EDITORIAL MENTION.

"Let no man be punished," is now an excellent motto for the law-abiding people of Kentucky.

Mr. Bryan's far Western trip is to be a 10,000 mile affair, with a rear-end speech at every stopping place.

"Cotton Jumps to Ten Cents," says the Savannah Tribune. Thus the McKinley prosperity invades the South.

The Democratic leaders propose to see to it that a vast amount of grumbling and faultfinding follows the flag.

There is one thing quite certain. President McKinley's administration is not swayed by New York's bubonic journalism.

The Republican party will receive valuable assistance this year from the good Orator Puff who speaks from the top of the factory smokestack.

The city of New York was turned over to Tammany by the hue and cry of "home rule." There has been a reign of plain larceny ever since.

Municipal reform in New York has reached that point where the officials of that city tremble all the time that a grand jury is in session.

Feeling sure that he has cornered the Kansas City nomination, Mr. Bryan thinks that it is safe for him to go about the country talking about the wickedness of monopoly.

Messrs. Carnegie and Frick have adjusted their differences and the coke and steel interests controlled by them will be combined under a new charter.

The bureau of engraving and printing is running on double time. This has been rendered necessary by the example set by the manufacturing institutions of the country.

All of the great newspapers of the country are opposed to the principles contained in the Chicago platform. But this fact is explained by Mr Bryan with the one word "conspiracy."

It is confidently believed that the next notable thing in the South Dakota divorce line will be the legal separation of the Hon. Richard Franklin Pettigrew from his official position.

When Mr. Bryan gave his unqualified indorsement to Goebelism in Kentucky he placed a marked impediment in his favorite speech about "government without the consent of the governed."

R. B. Stone, of Bradford, announces his candidacy for Congress in this issue of the PRESS. Mr. Stone is eminently qualified for the position and should he receive the nomination would no doubt represent the district with credit.

Gov. Stone has appointed Wm. L. Schaeffer, of Chester, as Supreme Court reporter, to succeed Capt. W. C. Kress, of Lock Haven, whose term has just expired. Mr. Schaeffer was one of the gentlemen who accompanied Hon. William A. Stone through the state prior to his election.

Obituary.

GEORGE DILLMAN HICKS, born Jan. 1st, 1881, died at the home of his parents at Cameron, Pa., March 12th, 1900, aged 19 years, two months and 11 days. Deceased was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Hicks. The young man was kind and true to his father and mother and all members of his family, He was loved by all who knew him and had a kind word for everybody. Our Savior saw fit to remove him from earth's toil, but as we saw him pass away, it seemed hard, but Jesus says "My will be done." Soon our time will come to go and we pray our lot may be as thy dear son, kind and true.

Our hearts are sad and lonely,
Since George passed away;
His days on earth were numbered,
With you he could not stay.

His life of toil is ended,
He rests from grief and care;
At home with blessed Jesus,
We hope to meet him there.

Your loss I know is heavy,
You miss his gentle care;
In mansions Jesus promised,
Will surely meet him there.

For soon he comes in glory,
With all his Saints to reign;
With rapture then to greet him,
And never part again.

The funeral took place at Cameron Sunday, March 25th—Rev. Mulliner officiating. W. L. D.

Another Big Engine Order.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has just ordered forty additional heavy freight engines from the Baldwin works and the Juniata shops are working night and day on engine orders. The new engines to be built at the Baldwin works and Juniata shops are solidations and freight moguls, designed somewhat similar to the class H-6 and the G-4A machines now in use on the main line and the lines west of Pittsburg. A great many of the new engines just ordered are for lines west of Pittsburg. It is understood that the Panhandle will use 20 or more of the big moguls on this end of the road as soon as the new bridges are completed in the Pittsburg district.—Renovo News.

Struck a Gusher.

The issue of the Seneca Advertiser of March 9, published at Tiffin, O., contains the following concerning an oil well of which W. L. Hamilton of Campbell, Stuben county, well known in Emporium, is half owner.

There is no further question about there being a large pool of oil under this city, or closely adjacent to it. That fact was clearly demonstrated about noon Tuesday. At that time, what is known as the Van Nette well was shot and the result of the shooting exceeded the fondest hopes of those who drilled the well.

The oil shot up fully 500 feet above the derrick and submurged the ground with the fluid for acres around the well.

Mercantile Tax.

The Auditor-General has decided that under the new law mercantile appraisers must not publish the amount of tax each dealer is required to pay. The new law makes it necessary for each person doing business to pay a tax and the appraisers will make a thorough canvass and examine all books. It means more money for the county. The omission of the names keeps from the public the amount of business each merchant does in a year and in the event of big success he is not likely to have his rent raised by an unscrupulous landlord when the latter becomes aware of an increase in trade.

The University Association.

The meetings of the Center are discontinued for the present. Members whose dues are in arrears are asked kindly to see the Treasurer, Mr. Josiah Howard.

It is very hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N. Y.) dairyman called at a drugstore there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in, he left word for him to come at once on his return. He also bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned, saying the doctor need not come as the child was much better. The druggist, Mr. Otto Scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country. For sale by L. Taggart, Druggist. mar

Sinnemahoning Liars Club.

The Sinnemahoning Liars Club is in a flourishing condition with plenty of capital and first-class members. One of our members told a good one at last night's session which was applauded highly. He was on a steam boat on Lake Erie and had an occasion to visit the engine and boiler room, where he found they used a colored man for a weight on the safety valve and every time the steam blew off, it sent him through the smoke stack, which also kept the stack clean. Some of the members doubted his statement and J. V. Hanscome was referred to, who said it was a fact, so it was recorded on the minutes. Beldin and Pap Blodget were expelled from the club for six months, as neither of them will tell a lie or drink anything stronger than water, which is contrary to the laws of the order, and it created quite a bit of excitement. One of our members rode the Odd Fellows goat at Driftwood and reports having a fine time. Pap Blodget was up to Driftwood a few nights ago and came in contact with Angus McDonald, after a few remarks the old fellow threw up the sponge and tackled Sam McCoole, who contemplates joining our club in the near future.

Should we succeed in getting a few good members from Driftwood we will be in first-class trim when we make our annual visit to Emporium this spring.

While in Emporium last week I had the pleasure of attending a meeting of that club and witnessed the initiation of "Jack" Kackenmeister, who after the ceremonies distinguished himself by telling a story entitled the "owl," or the "broad faced hen," which certainly is a good one and proved beyond a doubt that he will make a front rank member. "Jack" has had the experience in this line and all that is needed now is a chance to expound.

With such talent as the new member, Dalrymple, Ed. McNerney and Ed. Morse, the Emporium club is bound to prosper.

Being no other business Alex. DeShetler called for refreshments and the club adjourned.

FIDE.

Sinnemahoning.

"There is just one girl," is now the favorite song with Otto McCoy since the arrival of the little lady who came to make her future home at his house.

One of our young men is pretty nearly discouraged. He says he don't mind the girl's father keeping a bulldog but he has to dodge two other ugly dogs on his way home.

By the time June roses shed their fragrance on the ambient air at least three more weddings shall have been consumated, unless dame rumor is wholly unreliable.

It was very gratifying to the many friends of Rev. M. C. Piper, to learn that he was to remain with us another year. He was given a hearty reception on his return from conference, on which occasion he was properly "pounded" and made to feel that his labors are appreciated.

The venerable ex-President of the liars club visited Renovo a short time ago and stayed over night. He was given a room with a funny little lamp hanging by a string in the middle of the room, and in trying to extinguish the thing it came loose from the ceiling, began to spit fire and sparks at the dignified guest, and he says chased him all around the room. Of course Pap yelled for some one to "come and take it away," and the racket he made soon brought the night clerk and police to his rescue, when they found him on his back, in the corner, kicking viciously at that pesky little glass bulb which was finally captured and returned to its proper place, and a generous dose of the ex-President's favorite prescription soon restored him to his usual quiet dignity, but he could not be induced to stay in the same room with that bottled lightning, but would either sleep in the barn or walk home; and the next time he goes away to institute another club he will take a lantern along.

Sterling Run.

A. W. Mason is waiting for a flood.

Rumor has it that the wages of the employes of the tannery will be cut down April 1st. We hope the rumor is unfounded.

Ed. Norton, brother of Chas. Norton, Supt. of the tannery here, was badly injured in the trolly wreck near Bradford, on Monday, and is not expected to live.

A little child of Emmanuel Yerby, near Cameron, was buried at Pine street on Tuesday. Services were held in M. E. Church, in this place, by Rev. Mulliner, of Cameron.

The parents of certain young ladies of this place should be better acquainted with their actions at night. We believe in young people enjoying each others company, but not in making a nuisance of their gaiety and disturbing the peace of others. We hope it will not be necessary to publish their names in full.

A number of our citizens contemplate moving away this Spring.

Glorious Easter Excursion.

In the spring when all the world feels young, there comes a longing to take a short trip somewhere. The "Lackawanna" Railroad has solved this problem for its patrons by running an excursion to Washington on April 7th. Tickets good on all trains, from all stations will be sold at one fare for the round trip, good for return up to and including April 17th. Tickets will be honored for stop-over at Philadelphia and Baltimore. The "Lackawanna" is the line of legand, lore, beauty and history. Over the Pocono Mountains, through the famous Water Gap by the place where Washington crossed the Delaware, on to Trenton and Philadelphia. Just the trip for teacher, student, artist and the business man. Think of Washington in April. Congress is in session, the flowers are in bloom, then there are the delightful side trips to Arlington, Richmond, Old Point Comfort (Fortress Monroe), Atlantic City, Mt Vernon and the green fields of "Old Virginia."

To accommodate this, the largest excursion of the year, through sleepers will be run to Washington. Apply to agents now for space. For full particulars, see nearest Agents or write Fred P. Fox, D. P. A., Buffalo, N. Y.
