Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg wuld he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. porized. "Now, see here," said the husband, "if you will let me go to sleep and don't ask me any questions now or at any other time about where I have been, I will give you $50 in cash for yourself.' This was a poser, and the dutiful wife naturally started to reach for the $50. But feminine curiosity was a little too strong, and she did not at once acquiesce. The next morning, when she arose, the first thing that caught her eye was her husband's coat, with one sleeve torn out by the roots and hanging by a thread.

"Why, Will, what is this?" she asked. "That's a loose sleeve." said her husband. "Well, how did it get loose?" she persisted. "See here," he said suddenly, "do you want to lose that $50? If you do, just keep asking questions about that. If you want to get it, just let the mat-ter drop."

Being a wise woman, she let it drop. but his friends are making bets that she will first secure the $50 and then find out some way how that sleeve got loose. —Kansas City World.
