LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

William Wade, of Sterling Run, was in town on Tuesday. John Lunden Johnson has purchased the American hotel. Miss Josie Deavor is visiting Miss Goldie Lyons in this city. Mrs. Jos. Kaye has returned from visiting relatives at Williamsport. Mr. C. R. Kline, of Beechwood, had business at the county seat Saturday. County Treasurer C. M. Thomas will publish the Land Sales in our next issue. Mrs. Henry Auchu is spending the week with Williamsport relatives and friends. William Andrews, of Coudersport, is assisting Jasper Harris at present, at this place. Rev. J. M. Johnston, formerly pastor of the M. E. Church, at this place, goes to Austin. Chas. Clark, brother of Robt. Clark has rented the Graham residence on Fifth street. Miss Clara Stratton, of Wilcox, is guest of her cousin G. S. Allen and wife at this place. Mrs. C. T. Allen, of Wilcox, visited her son G. S. Allen and wife, at this place over Sunday. Miss Clara Holahan, of Driftwood, Pa., visited Miss Mamie Logan at this place over Sunday. Josiah Howard made a flying business trip east on Monday, returning home Tuesday evening. Postmaster Chas. Seger has been on the sick list the past week, yet daily appeared at his post of duty. Master Hugh Johnston, is guest of Chas. Logan, being en route for Austin, where his parents have located. C. W. Barr, of Gibson, was a Press caller on Tuesday. He also took in the minstrel show in the evening. Mr. C. F. Barclay, Sinnamahoning's energetic and popular lumberman, was a visitor to Emporium Thursday evening. J. O. Brookbank, of Driftwood, was transacting business in Emporium, on Monday. Mr. Brookbank is indeed quite a sprinter, and only for this fact he no doubt would have missed his train Monday afternoon. F. W. Ayers and family left yesterday for Portland, Oregon, where they will reside in the future. Mr. Ayers has resided in Emporium for several years and has always born an excellent reputation. We wish him well in his new home. The many Cameron county friends of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Norris, residing at Portland Mills, are pleased to hear that their home has been blessed by the arrival of a bouncing ten pound boy. The young gentleman made his advent last Friday and T. H. writes us "he is the most wonderful boy of the 29th century." Here's to the health of T. H. Norris, Jr.

Supt. A. Brady is visiting his family at Lebanon this week. F. M. Overhiser has moved into the rooms over his store. Mrs. F. D. Leet is slowly recovering from her serious illness. Frank Strayer visited old friends at Williamsport over Sunday. Urban Boutain contemplates going to Nome, Alaska, next month. Arthur Harmon, of Lock Haven, was in town on business Wednesday. Mrs. Dr. Bardwell leaves next Tuesday for New York and Philadelphia. C. F. Mankey visited Philadelphia and New York the fore part of the week. Judge McDonald, of Driftwood, transacted business in Emporium on Tuesday. Edward Moore, who has been seriously ill for some time, is improving slowly. Edward Morse's little child, after being dangerously ill for several days, is improving. Rev. Dr. Deavor arrived in town today en route to Patton, his new appointment. One day last week Harry Thomas, while riding the elevator at the furnace, injured one of his feet. We are pleased to learn that S. J. Hackett, who has been in poor health for some time, is improving. Webb Walize, of Renovo, had a few minutes time to shake hands with his old Emporium friends Tuesday. M. P. Whiting and family move to Ridgway next week, where Mr. W. has accepted a responsible position. B. W. Green returned from Florida Tuesday evening, having enjoyed his outing in the land of oranges and flowers. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lord, of Friendship, N. Y., are visiting Herbert Day and wife in town. They are Mrs. D.'s parents. David M. Kirk, of Pittsburg, the genial President of the Climax Powder Company, was transacting business in Emporium this week. C. G. Schmidt and wife were called to Sprageville, Monroe county, last Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Schmidt's grand-father. Mrs. Ward Metzger returned last Tuesday evening from Philadelphia Mill's Eye Hospital, where she underwent a painful surgical operation. Jay and Willie Card, two bright lads, who have been making their home at this place with their grand-mother, Mrs. Griswold, joined their parents at Olean last Saturday. Mercantile Appraiser, Franklin Housler, is calling on the mercantile firms in this county, compiling his return under the act of 1899. His report will appear in the Press next week. Wm. Howard and wife came up from Williamsport on Tuesday and visited with Emporium friends until yesterday afternoon. They leave April 14th on their extended visit to Europe, to be absent almost one year. Mrs. Louisa Smith, of Portville, N. Y., arrived in Emporium on Tuesday to visit her daughters, Mrs. S. J. Hackett and Miss Sadie Smith, who is making her home with Mrs. Hackett. Mrs. Smith presented Miss Sadie with a handsome violin, a present from her brother, Sidney J. Smith, of Portville. The young lady is greatly delighted with her kind brother's present. Geo. Bloom and family who have resided here for a number of years, will return to their old home at Williamsport, to-morrow. Mr. B. has had charge of the finishing department for Mankey Furniture Company. The family have many friends in Emporium who regret their departure. The Press, as well as our citizens generally, wish the pleasant family prosperity and happiness. Miss Ella Mayze is now lady in charge at the Public Library, during the day. This popular institution is daily growing in favor with our people. During the evening hours it is pleasant to note the large number of young boys who regularly visit the room and spend a couple of hours reading the books and papers. Strangers within our gates find it a pleasant place to pass a few hours between trains. Emmanuel Church Lenten Services. Thursday, March 29, 7:30 p. m.: Temperance. Friday, March 30, 7:30 p. m.: Life of Christ. Saturday, March 31, 4:30 p. m.: Reading from Phillips Brooks. Monday, April 2, 4:30 p. m.: Brownings "Abt Vogler." Tuesday, April 3, 4:30 p. m.: Devotional Reading. Wednesday, April 4, 7:30 p. m.: Does the Episcopal Church magnify empty forms and ceremonies? Sunday, April 1: Celebration of the Holy Communion at 11 a. m. Mrs. Calvin Zimmerman, Milesburg Pa., says, "As a speedy cure for coughs, colds, croup and sore throat One Minute Cough Cure is unequalled. It is pleasant for children to take. I heartily recommend it to mothers." It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Cures bronchitis, pneumonia, grippe and throat and lung troubles. It will prevent consumption. R. C. Dodson.

Card of Thanks. We, the undersigned, desire to return our sincere and humble thanks to the many kind friends for their aid and assistance during the sickness and death of our beloved son. MR. AND MRS. HICKS AND FAMILY. Cameron, Pa., March 26, 1900.

Annual Banquet. The members of the Emporium K. O. T. M., and L. O. T. M., will give their annual Banquet at the opera house, Tuesday evening, April 3rd, 1900. Sir Knight Great Commander Lawry will be present. All Sir Knights and the ladies are very cordially invited to be in attendance. COMMITTEE.

Early Morning Blaze. Last Saturday morning, about 6:15, the fire alarm was sounded and soon our efficient fire department repaired to the scene of the conflagration, which proved to be the engine house, oil house and blacksmith shop of the Emporium & Rich Valley R. R., located in the west ward. The fire was confined to the buildings in which it originated. Loss about 1,000; insured.

New Powder Company. We are reliably informed that arrangements have been perfected for the organization of a company for the manufacture of high explosives. The interested parties are all citizens of Emporium and will start with a capital of $50,000. The works, to be located on West Creek, will be commenced as soon the weather will permit. U. A. Palmer, an experienced powder man, will undoubtedly be the manager.

A Success. The concert given at Gardeau, last Saturday evening for the benefit of the Gardeau Sunday School was a great financial success. The Glee Club and Mandolin Club drove up from this place and added greatly in making the concert a success. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hackenberg, who were prime movers in the enterprise, entertained the Emporium visitors very pleasantly until a late hour, when the party drove home, in good order, until they reached Chas. Weller's. Here came trouble—I. K. Hockley was determined to stop and get a cake of Limberger cheese and some of those pickled herring he has been yearning for ever since that memorable visit. Feminine objection on his left caused the driver to ply the lash to the horses and Hockley lost the cheese.

Boy's Large Funeral. The funeral of John Daley Murphy, son of John Murphy, general superintendent of the United traction company, from the family residence, Second and Allegheny avenues, yesterday, was one of the largest ever seen in that section of the city. Solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated at St. Stephen's Church, by the Rev. Daniel Devlin, assisted by Father May, Father McDermott and Father Thos. Devlin. A feature of the Church services was the singing under the direction of a Sister of Charity of "Nearer My God, to Thee" by the pupils of St. Stephen's schools. Miss Kate Ward sang "Angels Ever Bright and Fair." Two large wagons were required to convey the floral offerings to Calvary cemetery. The Second avenue car men sent an immense piece lettered "Our Little Dispatcher." The two divisions of the United Traction Co. Employees' Relief association, the car men of all the divisions, the dispatchers, power house employees and shophmen also sent beautiful pieces. There were over a dozen additional tributes and the floral offerings helped assuage the grief of the stricken parents, who were deeply touched by the mute messages of sympathy.—Pittsburg Leader 25th.

The deceased will be remembered by many of our citizens, having visited here last Summer. Mr. Michael Murphy, proprietor of Commercial House, attended the funeral of his nephew, returning home on Monday.

Notes and News. Read Day's new ad on 5th page. New line of hats at N. Seger's. Call and see them. A new line of fine fishing tackle for the coming season, just arrived. R. C. DODSON.

Howard & Company's mill is running in full blast and Henry Auchu is happy. The Masonic fraternity will attend M. E. church, next Sunday morning in a body.

Don't forget the A. O. H., C. M. B. A. and L. C. B. A., ball at the opera house, April 19th. It promises to be a pleasant affair. The popular Jamison orchestra of Bradford will furnish the music.

N. Seger has one of the finest lines of spring and summer clothing ever brought to this town and the price is very low compared with the quality of goods handled. If you need new clothing call on him. He will treat you right and sell you a good, reliable suit.

Portrait Artist.—Chas. A. Hopper, a portrait artist of Williamsport, will visit Emporium the coming week. He will solicit orders for the enlargement of pictures. The gentleman comes to Emporium well recommended and the Press hopes he will receive a cordial reception at the hands of our people.

Painful Injury. We are indeed sorry to hear that our friend C. H. Jessop is confined to his home and suffering from the effects of a fall, while attending the funeral of Hon. J. M. Shaffer, two weeks ago. Mr. Jessop is suffering greatly with pain in the spine and is unable to walk. We hope his injuries may not long confine the genial gentleman to his residence.

Reward. We, the undersigned druggists, offer a reward of 50 cents to any person who purchases of us, two 25 cent boxes of Baxter's Mandraks Bitters Tablets, if it fails to cure constipation, biliousness, sick-headache, jaundice, loss of appetite, sour stomach, dyspepsia, liver complaint, or any of the diseases for which it is recommended.
