EDITORIAL MENTION.

The Kansas City Journal inquires how it happens, if free trade with Porto Rico be right, that Pettigrew is in favor of the policy.

Secretary Gage has been examining into our surplus of revenue, Secretary Carlisle was always occupied in figuring up his deficiency.

Republican gains in Nebraska's local elections are a favorable indication of something greater in the same direction in November.

Ex-President Cleveland has expressed himself in approval of the Hay-Pouncefote treaty for the neutralization of the Nicaraguan Canal.

Disfranchisement in the State of North Carolina may save the Democracy there the inconvenience their party has experienced in Kentucky.

The United States is now the world's greatest producer and exporter of meats, which form one of the most important features of our export trade.

The lean and hungry appearance of Jerry Simpson's newspaper indicates quite plainly that the Kansas farmers are not traveling in Jerry's direction this year.

Armor plate is likely to again create discussion in Congress on a Democratic minority report. The naval appropriation bill will probably be delayed in consequence.

In 1895 there were 13,588 miles of street railway track in the United States. In 1898 there were 17,291 miles. This is another indication of our recent progress and prosperity.

The Nesbit law is expected to do for Missouri what the Gobel law has done for Kentucky. If it does, then Missouri should be made the terminal point for considerable sympathy.

Senator Pettigrew is constantly calling on the different departments for information. Yet Mr. Pettigrew has the reputation of being the most thoroughly misinformed man in Washington.

The Democrats of the District of Columbia want the Hon. William Sulzer for Vice President. The Democrats of the District of Columbia are not the least bit extravagant in their wants.

It is but natural for the Democratic party to oppose the building up of the American marine. It will be recalled that the Democratic party claimed that American tin plate was an impossibility.

Does anybody know of a piece of general legislation proposed or promoted by Mr. Bryan? The gentleman from Nebraska served in Congress for two terms and put in his entire time talking for publication.

The Republican "clean sweeps" in the Mississippi Valley do not indicate a revolt because the Republicans in Congress have not adopted free trade with Porto Rico to suit the Democrats and establish a dangerous precedent.

School Entertainment.

The annual entertainment, given by the Sterling Run school, was held in Maccabee hall, Thursday and Friday evenings to crowded houses.

The program was finely rendered and great credit is due Prin. D. B. Peterson, and Miss Marsh, primary teacher.

The quartette composed of Messrs. Goodall and Olmsted, Mrs. Moore and Miss Nettie Kissell, finely rendered several pleasing selections.

The drill, which was splendidly executed by the smaller members of the primary room reflects great credit upon their teacher, Miss Marsh. James Furlong and Chas May in their "Irish" and "negro" parts, respectively made the "hits" of the evening, both being peculiarly adapted to their parts.

Altogether it was one of the finest entertainments given in years. Several out of town visitors were present both evenings.

Red Tape Illustrated.

A correspondent passing hurriedly into the room of the committee on rivers and harbors pulled the knob off the door.

"How can I get that fixed, do you think?" asked the congressman. "Shall I get the carpenter or the locksmith?" "The locksmith, I suppose."

"No, sir. Were I to send for the locksmith he would tell me to consult the architect of the capitol. He has no authority to fix doorknobs. Doorknobs are permanent fixtures and are solely within the jurisdiction of the architect of the capitol."

"Do you see that bookcase there?" said the committee secretary. "I caused the carpenter to paste some cloth on the inside of the glass doors in order that the books might not show. He did the work, but when he had finished I noted that he had not cleaned the glass before he put the cloth on. The thing looked so disreputable that I asked him why he had not cleaned the glass. He told me that the glass was a permanent fixture and that he had no authority to touch it, but that the placing of the cloth upon it was a temporary matter and was entirely within the province of his labors. The whole thing's got to be done all over again."

Washington Cor. Cleveland Plain Dealer.

She Didn't Buy It.

The following story will show the high price that illustrators of reputation command for their work: A young woman who had received treatment from Dr. S. Weir Mitchell of Philadelphia and was very fond of him decided, at a recent celebration of his birthday, that a fitting and appropriate gift would be the presentation of one of the original drawings of Mr. Howard Pyle for "Hugh Wynne." Forthwith she invaded The Century company's sanctum and, with her fingers tenderly grasping a new $10 note, asked to buy the drawing. She was informed that these pictures were never sold unless exceptions were made in cases where the artist himself or the author wished to make the purchase.

"Just so," said the young woman. "I wish to present it to Dr. Mitchell."

"Ah, in that case," said the gentleman at the desk, "we shall take pleasure in giving it to you at the exact price we paid for it, which is $100."

The little lady in her excitement dropped the $10 bill. The gentleman at the desk picked it up for her and smiled while she hurriedly took her departure. The good doctor was presented with a less appropriate gift that year.—New York Times.

Clear and to the Point.

The following is taken from a hotel advertisement in the Calcutta Times: "Gentlemen who come in hotel not say anything about their meals they will be charged for, and if they should say beforehand that they are going out to breakfast or dinner, etc., and if they say that they not have anything to eat they will be charged, and if not so they will not be charged, or unless they bring it to the notice of the manager of the place, and should they want to say anything they must order the manager for one, not any one else, and unless they bring not it to the notice of the manager they will be charged for the least things according to the hotel rate, and no fuss will be allowed afterward about it."

A Poultry Problem.

A Somerville man borrowed a neighbor's hen on the pretense that he wanted her to sit. As soon as he got the hen he broke up the sitting habit and got her to laying eggs. In the next six weeks she laid two dozen eggs. These he sold for 40 cents a dozen, and with the 80 cents that he got for them he bought the hen. Now the question arises whether the original owner of the hen was fooled or not.—Somerville Journal.

Sinnemahoning Liars Club.

The liars club was called to order by great Annias J. V. Hanscom. After a few well aimed remarks by his assistant the gavel sounded and the club was brought to order. John Johnson was called upon, and he said he cut a large tree one day which happened to be hollow and when the tree struck the ground it broke open and twenty-five coons made their escape, and still it wasn't much of a day for coons. He was fined eight cents but he promised to do better next time.

Pap Blodget, who was sent to Driftwood last Thursday night to solicit members for our club was called on for his report. He said that on arriving at that busy town he found that the Emporium club had sent a delegation ahead of him, composed of H. H. Mullin, E. W. Gaskill, Geo. Metzger and C. J. Goodnough. Now to have made this list complete, they should have sent in addition to the above named gentlemen, Wm. Dalrymple and Fred Hill, and the town would have been captured. The old man, who was shot at a couple of times with three fingers and no chaser, caught next train for Emporium. After looking around for some time, met "Smike" who ushered him into a side door and tapped a jug of cider, which he called the "pendulum brand." Pap not being accustomed to this kind of a beverage did not admire the drink very much, and said it reminded him of creek water. Pap's report was accepted and placed on file.

Grundy Logue will tell us a few whoppers as soon as bass season opens. He told a small one for a starter. Logue said he caught a sucker 14 inches wide between the eyes and weighed thirty pounds. This story was too much for Tom Snyder and he hit Geo. Shafer a left hander, knocking him over seven beer kegs, and a general fight was started, several members being badly used up. Pap Blodget especially, being hit with a nut from a ten inch shaft. Beldin interferred and threw out seven old members; John Johnson, also being slightly wounded. Hanscome had a hard tussle, but finally restored order. Being no further business the club adjourned.

Huston Hill.

The robbers are back again.

The infant son of C. C. and Mary Connors, died April the 3rd, aged five weeks. The funeral last Thursday was the largest ever attended at the Huston Hill school house, excepting one.

Miss Oral A. Jordan, of Huntley, visited friends on the hill Saturday and Sunday of last week.

Our school closed last Thursday after a very successful term. Owing to the small room she had to teach in, being unusually small. Nevertheless, Myrta was active and earnest in her work and accomplished good results. Her many friends are sorry to see her go away.

ALL SORTS.

Cleanse the liver, purify the blood, invigorate the body by using DeWitt's Little Early Risers. These famous little pills always act promptly. R. C. Dodson. Sly

Howley might comfort himself by the reflection that there is also an eclipse of the sun this year.

H. Clark, Chauncey, Ga., says DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him of piles that had afflicted him for twenty years. It is also a speedy cure for skin diseases. Beware of dangerous counterfeits. R. C. Dodson. Sly

Perhaps it might comfort the Puerto Ricans if they could understand the speeches.

"I think DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills in the world," says W. E. Lake, Happy Creek, Va. They remove all obstructions of the liver and bowels, act quickly and never gripe. R. C. Dodson. Sly

The Pennsylvania Democracy had better install a permanent harmonizing machine. Otto Korb, Grand Chancellor, K. P., Boonville, Ind., says, "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve soothes the most delicate skin and heals the most stubborn ulcer with certain and good results." Cures piles and skin diseases. Don't buy an imitation. R. C. Dodson. Sly

Perhaps Dill might be successfully employed to intervene in the Howley matter.

J. I. Carson, Prothonotary, Washington, Pa., says, "I have found Kodol Dyspepsia Cure an excellent remedy in case of stomach trouble, and have derived great benefit from its use." It digests what you eat and can not fail to cure. R. C. Dodson. Sly

None of the British generals are now checking their baggage for Pretria.

"No family can afford to be without One Minute Cough Cure. It will stop a cough and cure a cold quicker than any other medicine," writes C. W. Williams, Sterling Run, Pa. It cures cough, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles and prevents consumption. Pleasant and harmless. R. C. Dodson. Sly

The spring wedding season will soon be here, regardless of the weather.

W. H. Shipman, Beardsley, Minn., under oath, says he suffered from dyspepsia for twenty-five years. Doctors and dieting gave but little relief. Finally he used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and now eats what he likes and as much as he wants, and he feels like a new man. It digests what you eat. R. C. Dodson. Sly

We might trade some of the surplus off for better weather.

Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.

KENNA, Jackson Co., W. Va. About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen to double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddock insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a similar attack since.—A. B. Hair=Health. Most people are gray—or worse—their hair fades, breaks off, or falls out before it should. This should not be.

HAY'S HAIR-HEALTH is a hair food, nourishing the roots, forcing new growth, restoring freshness and beauty, and positively turning the gray hair back to its youthful color. Not a dye. Does not soil scalp or clothing; is not greasy or sticky; does not rub off. Hay's Hair-Health is a refreshing, fragrant dressing, necessary to a careful toilet. Cannot be detected by your friends. Equally good for men and women. Ask for Hay's Hair-Health and refuse all substitutes. H. H. H. is sold by leading druggists everywhere.
