who allows his subscription to run along for some time unpaid, and then orders it discontinued, or orders the postmaster to mark it "refused," and send a postal card notifying the publishers, lays himself liable to arrest and fine, the same as for theft, etc.

Furnace in Blast.

Emporium Furnace No. 1, went in blast this morning at 11:32, after being idle over nine years. Everything is in first-class condition and the furnace started off in good shape. A light gas explosion took place, but no damage, except to frighten the sight-seers.

EMPORIUM WINS ANOTHER GAME.

The First Application Given Smethport at Port Allegheny Rubbed in at Emporium by a Score of 11 to 6.

The local base ball diamond was the scene of a lively and interesting game, last Thursday afternoon, when the crack Smethport team crossed bats with Emporium and met their second defeat of the season. These teams are pretty evenly matched and furnished one of the prettiest contests ever seen here. The game was close and exciting up to the fifth inning, when Smethport bunched their hits and batted in three runs giving them a lead which looked dangerous for the home team, but in the next three innings Emporium found Fuller's delivery and batted in ten runs, gaining a lead that the visitors could not overtake. In these three innings Emporium had the visitors chasing leather so fast that they were all run together like a foot ball eleven and some of the players, in their frenzy, went so far as to make "foul tackles" on our base runners.

The features of the game were the stick work of the Friels, Stout and Quinn for Emporium, and Fuller and Keefe for the visitors; the one-hand catch of a liner and double play by Will Friel, and the impartial decisions of Umpire Joe Harris.

The following is the official score, as taken for the PRESS:

EMPORIUM.		SMETHPORT.

Who's next?

A large crowd attended the game. Fuller seemed to weaken toward the last.

De "rooters" certain'y did git in their work. The boys did well at their dance in the evening.

Wonder what the "Jerseys" think of Emporium now.

The home team gave some nice exhibitions of base running. Quinn put Keefe's eye in mourning when he stopped him at first.

Farrel got a high fly that he did not have to move out of his tracks for.

Two brothers, Messrs. Will and Fritz Seger were respective managers of the opposing teams.

Overturf played a neat game in the diamond, but was up against a streak of hard luck at the bat.

That was an exhibition of "dirty" ball playing that our people do not like when the visitors' first baseman interfered with Quinn when he was running out a nice hit that was labeled for three bases.

Now for Foot Ball.

This is the day of foot ball. The hero of the gridiron succeeds the heroes of Manila in the public gaze. Next Sunday's great "Philadelphia Press" will be a foot ball and Fall sport edition. "The Press" will keep up this season its national reputation for having the most complete and original sporting reports in the United States, and next Sunday's "Press" will emphasize that fact at the opening of the foot ball season. It will also contain many strong features not in the world of sports. Be sure to get next Sunday's "Press."

ROUTED OUT JUDGE FOR WEDDING

Eloping Couple Made Happy Before the Sun Arose.

Williamsport dispatch to Philadelphia Record. WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Oct. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Robinson passed through here this evening enroute for the former's home at Emporium. When they went the other way shortly after midnight this morning, the latter's name was Emily Nefey. She had met Robinson by appointment. They were on their way to Elmira to circumvent parental objections. Arriving there before daylight, City Judge McDowell was routed out of bed and quickly made them man and wife. The bride's home is at Driftwood.

New Department Chief.

The Emporium Fire Department met at the City Hall on Tuesday evening and accepted the resignation of J. B. Schriever, Chief of the Department, and elected S. E. Murry, of the Citizens Hose Co., as his successor. Jos. Kaye, of the Hamiltons, was elected Assistant Chief to fill the vacancy caused by the promotion of Mr. Murry.

Big Potatoes.

Wm. Jordan, of Moore Hill, brought to this office last Saturday, some prize potatoes grown on his farm at the above place. There were eleven of them, each one weighing over a pound and together would more than fill a peck measure. In fact they have kept a family of four persons in potatoes since Saturday and they are not half gone yet, and it might be well to state that the family is not Dutch at that price.

Ian Maclaren on the Church 'Tutiner'

Ian Maclaren will contribute to the November Ladies' Home Journal an article on "The Tutiner in the Church." It will deal with the troubles created by the mutinous members of the congregation, and will prescribe a course of treatment for those who stir up discord. The famous Scotch preacher-author will doubtless give some advice quite worth following, as he is a man of wonderful resources.

What a Baby Can Do.

It can wear out a pair of kid shoes in twenty-four hours.

It can keep its father busy advertising in the newspaper for a nurse.

It can occupy both sides of the largest bed manufactured simultaneously.

It can cause its father to be insulted by every second-class boarding-house keeper at the seaside, who "never take children," which in nine cases out of ten is fortunate for the children.

It can make itself look like a fiend just when mamma wants to show what a pretty baby she has.

It can make an old bachelor in the adjoining room use language that, if uttered in the street, would get him in prison for two years.—Penny Magazine.

The Waterman Phrase Contest.

The contest for a gold mounted Waterman fountain pen, given by the social department of the Epworth League, last Friday evening, along with a very entertaining program, was a decided success. The entertainment, by excellent talent, was highly appreciated by all, and the performers did credit to themselves as well as to the town. Some fifty persons out of the hundred present engaged in the contest for the pen, and after a careful and thorough examination of the papers, Miss Blanche Ludlam was awarded the prize. At the close of the program each one present was given a satin book mark—a souvenir of the occasion. The League here is prospering and the young people of that society show superior tact in the act of entertaining audiences, and should be encouraged. This society has a pleasant manner of entertaining people and at the same time uplifting them spiritually—and do it as though they did it not.

Snow.

Last Thursday in the PRESS our local weather forecaster said, for "Saturday, cloudy; colder, and you will see the first snow of the season," and it snowed.

Confirmation Services.

Bishop Whitehead will make a visitation to Emmanuel Parish on Monday, Oct. 9th. Evening prayer and confirmation at 7:30 p. m. On Tuesday morning Holy Communion at 7:30 o'clock.

Seriously Ill.

The many friends of Wm. H. Gross, who resides on Sixth street, will be pained to learn that he was taken suddenly ill early yesterday morning, with hemorrhages of the lungs. Dr. Bardwell is attending him.

Olmsted—Beers.

Just as we go to press the ceremony is taking place at the First Baptist Church, in the presence of a large circle of relatives and friends, that will unite for life, Mr. Frank T. Beers, of Bellefonte, Pa., and Miss Clara Olmsted, daughter of our esteemed friends Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Olmsted. Rev. W. R. McNeil, of Bridgeton, N. J., officiated. We regret the happy occasion takes place too late for an extended notice this issue.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. ALMA MIX, nee Woodworth, whose demise was noted in these columns last week, was, at the time of her death, one of the few remaining pioneer residents of this section, having been born near the present site of Ben-zette, on May 26th, 1823. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs.—Woodworth, were among the early settlers of that section and they carved out of the virgin forest a home for themselves and children. In those early days the settlers were called upon to endure hardship and privation. The nearest stores were at Lock Haven, Bellefonte, and Olean, N. Y., where they had to journey for their supplies, and in many instances the mills for grinding the grain they raised were a score or more miles distant; and frequently the men carried a bag of wheat or grain that distance to have it made into flour. The women and girls learned to spin and weave and they made all the clothing for their families. Under such conditions Miss Woodworth spent the early years of her life.

On the 23 day of July, 1840, at the age of 17 years, she was married to Mr. Hezekiah Mix, of Gibson township, in what was then Clearfield county, then Elk, and now Cameron county. The young couple soon founded a home and they retained it together until the husband's death, on Nov. 4th, 1893, a period of over 53 years. Seven children, all girls, were born to Mr. and Mrs. Mix. Three of them, Delilah, Catherine and Phoebe, died in infancy while the others, Nancy Ellen, Eliza Ann, Mary Emma and Clara Louise, grew to womanhood and married. Of these but one, Clara Louise, now Mrs. J. O. Brookbank, survive their mother.

Mrs. Mix died on Sept. 25th, 1899, aged 76 years, four months and 19 days. The illness which finally caused her death covered a period of several years but she bore her suffering with christian fortitude, calmly and patiently awaiting the call of the Master to that bourne where peace and everlasting life supplant sorrow and disappointment of our fleeting moments upon earth.—Mrs. Mix was universally loved and respected and the full sympathy of her sorrowing friends goes out to the surviving members of her family. Interment was made in the family plot in Oak Hill cemetery on Wednesday, Sept. 27th, 1899. Rev. Ebersole, of the Advent church, officiated, assisted by Rev. E. G. Piper, of the M. E. church.—Driftwood Gazette.

Over an Embankment.

Last Monday evening as Sheriff Mundy was coming up from Cameron on his wheel, he went over a fifteen foot embankment, sustaining a severe sprain of the left shoulder. He was riding along at a good gait, when his attention was distracted from his wheel and he went over the bank near the P. & E. water tank, with the result above mentioned. He was discovered by the crew on the yard engine and was placed on board and brought home. Dr. DeLong was summoned and dressed his injuries. He is out around but carries his left arm in a sling.

It is disgusting to hear some people speak scornfully of girls who have to work for a living. No sensible man is dazzled by the glitter of a jeweled hand, a gold bracelet or watch, bought on "tick" perhaps. All this has not so much fascination as a pleasant disposition, happy intelligent face, a well cooked meal and a clean and tidy home. A rosy cheeked, happy face in the kitchen is worth a dozen operatic singers in the parlor, pawing upon the piano and screaming "A Flower from Mother's Grave," or "My Mother Was a Lady," when very likely the poor mother is hanging out clothes in the backyard.—Austin Republican.

BRIEF MENTION.

Vacant private residences are getting to be a scarce article in Emporium.

Six families moved to town on Monday and still there is more to come.

M. T. Hogan has a force of masons at work building the foundations for his new block on Fourth street.

On Monday morning, train No. 58, east, and the Driftwood gravel train collided near Sterling Run, and done considerable damage, delaying Erie mail two hours and half.

B. W. Green, and C. W. Shaffer have moved into their new offices over the bank, and now occupy one of the most convenient and tastily arranged suite of law offices in this section.

On account of the absence of the pastor no public preaching will be held in the M. E. church on Sunday. Sabbath school at 12:00 M., Epworth League vespy services at 7:00 p. m.

The mother who would have her children healthy must not be afraid to have them occasionally dirty. While cleanliness is next to godliness, there is a clean dirt that comes from contact with the earth that is wholesome. Have the little ones bathed frequently, insist that they come to meals with immaculate hands and faces, but, between meals, have them so dressed that they are free to run and romp as they will, is the advice which a prominent physician gives.
