Bliss, at the Junction, has been quite ill for several days. S. L. Linthorst returned on Monday from visiting at Altoona and Tyrone. Ray Hockley, of Muncy, Pa., has charge of the coal yard, at this place, for I. K. Hockley. H. S. Lloyd was looking after business interests at Buffalo on Tuesday and Wednesday. Edward Cook is visiting friends in Emporium. He recently returned from Lawrence county. W. J. Jamison, of Buffalo, N. Y., was transacting business in Emporium this week for Frank B. Baird. Mrs. Samuel Shadman was a PRESS visitor on Tuesday. She reports Mr. Shadman some better at present. Thos. P. Mullin, of Clarendon, visited his many friends in Emporium over Sunday. J. C. Johnson, of Emporium, was in Smethport on Friday last.—Smethport Democrat. Master Mechanic G. M. Pott visited Ridgway and Bradford last week and was delighted with his visit. Mrs. Delos Burlingame, of Sizerville, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia is improving under Dr. Baker's care. Mrs. F. D. Leet, who has been very ill for several days, is, we are pleased to state, improving. Dr. Baker is attending her. Murray Teeter, of Austin, was guest of R. B. White on Tuesday and Wednesday, while on his way home from West Virginia. Mr. Guy S. Felt, book-keeper at the Emporium Roller Mills, has been transferred to the company's Olean mills for a month or so. Mr. William Howard, of Williamsport, was transacting business in Emporium the fore part of the week. His wife was with him. Miss Cora Taylor, who has been making her home in Buffalo for some time past, is visiting relatives and friends at this place. Chas. H. Johnson, drug clerk at L. Taggart's drug store, returned last Saturday from his home at Scranton, where he was spending his vacation. Mrs. G. H. Grow, of Williamsport, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shadman, at this place. She was called here by the serious illness of her father. Ex-Sheriff Mundy and wife have retired from the jail and moved to their residence on Fourth street. Sheriff Swope and family are now at home on the Hill. Fred Julian has returned from an extended business trip and as a result the Climax Company's eighty men and girls are busy with orders far in advance of the output. Mrs. E. O. Bardwell, who has been in a very precarious condition for several days, is some better at this writing and hopes are entertained for her speedy recovery. Dr. Hibbard, of Olean, was in Emporium on Monday to consult in relation to Mrs. Leet's case. We, in common with our people, are pleased to say this good lady is improved. Mrs. H. C. Miller, of Olean, N. Y., formerly Miss Grace Howard, of this place, was visiting Emporium friends last week, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Knickerbocker on Cherry street.

Ross Overturf, the very able assistant in the Chemist's laboratory at the furnace, visited parents and friends at his home in Benozette, the latter part of last week, returning Saturday.

We regret to state that Miss Flossie Taggart, who recently returned from her studies at Oberlin College, Ohio, is quite seriously indisposed and will be unable to return to school this term.

Miss Hattie Auchu, who spent a very enjoyable vacation with her parents and friends at home, returned to school at Montreal, Can., on Monday. She was accompanied by her father Mr. Henry Auchu.

Mrs. Gust Carlson on Monday evening presented her husband with a beautiful girl baby. Mother and daughter doing nicely and there is rejoicing over the arrival, being the only girl in a family of seven.

Dr. A. W. Baker, who was formerly an all-around printer, always enjoys a visit to the print shop. He called on Tuesday and passed a half-hour with the boys. Dr. Baker has a good practice and is a popular citizen.

Yesterday we had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Harry M. Fry, of Raton, New Mexico, who in company with his sister, Miss Kate Fry, and Laura E. Strawbridge, of Emporium, was here the guest of his cousin, Mrs. C. W. Wagner.—Port Allegany Press.

The nine members of Elk Lodge No. 379, of this place, who visited Emporium last Wednesday night to be present at the annual banquet of the Masonic organization, are loud in their praise of the hospitable manner in which they were entertained.—Ridgway Democrat.

John Kohler returned on Tuesday from a two weeks' vacation during which time he was married to Miss Myrtle S. Weant, of Baltimore. Mr. Kohler has been in the employ of Mr. Geo. Bupp, the popular cigar manufacturer for the past year and is an industrious young man.

John J. Hinkle, a citizen of Ridgway twelve years ago, but since making his home at Emporium, was in Ridgway the first of this week, shaking hands with his many friends. Mr. Hinkle is a Republican hustler who has been faithful to the organization, and the result is that he is holding a position at the mint in Philadelphia.—Ridgway Advocate.

Sinnemahoning.

Ice harvesting was a flourishing industry here last week and a good crop was secured, so the followers of Bacchus are assured of a cool beverage next summer.

Lyman Wiley, of Emporium, was a visitor in town a couple of days last week. Mr. Wiley is a veteran saw mill man and a pleasant gentleman to meet.

Mr. George A. Smith, who has been conducting Barclay Bros' boarding house for the past five years, has retired to private life, and Mr. Stewart Chase, and his excellent wife, are now looking after the wants of the hungry and tired mill hands, and are keeping up the high standard of this first-class boarding place.

About twenty couples of our young people took advantage of the recent good sleighing by organizing a straw ride to Sterling Run on Friday night of last week, and taking possession of the Alpine House, which they captured without serious resistance, proceeded to enjoy themselves as their own sweet wills directed. They report a good time and came home in the wee hours of the morning, fully convinced that the Alpine is a good place to go for fun. JOE.

First Fork.

W. Bailey is visiting friends in Potter county. Marvin Logue is at Huntley at work for Mr. Fox. Mrs. S. Keck is making an extended visit at Clermont. Our January thaw has caught a cold, after spoiling the sleighing. Our bear hunters are out of a job now, as brain has gone into winter quarters. W. W. Wykoff returned on Sunday from an extended visit at Bradford, Pa. Wm. Swank is absent in Potter county, hauling logs out of the Hammersley. Logue Bros. have just put up a blacksmith shop near John Logue's house. This makes three shops within a mile. Bingham Ross and Miss Jennie Logue were married at Olean a few days ago and they left for Potter county on Saturday. Harrison Logue, one of the oldest men in Gibson township, has been under the weather at his daughter's, Mrs. Nelson, at Packer. Mrs. Thilegas, an old lady of about 80 years, is very ill at her son-in-law's, James O'Brien. Some of her sons are here but one of them returned to York State this morning. The surveyors of the B. & S. R. R., from Wharton to Sinnemahoning "hung up" for a few days on account of the cold weather. They have gotten down about Arch. Caldwell's with the preliminary survey. Mrs. W. A. Rife, a sister of Isaac and Martin Bowen, who has been keeping house for them this winter, was called home to Tioga county, on Saturday, on account of the serious illness of her daughter and one of her sisters. Jan. 8, 1900.

Lieutenant McNarney in the Philippines.

The following extracts are taken from Lieut. McNarney's letters to his wife and friends. Inasmuch as several Cameron county boys are with Lieut. McNarney we copy parts of his letters:

PORAC, Nov. 6.—I am happy to say the Thirty-sixth has no equal on the island and I am in less danger with the Thirty-sixth than I would be in many others, for the reason that the insurgents are in deadly peril of Col. Bell and his Thirty-sixth, which is a composition of fighters that cannot be beat. I do not speak this way because it is my regiment, for if it was poor I would be the first one to say so. But the people of Manila recognize the Thirty-sixth as the best fighting regiment on the island and I now know from experience that from the Colonel to the kitchen police, they are brave devils and brave into recklessness.

On the first of November we left Bacolor and marched to Santa Rita, arriving there at six p. m. The expectation was to go the next day to Porac and of course the natives learned of this (as it was no secret) and carried the news to the insurgents. Instead of going to Porac on the 2nd we marched silently out of Santa Rita at 8 p. m., on the 1st to Florida Blanca, marching all night and as silently as death itself. There had been a force of insurgents quartered in a church at Florida Blanca, and we hoped to surround and capture them at daybreak. Everything worked beautifully and at 5 a. m. on the 2nd we had the church completely surrounded, but our well laid and beautifully executed plans failed, as the niggers, learning of our intentions to go to Porac, had left their quarters at 8 p. m. on the 1st, the same time we started, and marched to Porac to reinforce the niggers there. As we missed our game there we marched to Lobar where we laid in ambush for about two hours waiting on them, but as they had all pulled their freight, we again marched to Florida Blanca, where we had dinner on the celebrated emergency ration (which by the way is not bad when you are tired and hungry.)

After dinner we started for Porac and arrived there about 4 p. m., wet through, tired, sleepy and hungry. As we got in the river the niggers opened up on us and you should have seen those men wake up. Every man forgot all about his hunger, his sore feet, his wet clothes; forgot they had marched nearly 24 hours continually, and the way they went at the niggers was something to make any one feel proud of his American citizenship. It was one grand rush, firing as we went, and we kept going until not a live nigger could be sighted driving them almost out of existence. I think they are still going in all directions. We drove them out of their strong lines of intrenchments just as easy as if they had been jack rabbits.

They had things nicely fixed up for us in front of their intrenchments, viz: in one place a high bamboo fence, in another a bamboo rail about a foot from the ground covered with bamboo brush and directly in rear were sharpened bamboo spikes, for us to run through us when we fell over the rail, at another place they had three rows of pits dug and bamboo spikes stuck in the bottom for us to fall in on, but they didn't work.

As near as I can tell we killed and captured about twenty and scattered the others to the four winds. Some money, horses and guns were captured, I got a horse and a Bolo, which is a large knife similar to a Machett. We have not been bothered since. You can guess we enjoyed our supper that night, also our sleep. Our loss was one man killed and one wounded. The next day a party was sent out to make a reconnaissance and met a few of the enemy who stood for a short while and again flew (all that was able) to the mountains beyond. Lieut. Colonel Grover was wounded.

I was detailed as officer of the day on the 4th, which perhaps is the most dangerous duty we have, as it is necessary to visit out posts, but they were so badly scattered that I had no trouble. I had the good fortune however to capture another horse. We are not at all afraid of the insurgents, but they have a very wholesome respect for us. Tomorrow we leave Porac and don't know where we will wind up, but are after Aguinaldo now and we will keep going after him till we strike him—that is if he don't go too fast for us. These fellows are just like jack-rabbits and can run about as fast. The men are all getting to be good wing shots now.

Perhaps those absent minded beggars may wish they were absent bodied as well before Oom Paul gets through them.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvellous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at L. Taggart's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.
