TERMS: $2.00—$1.50 IN ADVANCE.

VOL. 34.

EMPORIUM, PA., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1900.

NO. 50.

Greeting

We are having a big trade in groceries and meats, the biggest we ever remember.

WHY?

Because we do business on business principles. We cater alike to the masses and carry a line of goods to suit the purse of the poorest or the fastidious taste of the richest.

We carry a complete line of Groceries and Meats and the quality is always the best.

Give us a call.

Alex. McDougall,

Groceries and Meat.

Men's SHOE Bargains!

In looking over our Men's Shoe Department we found about fifty (50) pairs of slightly shop-worn—heavy soled

WINTER SHOES.

We have placed the entire lot on sale at prices that are about one third (1/3) their real value.

We need room for our new spring stock of shoes or this lot of durable every day shoes would not be offered at such a sacrifice.

Be advised and buy a pair of these

BARGAIN SHOES,

For Bargain Shoes are a scarce article now-a-days—owing to the extremely high price of leather.

M. C. TULIS,

EMPORIUM, PA.

State Teachers.

The fifth annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Teachers will convene at Harrisburg, Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 14th and 15th.

Old Folks Reception.

Invitations have been issued for an old folks dancing reception at Driftwood, Wednesday evening, Feb. 14th. A good time is assured all who attend.

Handsome Residence.

Fred Julian, Esq., has purchased from H. A. Cox the vacant lot on Broad street, next to the residence of Mrs. J. G. Bryan and will erect a handsome residence the coming spring. We understand Mr. Julian will erect a home that will do credit to the town.

Sudden Death.

We regret to learn of the sudden death of Hon. W. K. Jones, of Coudersport, in his 50th year. His death took place at Syracuse, N. Y., where he was transacting business. Deceased was prominent in business affairs and represented Potter county in the legislature in 1891. His remains were brought to Coudersport on Sunday, where his wife and children reside.

The "Little Blue Book."

A neat, compact pocket volume containing the time-tables of all the railroads in Pennsylvania. Should be in the possession of every traveling man, hotel, business man and business firm in the state. It is published monthly, with all corrections up to date, at one dollar per year. Single copies ten cents. Mailed on receipt of price. Address, "Little Blue Book," Milton, Pa.

Dolan--Vogt.

Two of Emporium's highly esteemed young people, Mr. MICHAEL DOLAN and Miss MINNIE VOGT, were married at St. Mark's church, Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, by Rev. Downey. Immediately after the ceremony, which was witnessed by a large number of friends, the wedding party repaired to the residence of the bride's brother, County Commissioner A. F. Vogt, where the wedding breakfast was partaken of. Both are popular with their friends and are greatly esteemed by their acquaintances. The bride has resided in Emporium all her life and is universally respected by our people. The groom is the gentlemanly clerk at the City Hotel and is very popular, not only with the traveling public, but all who know him. Honorable, courteous and a true gentleman, he counts his friends by the score.

The PRESS wishes the couple much happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Dolan are at home at their cozy rooms in the Tulis flat.

An Elopement.

James Howland, who moved from near Ladona to Sizerville about a month ago, was in town yesterday in search of his 14-year-old daughter Carrie, who eloped Sunday with a man by the name of Frank Blodgett, 40 years of age, who was employed by the child's father and boarded with him. The man was evidently greatly in love with the girl and asked the parents for her hand in marriage. This, of course, they refused for many reasons, the principle one being the child's age, and also the man's inability to support a wife. The girl was undoubtedly persuaded by the man to run away, and at 12 o'clock they started afoot and have not been heard of nor seen since that time. The child is about five feet, six inches in height, round face, ruddy complexion, hair nearly black. She wore a light colored hat and coat. The man is of slight build, short, and weighs about 130 pounds, sandy mustache, and bald-headed. He is a sort of a religious crank and makes public demonstrations. Anyone knowing of the whereabouts of the girl will confer a great favor by writing or telegraphing the anxious parents at Sizerville.—Potter Enterprise.

EUGENE O. BARDWELL, M. D.
Republican Candidate for Mayor.

Popular Candidate.

The Republicans of Emporium are to be congratulated upon placing in nomination, for the important office of Chief Burgess a gentleman so eminently qualified by learning and fitness as EUGENE O. BARDWELL, M. D., and if elected, as he certainly will be, the people of Emporium can rest assured that their interests will be carefully, honestly and faithfully watched over and protected. Dr. Bardwell has resided in Emporium for twenty-one years and seldom consents to accept an elective office, although repeatedly urged to do so by his friends, who admire his ability and courage to do what he believes is right and proper. The election of Dr. Bardwell will assure to the tax-payers of Emporium Borough a gentleman of fine education and a close student, well versed in the laws governing municipalities, and will make an officer that will do honor to the people electing him.

Dr. Bardwell is in the prime of life, being in his 46th year and takes pride in doing well any duty imposed on him. See that you vote for Dr. Bardwell and the entire borough and ward tickets.

Will Leave Us.

Mr. M. P. Whiting, of Emporium, Pa., has been engaged as book-keeper and auditor by Mr. N. T. Arnold and entered upon the discharge of his duties last week. Mr. Whiting's experience as bank cashier renders him especially fitted to discharge well the responsibilities of his new position and we welcome him to Ridgway. Mrs. Whiting is a sister of Mr. Arnold. His family will move to Ridgway as soon as the weather becomes more moderate. We congratulate Mr. Arnold and Ridgway on the change.—Ridgway Advocate. Our citizens will regret to have Mr. Whiting and his excellent family leave Emporium, yet we rejoice that he has secured such an excellent position, exceeding financially the position as cashier of First National Bank, which he filled acceptably for several years. Mr. Whiting is a native of this county and always enjoyed the confidence and respect of our citizens. We in common with our people, wish our friend success. His family will leave in the spring.

Carpet of all kinds and lots of it at LaBar's.

A Manila Newspaper.

Dr. W. H. Ush sends us a copy of the Manila (P. I.) "Freedom," issued Christmas week. It is, in part, well printed and very interesting. The Doctor, who formerly resided at Driftwood, is a surgeon on U. S. S. Gasier, at Manila.

Republican Committee Meeting.

The Republican County Committee of Cameron county met at the office of B. W. Green, Esq., Chairman of the Committee, last Tuesday. Every district with the exception of Grove and Driftwood was represented. The committee named April 7th, as the date for the primaries to elect delegates to the Republican State Convention and Congressional Convention.

Letter From Josiah Howard.

On Board the "San Juan," Jan. 27.
Editor Cameron County Press—

DEAR SIR:—As you see by the enclosed passenger list we are sailing under the command of Captain Lloyd, to Puerto Rico and have on board General Davis, Governor-General of Puerto Rico, also the Ex-Governor of Conn., Mr. Dewall.

So far the water has been fairly smooth and to-day we began to feel the warm air of the south. According to observations recorded by the Captain, on the chart at noon to-day, we are 750 miles from New York and 635 miles from Puerto Rico and will likely reach there on Monday evening. The boat is not making her best time, as this is her first trip and the machinery is being humored on its maiden trip. The paint and waiters and some passengers are quite fresh. On Thursday afternoon when the Captain sounded the fire alarm, just for fun as it were, there was a great scramble among the passengers and sailors and the boys had quite a laugh at me because I helped with the hose, but I was satisfied, because the "Hamilton's" plug threw first water.

Tell "Gus" to keep it up and we will make him Chief next year.

Please send me the PRESS for this and the next two weeks to Havana.

JOSIAH HOWARD.

Not old carpets, gathered up at other old stores, but new carpets right from the factory, at LaBar's.

Death's Doings.

DOWNY—On Sunday, Feb. 4, 1900, at 10:20 p. m., at the University of Pennsylvania Hospital in Philadelphia, OLIVINE DOWNY, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Downey, Sr., of Emporium, Pa., at the age of 29 years, 7 months and 27 days.

At last, after many weeks of untold suffering with malignant disease, OLIVINE DOWNY has passed away, having died at the University of Pennsylvania Hospital, in Philadelphia, on Sunday night, the result of a singularly fatal disease, known to medical science as Lymphadenoma, or Hodgkin's disease, which is a progressive enlargement of the lymphatic glands.

Mr. Downey, at the time he was attacked by the disease, was employed by Mr. C. G. Schmidt, as a baker, in the City Bakery, at this place. Being warned as to the seriousness of his malady, he left here some fourteen weeks ago for Harrisburg, where he was taken care of by his brother, Mr. Frank R. Downey, and where he remained for seven weeks, receiving the attention of the best physicians in the city, on whose advice he was taken to the University Hospital to undergo an operation, which was performed on the third of January and ten of the diseased lymphatic glands under the left shoulder were removed. After the operation was performed he rallied for a few days and hopes were entertained for his recovery when pleurisy set in and he began to fail. His case was almost a hopeless one some two weeks ago, when his mother was called to his bedside, and from that time until death his life hung in the balance.

The remains arrived here on Flyer Tuesday morning and lay in state at the family residence, corner of Fifth and Vine streets, where they were viewed by a vast concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends, until this afternoon when the funeral was held.

Short services were held at the house at 2 o'clock, from whence the remains were taken to the M. E. church, where Rev. Shriner conducted one of the saddest and most impressive funeral services we have ever attended. From the church the funeral cortege sadly and silently wended its way to the Wiley cemetery and with the heart-breaking sobs and other manifestations of profound sorrow were mingled the Pastor's words "Dust to dust, and ashes to ashes" as all that was mortal of Olivine Downey was lowered to its last resting place on earth.

The P. O. S. of A., of which deceased was an honored member, attended the funeral in a body, and, according to the rights of the order, appropriate services were held over the body of their deceased brother. The pallbearers were from the Emporium High School Alumni, of which he was a member.

Deceased was born in Emporium, June 8, 1879, and has spent the whole of his short life here. He was educated at the Emporium High School, having graduated from that institution in the class of '96.

The death of such a promising young man is not only deeply lamented by the community in which he had grown to manhood, but is a sad blow to his aged parents, to whom he was a source of great comfort and joy. His genial disposition, his sterling honesty, temperate habits, unflinching patriotism, spotless character, and his untiring devotion to his aged parents, won for him a large number of firm and ardent friends, which is an inspiring testament of the universal respect in which he was held.

Many beautiful and appropriate floral emblems were received from various societies, friends and relatives. Harry Cox and Don Larrabee sent a beautiful bouquet of cut flowers as a token of respect to their deceased friend. The P. O. S. of A. presented a scroll; High School Alumni, a pillow; Women's Relief Corps, cut flowers; Class of '96, broken column; Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Schmidt, a very beautiful bouquet of cut flowers, and Mr. Garrett and Mrs. May, of Lancaster county, cut flowers.

The following relatives and friends from out of town were in attendance at the funeral. Frank R. Downey (brother), Harrisburg; Mrs. Ida R. Smith (aunt), Bath, N. Y.; Edward L. Garrett (cousin), Christiana, Pa.; Mrs. John May (cousin), Paradise, Pa. Geo. J. LaBar had charge of the funeral and it was conducted with the neat and artistic manner which characterizes the experienced funeral director.

BRIEF MENTION.

Isaac Moore, who died a few days ago, was granted a pension of $12 per month five days after his death.

Last Sunday was Missionary day in M. E. church, and in a very short time $235 was raised.

That was a very enjoyable and pleasant hop given at the opera house, last Friday evening by the Mandolin Club. Let us have more of them.

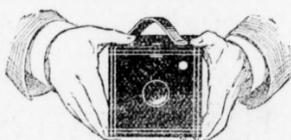

John Arthur, Jr., formerly of this place, has been drawn as a petit juror on the Hummel murder trial in Lycoming county.

High School Notes.

Mr. Fred Julian, the hustling representative of the Climax Powder Company, gave a most delightful hour's address last Thursday afternoon to the pupils of the High School. His subject was "Mexico." A recent trip of hundreds of miles through our neighboring country, by railroad and stage, gave to him a picture which is indeed interesting, and Mr. Julian outdid himself in his excellent address. He also had with him about forty kodak pictures of that country.

Pres. of School Board Huntington, secretary Logan and ex-director Parsons paid a delightful visit to the High School last week. They are all thoroughly interested in the work of the schools.

EASTMAN'S KODAK

FRIDAY, Snow; cold wave; high northwest winds a blustery day.
SATURDAY, Fair, probably snow flurries, and continued cold.
SUNDAY, Fair and continued cold weather.

You can carry it in your hands, on your shoulder, in your pocket or on your bicycle. You press the button and the Kodak will do the rest.

VALENTINES.

"To-morrow is St. Valentine's Day,
All in the morning bedtime!
And I, a maid at your window,
To be your Valentine."
—Shakespeare.

VALENTINES.

We have Valentines from one cent to one dollar. Some are highly ornamental and artistic while others are caricatures. Come and see them.
