While waiting to hear the election returns, next Tuesday evening, go to Old Fellows Hall and hear Miss Eva L. Dunning, Ohio's gifted reciter. Remember the date.

Col. Barnett and party passed through Emporium yesterday en route for Williamsport. At Johnsonburg yesterday a grand reception was tendered the spellbinders at the Armstrong House. The meetings at Kane and Bradford were the largest and most enthusiastic ever held at those places.

The past week has been remarkable for babies and the contest has been about even between the girls and boys. Following families have been blessed: Geo. Palmer, 6th. street, a girl; W. S. Walker, 5th. street, boy; B. L. Spence, West Creek, boy; Mel. Cronk, West Creek, girl. The usual cigars were passed around. Next.

County Commissioner Chas. Gleason has an excellent selection of photographs sent him by his friend, Benj. S. Agnew of Boston. They are doubly interesting at this time owing to war in South Africa, where the pictures were taken. The diamond and gold mines and Johannesburg, Kimberly, Cape Town and many other places are represented in the collection, together with natives and their kraals.—Driftwood Gazette. Mr. Gleason will be pleased to exhibit his collection to his friends and it has been suggested by his friends C. Jay Goodnough and T. H. Norris that he call the Missionary Society together and offer his collection as "pointers."

Cuba After a Year of Peace.

The Cuban Industrial Relief Fund, of 75 Tribune Building, New York City, has issued for free distribution an illustrated booklet entitled "Cuba a Year After Peace." The illustrations are direct reproductions of photographs taken by William Howard, General Manager of the Fund, during the months of August and September, 1899. They show that there is still in Cuba a vast amount of sickness, suffering and starvation. Not one of Mr. Howard's pictures was taken in a hospital. All represent the condition of the Cuban poor as they are after the island has been at peace for more than a year; as they are after the American flag has floated over them for ten months. The survivors of the reconcentrados still live in the wretched huts into which they were crowded at the time of the infamous Weyler concentration order. Utterly without work-oxen, farming tools, or seeds, with which to resume the cultivation of their devastated farms, they have remained in the towns and cities without means of support and without hope for the future.

Our own Government has done nothing to restore these impoverished Cuban farmers to their former homes. It has not provided so much as one farmer with oxen or tools or seeds.

The Cuban Industrial Relief Fund has in successful operation at Ceiba Mocha, twelve miles west of Matanzas, two relief farms, on which employment is given to the poor. Nearly 800 persons are supported by the work done on these two farms. The managers of the Fund earnestly desire to extend the good work to other parts of Cuba. Contributions of money to enable them to do so should be sent to the Continental Trust Company, 30 Broad street, New York City.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express, in this public manner, our heartfelt thanks to the many friends for the respect shown to our departed son and brother, JAMES CAVANAUGH, but more especially to the Emporium Fire Department, Ancient Order of Hibernians, and Messrs. C. B. Howard & Co.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50cets., guaranteed, at L. Taggart's Drug Store.

NEW DEPARTURE

BY
M. A. ROCKWELL,
The Fourth Street Druggist,

The Sanitary Still.

I have recently purchased and placed in my Drug Store one of the popular and greatly endorsed Sanitary Stills, manufactured by THE CUPESGAPH CO., of Chicago, Ill. There is no process of filtration which will purify water. Nature's process, of vaporizing water and cooling it into refreshing showers of pure rain water is repeated by the Sanitary Still in our store. We distill all water used in both our Prescription Department and Soda Water Fountains.

PURE WATER.
PURE DRUGS,
PURE SODA WATER.

Purity is our Motto.
