To Relocate the Districts.

The next legislature will have before it a bill for the relocation of public school districts. One of the features of the measure will be that school districts need not necessarily conform to the ward, borough or township lines. The idea is to make each school district responsible only for the children living within its limits.

A SURE CURE FOR CROUP.

Twenty-Five Year's Constant Use Without a Failure.

The first indication of croup is hoarseness, and in a child subject to that disease it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's cough remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is used in many thousands of homes in this broad land and never disappoints the anxious mothers. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effectual. No other preparation can show such a record—twenty-five years' constant use without a failure. For sale by L. Taggart, dec.

CHRISTMAS goods in endless profusion at D. F. Cramer's Variety Store.

You can buy a good sled for boy or girl, cheaper of M. C. Tulis than of any one else. 41-3t.

Another furniture establishment is about to be opened in Emporium. Watch the PRESS.

See the new Platinum Photos at Schriever's Gallery. They are just the thing for Xmas presents.

Have your pictures framed at Schriever's. He has a new and large line of mouldings and frames always on hand.

LADIES' fine kid and Mocha gloves, at bargain prices. D. F. CRAMER.

XMAS PHOTOS.—There is nothing more acceptable for an Xmas present than a good photo of yourself. Schriever makes them you know.

FOR SALE.—One span of good, heavy draught-horses, with harness, nearly new; also a pair of bob sleds used but a few weeks; all at a bargain. Price away down.

MRS. N. E. TAYLOR,
Sterling Run.

A TIP ON CUT GLASS.—While cut glass will never entirely take the place of silver, yet the demand for the beautiful and artistic cut glass dishes is constantly increasing. We notice some of the choicest patterns from the most celebrated makers at Metzger's, at astonishing low prices. 41-2t.

LOG JOB TO LET.—We are ready to contract for the hauling of 7,000,000 feet of logs, all skidded and in good shape. Distance to be hauled, three miles. Roads made. Apply to

MOORE & HAZEN,
Colegrove, or Norwich.

HOLIDAY EXCURSION RATES.—In accordance with an old established custom the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg Ry. will, this year, issue excursion tickets between all stations on its line, account Christmas and New Years Holidays, at a fare and one-third for the round trip. Tickets will be sold and good going on Dec. 23, 24, 25, 30 and 31, 1899, limited for return passage until Jan. 2, 1900. 41-4t.

Don't mind bad weather but go to Schriever's and have your Xmas photos made. See his latest styles.

L. Taggart has stood behind the prescription counter in the town of Emporium for about thirty years, and he is entirely safe in saying that he has personally filled more physician's prescriptions than all the rest of the druggists in the county combined. Do you not think, in view of this experience and his very low prices you will be better served by taking your prescriptions to him.

THE FAD FOR EBONY.—Perhaps the most appreciated present a young man can receive is a fine hair brush. A really fine brush is a luxury. Genuine ebony is the most suitable material for a good brush as it is not only durable but handsome. Now put on one, two or three of those elegant sterling silver initials, and you have a present fit for a king. The line at Metzger's is the best I have seen and the young men are watching it eagerly. 41-2

For dolls, toys and games go to M. C. Tulis'. Largest stock and lowest prices. 41-3t.

SOMETHING ABOUT RINGS.—More rings are being worn this season than for years past, and while fashion decrees that more jewelry of all kinds shall be worn, finger rings are the favored articles. Opals are the favorite settings, both in solitaire and in combination with other stones, the latter way being probably the most popular. I notice that Metzger has an elegant assortment of carefully selected rings at very reasonable prices. 41-2t

COMBINATION SANDWICHES.

Some New Thoughts for Those Who Prefer Picnic Lunches.

Madge was making out a list of things for the picnic lunch. One wanted one sort of sandwich, another of the party another and so on, and as they were mentioned were written down until there were nineteen different kinds. This led to a discussion of how many different kinds there were.

Then some one remarked that she had read in the New York Sun there were sixty-five varieties. The time was when there were but three—ham, tongue and corned beef—with its thin spread of mustard.

Sandwiches are sold by a number of grocers all ready for use, nicely put up in tin boxes until time to take them out and serve, and are fine.

Besides the familiar ham, tongue, corned beef, roast beef, turkey, and chicken sandwiches, there are sold in these days, either already prepared or made to order, a dozen varieties of what might be called fish sandwiches, these including the commonly sold sardine sandwiches and anchovy sandwiches, and sandwiches made with little fish called sardelles, and salmon sandwiches, and sandwiches made with muskallonge, soft shell crab sandwiches, lobster sandwiches, shrimp sandwiches, codfish sandwiches and sandwiches made with a fried codfish cake between slices of bread. Of these sandwiches there ten at least, including many regularly supplied and others made to order.

There are sold nowadays sandwiches made of various kinds salads, and orders for such sandwiches are not unusual. In a place where sandwiches in great variety are sold, if a customer asked for a salad sandwich the waiter wouldn't need to ask what was wanted, he would know and he would get it for him without question as a matter of course, and the same would be true if the request were for a tomato sandwich or a sandwich made with water-cress.

Of combination sandwiches, made of more than one kind of meat, as sandwiches of ham and chicken, chicken, tongue, and so on, there are various kinds, as there are also of sandwiches made of various materials combined, as for instance, sandwiches made of minced ham and chow chow, sandwiches of chopped chicken, ham and egg, sandwiches of minced tongue and chicken, egg sandwiches and so on. So it would not be very difficult to enumerate the sixty-five varieties of sandwiches now made, and new varieties are being added all the time.

One of the best of sandwiches served at a local restaurant is the Club sandwich, made of small, thin pieces of turkey, ham, beef, lettuce, pickles, plenty of red pepper and salt, with an excellent mayonnaise dressing between two buttered slices of bread, which are cut triangular shape.

For those who want a good sandwich but do not want a box sandwich it may be of interest to know they may be gotten at the hotels. The hotels get up fine fresh ones. One hotel sends out a fine caviere sandwich made of toasted bread, caviere and slices of lemon between.—Phila. Times.

The Washingtoniana.

Among a collection of curios in J. F. Parsons' display window, this week, we noticed a somewhat old and interesting publication of the life of Washington. The title of the book is "The Washingtoniana," and it contains a sketch of the life and death of "Our Immortal George," and a copious collection of eulogies, orations, poems, etc., dedicated to him by the compilers, Messrs. F. Johnston and Wm. Hamilton. It was published in Lancaster in the year 1802.

Amos Wagner, the well known architect, died at Williamsport on Sunday.

A CHRISTMAS TURKEY TO BE GIVEN TO EVERY WIDOW IN EMPORIUM.

We are, through the kindness of an Emporium gentleman who desires to know that every widow within our corporate limits shall be provided with a steaming turkey dinner and has taken this method of making known his desire and kindness, permitted to make this announcement. All names must be delivered by mail, or personally, not later than Saturday, Dec. 23rd. Send us the names at once. No publicity will be given the matter and it will be treated in confidence.

We Have It.

City plate printers are advertising to print visiting cards from new Roman. We have the identical type and can furnish you calling cards, or wedding invitations, for less money than you can get the same in the city.

New Furniture Store.

An up-to-date and extensive furniture establishment will, in a few days, be opened in the vacant store room in the Olmsted block, one door west of Odd Fellows' block, by The Emporium Furniture Company, composed of gentlemen of capital. Mr. Bernard Eagan will be the manager for the new Co. It is the intention of the new firm to be open in time for the Holiday trade.

Election of Officers.

At the regular review of Gladioli Hive, No. 32, L. O. T. M., Thursday evening, Dec 7, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Lady Com., Debbie Hockley; Lieut. Com., Myra Warner; Record K., Helena Butler; Chaplain, Sarah Swartz; Mistress-at-Arms, Hattie Swartz; Sergt. Mammie Miller; Sentinel, Mary Zarpis; Picket, Mary Cummings. Refreshments were served and all enjoyed a pleasant evening.

Shook Hands With Lincoln.

Our jolly, good-natured county treasurer, Oren Cortright, was in town Thursday afternoon. While relating war experiences to a brother veteran, Oren remarked that "thirty-seven years ago to-day I shook hands with Abraham Lincoln at Washington, after a wait for several hours." Oren was a good, fearless soldier.—Coudersport Enterprise. Yes, friend, and always a fearless, to-be-relied upon Republican ever afterwards. Mr. Cortright served his country faithfully during the war as a member of Capt. J. C. Johnson's company and never fails to visit his old commander when in Emporium.

PLUM-CAKE!

When you were not thinking of Christmas yet, we baked a plum-cake for Yule-tide. It is very rich; we give you a few slices of it on another page of this week's PRESS, but in order to fully appreciate it you want to visit our store; "seeing is believing." The little folks all say that its the greatest toy show in Emporium, and they seem to be practically a unit in the wish that Santa Claus will do his choosing here.
