LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

"Oh! Rose, Sweet Rose."

I said to the rose, "Oh! rose, sweet rose,
Will you lie on my heart to-night;
Will you nestle there with your perfume rare
And your petals pure and white?"
I said to the rose, "Oh! rose, sweet rose,
Will you thrill to my every sigh,
Tho' your life exhale in the morning pale
And you wither and fade and die?"
I said to the rose, "Oh! rose, sweet rose,
Will you thro' with my every breath;
Will you give me the bliss of the passionate kiss,
Albeit the end is death?"
The white rose lifted her stately head
And answered me fair and true:
"I am happy and blest to lie on your breast
For the woman who gave me to you."
—Senator Thurston.

Busy Manufacturers.

The manufacturers, in the opinion of the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics, are about the busiest people in the United States at the present time. Mr. Austin, the chief of the bureau, has just returned from a visit to the manufacturing centres of New England and the Middle States, and if their condition is an example or that of the manufacturers of the country generally, as it presumably is, there can be no occasion for complaint that mills and men are lacking employment. Mr. Austin visited the cotton, woolen, worsted, silk, fibre, carpet, print goods, rubber, boot and shoe, hat, pottery and watch and clock manufacturing establishments, and in no case did he find a lack of orders for the manufacturers or of employment for men and women desiring employment. On the contrary, the great cotton, woolen, silk and other textile mill are running on full time and overtime, while the manufacturers of rubber goods, boots and shoes, clothing and pottery reported their orders far in excess of their capacity to fill with promptness.

If the dress-maker sews well she will reap a good harvest in her own field.

KILLED BY INDIANS.

William Montgomery, Brother of Miss Alice Montgomery, of Emporium, Killed by Indians in Arizona.

Phoenix (Arizona) Republican, Nov. 16.

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz., Nov. 12.—The news reached here at an early hour this morning of a sanguinary conflict between Navajo Indians and a sheriff's posse at a point thirty-five miles southeast of Flagstaff. Five out of six Indians were killed and one member of the Sheriff's posse, Will H. Montgomery, was shot through the heart. Two other deputy sheriffs were wounded, one perhaps fatally. The cause of the fight was an attempt on the part of the posse to arrest the Indians for maltreating Montgomery, who worked as a cowboy for the Roden ranch.

The sheriff's posse consisted of Dan Hogan, Will Montgomery, Bill Ronen, a well known cattleman, and Durham. They left here on Thursday armed with Winchester and six-shooters and carrying warrants for the arrest of the Indians. At six o'clock last evening the posse surprised six of the Indians near Walnut and not anticipating any serious resistance, the officers dismounted from their horses, leaving the Winchester strapped to the saddles and walked towards the Indians. The latter opened fire upon the posse from the brush. The horses stampeded at the first volley and at the same instant Montgomery fell. The deputies, undismayed, returned the fire of the Indians with their six-shooters until their ammunition was exhausted, when they were compelled to retreat.

Roden was shot through the groin, but walked to Angel, a station on the Santa Fe Pacific railroad, being supported by Durham, a member of the posse, who was uninjured. Dan Hogan was shot three times—once in the right arm, another a flesh wound over the heart, and the third time in the back. He walked to Walnut.

Hogan's wounds are in the fleshy parts and will not result seriously. Roden is in a bad state, however, and is being given the best possible medical attendance.

The Indians engaged in the fight were hunting deer in violation of the game law and a ton of dried venison and antelope was found to-day in their camp. A report from Canyon Diablo this morning was to the effect that all the Navajos in that vicinity had left for the reservation.

Deputy Sheriff Dan Hogan was a member of Troop A of Roosevelt's Rough Riders and served through the Santiago campaign. Deputy Durham was the only one who escaped unhurt. Sheriff Johnson and posse left to-day for the scene of the fight.

CAUSE OF TROUBLE.

(By Associated Press.)

FLAGSTAFF, Nov. 12.—One white man and five Navajo Indians killed, two whites and Navajo Indian wounded was the result of an attempt of a deputy sheriff to arrest a Navajoe yesterday, ten miles south of Walnut and thirty-five miles southeast of Flagstaff.

On November 6 a band of Navajos who were hunting on Canyon Padre below Anderson Rim, in this county, held up William Montgomery, a cowboy in the employ of William Roden, a cattleman. They accused him of stealing horses and threatened to kill him. He came to Flagstaff and obtained a warrant for their arrest and with Deputy Hogan on Thursday left to make the arrest. At Roden's camp they were joined by William Roden and Walter Durham, who went along to show the deputy where the Navajos were camped.

Arriving at the camp the party dismounted and anticipating no trouble Hogan attempted to execute the warrant and entered a brush coral where four Navajos were, when the Indians made resistance and a shot was fired at Hogan, striking him in the back, he at the time being in a tussle with one Navajo who was trying to shoot him, Hogan drew his pistol and killed his antagonist. The fight became general and ended when the ammunition of the white men was exhausted. Short as had been the affray five of the Navajos were dead and one wounded. Montgomery was shot through the heart. Hogan was wounded three times, all flesh wounds. Roden was wounded seriously in the groin. Durham escaped unhurt.

Governor Murphy received the first news of the fight between a band of Navajo Indians and a sheriff's posse near Flagstaff, on Saturday night, his informant being E. S. Clark, district attorney of Coconino county. Late yesterday afternoon he received a second telegram from Dan Hogan, a member of the posse. In both instances the governor replied, urging that the situation be not exaggerated by the people of Flagstaff and that they act with coolness and good judgment. The governor left on the north bound train last night for the scene of the trouble.

E. M. Montgomery, father of Will Montgomery, who is reported killed, was a passenger on the same train with Governor Murphy. Mr. Montgomery has been employed for years by the S. F. P. & P. railroad in this city and is now occupying the position of chief car repairer. He was not without hope that the first reports may prove incorrect and that his son be still alive, although, it may be, seriously wounded. Mr. Montgomery said last evening just before the train left:

"I received a telegram early this morning to use the language of the message, that Will Montgomery is supposed to be killed by the Indians. The news was a sad shock to me, as you may imagine, and I was left without hope. Late this afternoon I received another telegram stating that nothing certain will be known until the posse returns. I am in hopes, therefore that Will is yet alive and has a fighting chance to recover.

"My son is only 19 years old, but weighs 190 pounds and is as straight as an arrow. He is absolutely fearless. He has worked at the Roden cattle ranch for several years past. The ranch has been managed by Billy Roden, who succeeded his father, now deceased, in the management of the business. Will had intended coming to Phoenix about the first of the month on a visit. He has served on sheriff's posses several times previous to this occasion."

Miss Alice Montgomery, who for several years has made her home with our townsman, Mr. E. W. Green, an uncle, received the above sad intelligence, a few days ago, of the death of her brother. The young lady's many friends deeply sympathize with her in her severe loss.

Up to Monday no information had been received confirming a report that the body had been recovered.

LATER.—The remains of young Montgomery were recovered and taken to Flagstaff last Thursday for burial.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lily, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular sizes 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottles free at L. Taggart's drug store; every bottle guaranteed.

NEW DEPARTURE

BY

M. A. ROCKWELL,

The Fourth Street Druggist,

The Sanitary Still.

I have recently purchased and placed in my Drug Store one of the popular and greatly endorsed Sanitary Stills, manufactured by THE CUPSEGRAPH CO., of Chicago, Ill. There is no process of filtration which will purify water. Nature's process of vaporizing water and cooling it into refreshing showers of pure rain water is repeated by the Sanitary Still in our store. We distill all water used in both our Prescription Department and Soda Water Fountains.

PURE WATER,
PURE DRUGS,
PURE SODA WATER.

Purity is our Motto.
