Dress Goods.

We assert that our showing of Dress Goods for Autumn wear is without a peer in the matter of variety and refined selection—a claim that is supported by a volume of business which is wholly unprecedented and is still rapidly growing. Not only are these offerings superior, but the prices are most favorable. These novelties must be seen to be appreciated.

Fall Capes and Jackets

This department is unusually active, and purchasers are reaping the benefit of the forehanded methods which gave us a large stock of Jackets and Capes for this season's trade, at prices extremely low for first-class garments.

Fashion has been kind in her plans this fall. Her decree seldom bends with economy; but for once the two are yoke mates. The latest Fall Styles are here at the LOW prices that have made this department so well known.

BE SURE AND COME IN EARLY.

"CARL BROWN AS AN EXPANSIONIST," AND HIS UNIQUE OUTFIT.

How "General Prosperity" Knocked His March Out.

Editor Press:—

I was greatly amused, interested and surprised at a speech recently delivered by Carl Brown, one of the famous "Coxey march," some few years ago. In the last you do not hear much of him, anymore, but he is endeavoring to make himself very audible out here in the west by his conspicuous outfit which is very unique for edity, it is a house built on four wheels, and in the style of an old fashioned log cabin, painted black and red, if I remember correctly; has one or more windows and a door in the rear; a small platform is attached on hinges which is dropped down and supported by a stick underneath, while he is speaking. This novel house is drawn by two tired and weary looking horses.

His girl wife generally accompanies him, remaining inside the log cabin, she is greatly devoted to her "hero husband?" Brown drives around the streets until he gets a crowd gathered, always speaking from the rear of the cabin on this small platform, attired in his famous buckskin coat and a small cap on his head. He is some what of a sketchy and always illustrates his subjects by drawing the pictures of whomsoever or whatever he is going to speak about. He has reformed in his views, concerning the government and trusts for a very good reason, as he himself relates. He was here early in the summer organizing an army to march on to Washington, composed chiefly of farmers, and idle workmen, tramps and loafers, to better and in behalf of the "Labor question." On his return this fall, he was most bitterly disappointed; he had no army, all the men were busy employed, had joined the "army of workers" farmers had their fields of wheat and corn. Other laborers had all the work they could do, "general prosperity" had knocked Brown out and his march was a dream. So now he has become an expansionist, delivering from his same log cabin rostrum, his advocations of the principles of what an hour ago he denounced and was ready to destroy. "It is wonderful how the mind of man will wonder" when the dollar is in view. However it is always applaudable when they seek the right way, whether from choice or compulsion, and endeavor to advocate the truths and principles that go to make a good government and better citizens. Brown also went to Colorado this fall, there he met the same defeat; no time for marching, they were too busy forming a trust on the Rockford melons, so Brown "ate of the fruit," and trusts he has reformed. He was camping on the outskirts of the city and would occasionally drive in and amuse the crowd by his drawings and new ideas on expansion.

Death's Doings.

STRAIT.

Mrs. CAROLINE STRAIT, wife of our townsman Edward Strait, died at the family residence on Fifth street, Emporium, on Friday, Nov. 3, 1899, aged 32 years and two days. Deceased had been in poor health for a long time, suffering with diabetes and it was only a few days that she gave up and took to her bed. She leaves a husband and three little children to mourn her death. The funeral took place from the family residence on Sunday, at 2 p. m. Rev. McCaslin officiating. Interment was made in Newton cemetery. The Press deeply sympathizes with the bereaved husband and motherless children.

The K. O. T. M., of which Mr. Strait is a member in good standing, attended in a body. The following relations from out of town attended the funeral: Mrs. Mary Luther, (sister), Ridgway; H. A. Vogt and wife, (sister), Frank Taylor and wife, (sister), Benj. Murry, (brother-in-law), St. Marys.

The Result.

The election in this county passed off quietly, there being a very light vote cast. Col. Barnett, for State Treasurer, received the full vote of the Republicans, and his majority was fully up to the estimate made before election. Cameron Republicans took no stock in the character assassins and voted straight on state ticket. On the county ticket J. D. Swope was elected Sheriff by eighty-seven votes, while Mr. E. W. Gaskill was reelected county commissioner by a safe vote. The county auditors, Messrs. C. L. Butler and W. H. Logue each received a flattering vote. M. Brennan was elected minority auditor.

The great surprise of the day was the defeat of Chas. Gleason, one of our candidates for county commissioner. For several days it had been rumored that certain Democrats were quietly conducting a canvass, having the defeat of Mr. A. F. Vogt in view. Of course this led the friends of Mr. Vogt to exert themselves more than was really necessary. "Dead" voting as will be seen by the returns, was largely indulged in by the voters of Lumber, Gibson and Grove. The new board will be composed of A. F. Vogt, E. W. Gaskill and A. W. Mason, all gentlemen well qualified for the duties.

The County Auditors elected are C. L. Butler, W. H. Logue and M. Brennan, all well adopted, for the arduous duties.

Big Lumber.

The Pennsylvania Joint Land and Lumber Company are actively engaged cutting 8,000,000 feet of pine logs on Salt Run, in Cameron county. This is the finest and most valuable piece of pine land in the State and it is a burning shame that the stock is to be hauled by Goodyears and delivered at Williamsport for manufacture at the Newberry mills. Mr. E. B. Campbell, the Supt., who by the way is a pleasant gentleman, was encountered by a Press man one day last week. Mr. Campbell informed our scribe that their scaler, Mr. A. H. Harris, had recently reported from the first million feet scaled, fourteen logs measuring from 42 to 54 inches at the butt. Among the large trees were two that were bouncers. From one they cut seven sixteen foot and one ten foot logs, scaling 6,523 feet. The other furnished eight sixteen foot logs and scaled 7,642 feet. This sounds like olden times in Cameron county and reminds one of the days when Hunts Run furnished the handsomest pine ever rafted down the river.

BRIEF MENTION.

Some of the people are earnestly debating the Sharkey-Jeffries fight. The debate will last all winter.

S. S. Hackett has the contract with Shippen school district to deliver the Clear Creek scholars to school.

R. C. Dodson has just received an elegant line of pocket books for both ladies and gents. All the latest fads.

Mark Hanna says, very truthfully, that the people wanted a little change in '92 and they elected Grover Cleveland. They got the change but not the change they wanted.

When a small boy wants a match with which to light a cigarette, he prefixes his request for one with the word "please." He then goes home and says: "Pass the butter."

Gen. Joubert, Commander-in-Chief of the Boer army, is a native of Pennsylvania. He was born in Fayette county, and went to South Africa when a young man. A sister of his wife is a resident of Pittsburg.

Wm. McGee is busily engaged organizing an army for a big bear hunt. Bear meat will be a drug on the market when he returns from the campaign. Judge Brennan has not yet decided whether he will go along or not.

The Lock Haven Republican claims a Jew peddler was robbed last Saturday, while stopping at a Sinnamahoning hotel. Goods to the value of $150 were taken. We guess some member of Pap Blodgett's Sunday school class imposed on that reporter.

Never in the history of Cameron county was there as little drunkenness on election day. Yet the returns from some sections of the county would lead one to think there surely had been liquor or some other influence at work equally as strong.

Judge Olmsted, of McKean county has ordered all convicted illegal liquor sellers who are now serving their time, to work out their sentence at breaking stone at $1 a day. By this way they will be doing practical good and illegal liquor selling will not be so popular.

The great numbers of North American's circulated throughout Cameron county by our friend Hockley, chairman of the democratic party had a wonderful effect. Col. Barnett received the largest vote cast for any candidate on either state ticket in this county. The people of Cameron took no stock in the character assassins.

The author of David Harum died so poor that when his estate was settled up his three children had nothing. The book, however, proved a bonanza for the children, they having realized up to June 1st of this year about $11,000, and since then the book has been selling at the rate of fifteen hundred a day, so that their future welfare is secured. What a pity the author could not live to see the great success of his book.

Ex-Representative C. W. Stone, who concluded his four terms in Congress on the 3rd of last March, was in Washington recently, according to a newspaper report, closing up his business affairs and practically saying farewell to the national capital. He has no expectations of going to Congress in the future and has disposed of all the property of which he was possessed in Washington. Although real estate is still suffering from the depression of business a few years ago, Mr. Stone made a good turn in the sale of his pretty residence at 46 B street, Northeast. He paid $15,000 for it; lived in it eight years, and sold it for a little more than $17,000 cash. This, with his property in Warren county and investments on the Pacific coast, makes Mr. Stone a gentleman of very comfortable wealth.—Warren Mirror.

REPUBLICANS TRIUMPHANT.

The President's Policy Endorsed by the Patriots.

The elections on Tuesday are a very emphatic endorsement of President McKinley's policy. The Republicans carry Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, South Dakota, while the Democrats claim Virginia, Maryland, Nebraska and Mississippi. This settles the contest for 1900, and is a terrible blow to Aguinaldo, Bryan and the Democratic party.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—The Republican State ticket is elected by pluralities ranging from 135,000 to 160,00. Lieutenant Colonel Barnett, candidate for state treasurer, ran behind other candidates in a number of counties but has about 120,000 plurality over Creasy, his democratic opponent. John I. Mitchell is elected superior court judge, and J. Hay Brown, Republican, and S. Leslie Mestretat, Democrat, are elected to the supreme bench. The Republicans carried Philadelphia by 70,000 plurality.

OHIO.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 8.—The clouds here are all vanished this morning. Nash is elected governor of the state by a plurality placed by chairman Dick at 55,000. This plurality exceeds Bushnell's last plurality which was 28,000.

The counting of votes was completed this morning. Nash wins by 55,000 plurality. Jones polled about 110,000 votes altogether. McLean's vote is unknown as yet.

NEBRASKA.

OMAHA, Neb. Nov. 8.—While the result of the election here was not a landslide, the fusionists carried the state by 18,000.

KENTUCKY.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 8.—With only three counties to be heard from the vote for governor stands: Taylor, Rep., 121,038; Goebel, Dem., 112,203. The Republicans carried everything in Louisville. Republicans claim the legislature to-day by seven majority. This elects a new United States Senator.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Returns from state and city so far received indicate that the Republicans will have about the same majority in the next assembly as in the last, the Democratic gains in this city being offset by losses in the smaller counties. In 113 assembly districts which have reported, including 29 in this city, 75 Republicans and 38 Democrats were elected. The Democrats suffered grave reverses in Erie county (Buffalo) and Chemung county, the home of ex-Senator David B. Hill.

ELECTION ROCKETS.

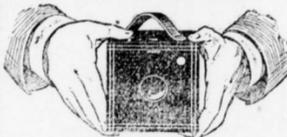

Potter democrats elected the entire county ticket.

The Republicans elect the county commissioners in Lycoming.

Say! I. K.; don't forget to frame that poor lone dispatch received Tuesday night, claiming Ohio for McLean.

Clinton county goes Republican on Phothonary and Sheriff. A. Y. Jones was elected county commissioner.
