CAMERON COUNTY PRESS, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1899.

Cameron County Press. ESTABLISHED BY C. B. GOULD. HENRY H. MULLIN, Editor and Manager PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

Judge of Supreme Court, J. HAY BROWN, Lancaster. J. HAY BROWN, Lancaster. Judge of Superior Court, JOSIAH R. ADAMS, Philadelphia. State Treasure LT.-COL. JAMES E. BARNETT, Washington County. COUNTY. For Sheriff J. D. SWOPE, Shippen For County Commissioners, E. W. GASKILL, Shippen. CHARLES GLEASON, Drittwood. For County Auditors, CHAS. L. BUTLER, Emporium WM. H. LOGUE, Gibson

No political party in this country can win by touting for the Tejalo rebels.

It seems to characteristic of Admiral Dewey to slip into harbors before breakfast.

And still the boys keep crowding to enlist to fight for Uncle Sam in the Philippines. The twelve regiments under the second call are being recruited even faster than the first ten.

Mr. Bryan asks in a recent address, "What are the signs of the times?" To a large extent they are of the "Laborers Wanted" variety, thanks to the Republican party.

Some of the Democratic papers seem to be much perturbed lest President McKinley should occasionally find his way to the rear platform of his car during his Western trip.

When the Democratic leaders finally issue the order for an attack on the American flag from the rear in behalf of the rebels, they will find quite a number of their party who will not participate.

Mr. Bryan predicts a sweeping victory for the calamity ticket in Nebraska this fall. But since Mr. Bryan predicted that prosperity could not return until silver was remonetized, his prophetical powers have been somewhat discredited.

In 1896 the Reyublicans promised prosperity to this nation if McKinley was elected, and prosperity is here. They promised that confidence would be restored and it was done. Yet now the discredited Democracy expects the people to change all that.

Spain's Greatest Need.

Spain's Greatest Need. Mr. R. P. Olivia, of Barcelona, Spain, spends his winters at Aiken, S. C. Weak nerves had caused severe pains in the back of his head. On using Electric Bitters, America's greatest blood and nerve remedy, all pain soon left him. He says this grand medicine is what his country needs. All America knows that it cures liver and kidney trouble, purifies the blood, tones up the stomach, strengthens the nerves, puts vim, vigor and new life into every muscle, nerve and organ of the body. If weak, tired or ailing you need it. Every bottle guaranteed; only 50 cents.

ex-quartermaster; Corporal William T. Dom, Company I; Private Charles Playford, Company C, and First Lleu-tenant Oliver S. Scott, adjutant. A distinguished addition to the party will be Major J. N. Killian, of the First Nebraska, which was in the same bri-gade as the Tenth at Manila, under command of General Hale. Major Killian and Colonel Barnett are close friends, an intimacy born of war time comradeship, fighting shoulder to shoulder.

shoulder. The second party of the military spellbinders will be made up of Gen-eral J. P. S. Gobin, lieutenant gover-nor; Brigadier General John A. Wiley, Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewart and General James W. Latta, secretary of internal affairs, and other speakers of the sixtles.

ELKIN SEES VICTORY.

Former State Chairman John P. El-kin is quite confident of great Repub-lican majorities in Pennsylvania this fall.

"The present state campaign," said Mr. Elkin, "is entirely different from that of last year, in that there is no evidence of factional opposition to the that of last year, in that there is no evidence of factional opposition to the candidates on the Republican ticket. There is a splendid feeling prevailing among the Republicans throughout the state. They rocognize the fact that the candidates on their ticket are men of exceptional ability, and are popular and deserving of their support. There is a spirit of patriotism abroad and of loyality to the Republican party which means so much for the welfare of the state and the nation. Not a word can be said against the charactor, integ-rity, capacity or patriotism of any man on the ticket. No one familiar with the situation will say that there is any doubt about the election of any one of them. The aim of the Republicans of Penasylvanis, therefore, will be to make their majorities as large as pos-sible. The national campaign of 1900 is already under way. The fag of Bryanism still floats over the camp of the Democracy, while Republicans ev-erywhere are railying under the ban-ner of McKinley. Business mon are taking a keen interest in the cam-paign. They are not anxious to in any way help the Bryanties by the vote of this fall so that the silverites shall be encouraged to enter the contest of next year with the idea that they paign. They are not anxieus to in any way help the Bryanies by the vote of this fall so that the silverites shall be encouraged to eater the contest of next year with the idea that they have a chance of capturing the presi-dency. Contrasted with the demoral-ized and depresed condition of the commercial and manufacturing inter-ests of the country in 1896, brought about under the last Democratic ad-ministration, the situation today, with business booming on every hand, with our mills all running and in many places working overtime, our iron and steel industries crowded with orders that in many cases are sufficient to keep them busy for two years to come, with wages being advanced and likely to go higher, is not calculated to pre-sent inspiring arguments for Republi-cans to vote against their party nomi-nees. The Republican party in Penn-sylvania, as it does in every other state in the Union, stands for the Mc-Kinley administration and the up-holding of the president in his conduct of the war and his foreign policy. "With the brave Lleutenant Colonel Barnett, of the "Fighting" Tenth Penn-sylvania volunteers, who fought with Dewey in the Philippines, as one of their standard bearers, and with J. Hay Brown and Josiah R. Adams, law-yers of recognized ability and standing in their profession, as the candidates for the supreme bench and the superior court, respectively, the Republicans of Pennsylvania can go to the polls in November next with a patriotic duty to perform, and they will roll up im-mense majorities for these candidates and when the election returns are read Pennsylvania will take her place at the head of the Republican column of next year for the re-election of Presi-dent McKinley, the continuance of next year for the re-election of Presi-dent McKinley, the continuance of next year for the re-election of Presi-dent McKinley, the continuance of next year for the re-election of Presi-dent McKinley, the continuance of next year for the re-election of Presi-dent McKinley, the continuance have throbbed and swelled until the walls of Jericho before the trumpets, the butteresses and battlements of an-cient wrong have crumbled and fallen. cient wrong have crumbled and fallen. They herald that America has entered the lists for freedom. We bring to you today a symbol of tyranny cast and moulded in Spain in the natal year of our freedom. It entered in the far off Orient upon its career of oppres-sion. Continent and ocean intervened between it and the bell, but destiny quickly pursued its way unil at last the west went to the east and its mis-sion is ended. Its bronze mouth has spoken in anger, but now mute and silent it speaks more significantly in honor of the humanity it once op-pressed.

HONORED WITH DEWEY "Fighting Tenth" Pennsylvania Have a Glorious Week. PHILADELPHIA WENT WILD. And in the Great Land Parade in New

pressed. "Mr. Mayor, on behalf of the officers and men of the Tenth Pennsylvania volunteers and in their name, I pre-sent to you for the city of Philadelphia this gun of tyranny as a sign of vic-tory for the bell of liberty. May the institutions to which it owes its new institutions to which it owes its new and novel surroundings forever live and prosper." Wild cheers greeted the colonel's speech, and Mayor Ashbridge, who ac-cepted it on behalf of the city, also evoked applause over the many well sounding patriotic utterances he gave volce to. The offleers and men were dined and wined and treated to a direlay of lay.

wined and treated to a display of lav-ish hospitality during their stay in Philadelphia.

HONORED BY DEWEY.

HONORED BY DEWEY. When the Tenth Pennsylvania troops same into sight, says a special dispatch from New York, Governor Stone was riding at their head, carrying his hat in his hand, because he was so con-stantly cheered that it wasn't worth his while to try to put it on. He was accompanied by his staff, and after him rode Brigadier General Schall, in command of the troops. The Second, Ninth, First and Third regiments fol-lewed, looking more like regulars than militia, a peculerity of the soldiers of Ponnsylvania. At the end came the vet-eran Tenth, with Lieutenant Colonel James E. Barnett in command. The men were in khaki trousers, blue flan-nel shirts and slouch hats that looked as if they had seen really more service than any hat ought to be called upon to endure. They came in the same attire that they wore when they marched aboard the transports at Manila and eheered for the country to which they were going after their hard service. They looked veterans and carried them-selves like veterans, everyman of them. When they first came up, marching when they first came up, marching with a free, swinging step, all the stands rose to them and stood silent for a few seconds, taking them all in. Above them floated the flag that they had carried into battle and out again, tattered, frayed, a complicated mesh-work of futtering bits, and the proud-est possession that a regiment can have. When the admiral caught sight of the flag he took off his hat and held it down to his side, and he looked at those worn colors as a man looks at that which he loves, and stood so, uncovered and with his face turned toward them until they had passed under the arch. It was the selves like veterans, every man of them had passed under the arch. It was the his face traned toward them until they had passed under the arch. It was the most impressive sight of an impressive day, for it took the mind away for a moment from the glory of the pageant to the stern work of war. There was paid to the flag a deeper tribute than mere wild cheering. The boys returned to their homes in western Pennsylvania delighted with the success of their trip. An amusing feature of the political campaign in Pennsylvania is an ef-fort made by Democratic politicians and their allies to create the impres-sion that the visit of the "Fighting Tenth" to New York was worked up to aid Colonel Barnett in his canvass for state treasurer. Inasmuch as Colo-nel Barnett's election by an immense majority is already assured, the ridiculous character of this story must be apparent. The expenses for the trip of the Tenth were met by sub-scriptions from friends of the regi-ment who did not propose to have the boys kept at home for the mere mat-ter of their transportation. Their en-tertainment in Philadelphia was pro-vided by the Third regiment and $1,500 was appropriated by the Philadelphia city councils. If the enthusiasm over the Tenth drew attention to the can-didacy of Colonel Barnet the cause of patriotism and good government is not likely to suffer thereby.

AS TO STATE ISSUES.

Scandal Mongers Make No Impression With Reckless and False

Bucklen's Arnica Salve. The best Salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and posi-tively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satis-faction or money refunded. Price 25 cents a box. For sale by L. Taggart. v34-n2-ly Bucklen's Arnica Salve

Notice.

Notice. We, the undersigned, do hereby agree to refund the money on two 25 cent bottles or boxes of Baxter's Mandrake Bitters, if it fails to cure constipation, biliousness, sick head-ache, jaundice, loss of appetite, sour stomach, dyspepsia, liver complaint, or any of the diseases for which it is re-commeded. It is highly recommended as a tonic and blood purifler. Sold liquid in bottles, and tablets in boxes. Price 25 cents for either. One pack-age of either guaranteed to give satis-faction or money refunded. L. Tag-gart, R. C. Dodson. 34-24-ly goods for ceived.

For the Household.

5c upwards.

prices.

NOTICE.

CAMBRON COUNTY, SS: NOTICE is hereby given that B. W. Green, Receiver of the Mankey Furniture Com-pany, has filed his first partial account of his administration, as Receiver aforesaid, and the same will be presented to the Court of Common Pleas, at the October term next for confirmation absolute.

olnte. C. JAY GOODNOUGH, Prothonotary. Prothonotary's Office, porium, Pa., Sept. 20th, 1899. } 31-4t

SHERIFF'S FISH PROCLAMATION.

TO the owners, builders or managers of fish dams, fish walls, fish baskets, eel weirs, kiddles, brush or facine nets, or any other per-manently set or unlawful means of taking fish within the limits of Cameron county, Pa. You are hereby notified that by an Act of the General Assembly of Pa., of the 24th day of May, A. D. 1871, the said means of taking fish are de-clared common nuisances, and under said Act and the Act of the 22nd day of May, A. D., 1880, it is made the duty of the Sheriff of the county to babte or destroy the same. You are, therefore, hereby commanded to abate, remove or destroy the aforesaid means of taking fish within ten days from the date FRANK MUNDY, Sheriff. Sheriff's Office, Sept. 22, 1999.-314t

Sheriff's Office, Sept. 23, 1890.-31.4t COURT PROCLAMATION.-WHEREAS:-The Hon. CHAS. A. MAYER President Judge and the Hons. Join's McDowaLo and J.C. Bonnam, As-sociate Judges of the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery, Quarter Sessions of the Freace, Orphans' Cour and Courter Sessions of the Freace, Orphans' Cour and Courter Sessions of the Freace, Orphans' Cour and Courter Sessions of the Freace, Orphans' Court and Courter Sessions of the Trocent bearing date the 29th day of April A. D., 1890, and to me directed for holding Court of Oyer and Terminer, General Jail Delivery, Quarter Sessions of the Peace, Orphans' Court and Court of Common Plens, in the Borough of Emporium, Pa., on Monday, the 23th day of Cotober 1890, at 2 o'clock, p. m., and to con-tinue one week. Notice is hereby given to the Coroners, Justices of the Peace and Constables within the county, that they be then and there in their proper per-sons, at 2 o'clock, p. m., of said day, with their rolls, records, inquisitions, examinations, and other rememberances, to do those things which to their offices appertain to be done. And those who are bound by their recognizance to prosecute against them as will be just. Dated at Emporium, Pa., Sept. 27th, 1899, and in the 123d year of the Independence of the United States of America. FRANK MUNDY, Sheriff. HIST OF CAUSES

LIST OF CAUSES.

LIST OF CAUSES SET DOWN FOR TRIAL at October Term of Court, 1899, commenc-ing Monday, October 23, 1899. No. 16, September Term, 1897. L. K. Huntington vs Leet and Company. B. W. Green, C. W. Shaffer, for Plff. F. D. Leet, for Deffs.

No. 5, February Term, 1898. George W. Huntley, Sr., vs Mrs. Lucy Miller. B. W. Green, C. W. Shaffer for Plff. Johnson & McNarney, for Deft. No. 6, February Term, 1898. Charles M. Vail, to use of Elk Tanning Com-any, a corporation vs 5° S. Hacket, B. W. Green, C. W. Shaffer, for PHT. S. W. Smith, for Det.

S. W. Smith, for Deft. No. 23, May Term, 1898. Lyman Lewis, late Overseer of the Poor of the Poor District of the Township of Shippen vs The Poor District of the Township of Shippen. B. W. Green, C. W. Shaffer, for PHT. Johnson & McNarney, for Deft.

R AT

Satin Skirts.

New and beautiful line of Fascinators,

Collarrettes,

China and Glassware.

B. W. Green, C. W. Shaffer, for Piff. Johnson & McNarney, for Deft.
No, 6, December Term, 1898.
A. W. Georgia vs Frankim Housler, defendant and Aden Housler, Lydia A. Bucher, J. N. Chandler, D. N. Chandler, F. A. Lewis, and L. D. Lewis, Garnishers, Johnson & McNarney, for Piff.
B.W. Green, C.W. Shaffer, for Aden Housler. No. 47, December Term, 1898.
S. Hacket vs L. G. Cook.
F. D. Leet, for Deft.
N. Green, C.W. Shaffer, for Garnishers. No. 3, April Term, 1899.
E. M. Hurteau vs C. M. Lewis. Johnson & McNarney for Piff.
B. W. Green, C.W. Shaffer, for Garnishees. No. 8, July Term, 1899.
Johnson & McNarney, for Defts.
No. 13, July Term, 1899.
Alvis Urmann, vs H. M. Duell.
B. W. Green, C.W. Shaffer, for Piff.
Johnson & MeNarney, for Defts.
C. JAY GOODNOUGH, Prothonotary.

Has just received a fine line of Every bottle guaranteed; only 50 cents. Sold by L. Taggart, druggist.

CAMPAIGN PLANS.

State Chairman Reeder Ready to Start Out the Spellbinders.

SOLDIERS TO THE FRONT.

Heroes of Manila and Veterans of the Civil War Will Make a Remarkable Canvass For Republicanism.

(Special Correspondence.) Philadelphia, Oct. 3.—General Frank Reeder, chairman of the Republican state committee, will, within a few days, announce the itinerary for the days, announce the itinerary for the tour of the state by Colonel Barnett, the nominee for state treasurer, and those who will speak under the direc-tion of the committee. It is proposed to have two parties on the go at the same time. They will probably start out next Monday. Colonel Barnett will be accompanied by a number of other officers and men of the Fighting Tenth regiment and also by the Tenth Respinent Glee club, composed of sol-Regiment file dub, composed of sol-diers who fought in Luzon. The other party will be composed mainly of vet-erans of the civil war who are proud to join in honoring one of the heroes of the kinking Touth of the Fighting Tenth.

Included in the first group will be Colonel Barnett and the following of-Included in the first group will be Colonel Barnett and the following of-ficers and privates of the Tenth: Ma-jor George W. Neff, surgeon; First Lieutenant Blaine Aiken and Private Alexander Young, of Company H; Captain Thomas H. Crago, of Company K; Captain Edward B. McCormick, York They Came Next to the Admiral in Their Share of the Applause.

(Special Correspondence.)

(Special Correspondence.) Harrisburg, Oct. 3.—The heart of every patriotic Pennsylvanian must throb with delight when reviewing the proceedings of the last week and the honors showered upon the officers and men of the gallant Tenth Penn-sylvania volunteers. Even the New York newspapers, which rarely give much attention to matters in this state, had to concede that "the Fight-ing Tenth" came next to Dewey in receiving the applause of the hun-dreds of thousands of spectators in the great land parade in honor of the naval hero of Manila. This was due to the fact that they were the only fighters in line from the army that to the fact that they were the only fighters in line from the army that fought with Dewey in Luzon. The trip across Pennsylvania to Philadelphia was a series of ovations, and the series of receptions in the Quaker City were marvelous demon-strations of popular enthusiasm. The streets were ablaze with fireworks on the night of their arrival and the fol-lowing day there was another ovation lowing day there was another ovation as the regiment marched to the ex-position grounds. Here the presenta-tion to the city of Philadelphia of the tion to the city of Philadelphia of the Spanish cannon brought from the Philippines took place. The command-er of the regiment, Colonel Barnett, in a clear cut, incisive address, spoke in eulogistic terms of the splendid re-ception accorded his regiment by Philadelphia's unbounded hospitality. Among other things he said: "The historic traditions of this sacred place have safely guided the nation to a re-union that is a new and complete union in a common sentiment and purpose.

"The tones of yon old bell ring out not only for us, but to those beyond our borders, across the stormy Atlan-tic, out over the broad Pacific, they

Statements.

Statements. "Bryan's servile follower, W. T. Creasy, the Democratic candidate for state treasurer," says the Wilkesbarre Times, "is anxious to make the cam-paign on what he pleases to term 'state issues' and then he proceeds to create them by his fertile imagination and reckless tongue. Creasy and his in-surgent friends are positively reckless in their declarations that the people have been 'robbed of millions upon millions under machine misrule in the state treasury.' This is simply ab-surd, and no one knows it better than those who utter a tale so false. Not a one red cent has been stolen. Not a 'dollar is missing. The books are straight, and no direct charge has ever been made or a single item pointed out as being wrong. We ask, therefore, wherein is there a state issue for the treasurership?

wherein is there a state issue for the treasurership? "These scandal mongers know that old methods no longer exist, and so if the objection is to old methods the ground is cut from under their fect. The Republican legislature, it will be remembered, inaugurated a perfect re-form in the method of banking money. All moneys must be deposited and upon these deposits interest is paid, all of which goes into the state treasury. What issue is there over that? It is a mere question of electing an honest man, and we have yet to hear any one questioning the probity hear any one questioning the probity of the present incumbent or assalling the character of Lieutenant Colonel Barnett. To our mind the real ques-tion for the voters to decide is whether the great Republican state of Penn-sylvania shall be turned over to the Democrats on the eve of a presidential election. Whether the anarchistic and destructive views of Bryan as repre-sented by Creasy shall prevail in pref-crence to the sound financial policy of McKinley as presented by Barnett. We think we can forecast the result in this the Keystone state of the Union." hear any one questioning the probity

