THE SPRING CHICKEN.

There is no need of special remedies for young and healthy person. The spring chicken has been noted for its unwisdom. If you would have health and keep it, you must be wise and prudent. When you have a symptom, go after it. Prevent its developing. When you are well keep well. The only way you may be by having the best drugs at hand at all times.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Contributions invited. That which you would like to see in this department, let us know by post card, or letter, personally.

W. P. Lloyd returned Wednesday evening from a business trip to Buffalo.

Associate Judge, John McDonald, of Driftwood, was a PRESS visitor on Monday.

Judge Wykoff came up from Gibson on Tuesday and attended the county convention.

C. D. Oysterhout, of Ridgway, Elk Tanning Company's bark inspector, was in town on Monday.

Master Mechanic G. M. Pott went to Lebanon last evening to visit his family for a couple of days.

Harry Moorehouse, of Pittsburg, is visiting N. Seger and family in town, and transacting business.

John Cummerford was down from Elk county yesterday, rejoicing over the arrival of that big boy at his home.

Hon. I. K. Hockley and wife went to Williamsport yesterday to visit their daughter before she starts for England.

Miss Sadie Smith, who has been visiting her home at Portville, N. Y., returned Friday evening, at her sister's Mrs. Seth J. Hackett.

Postmaster Lewis, of Sterling Run, was in Emporium yesterday and paid the PRESS sanctum a visit, accompanied by postmaster Seger.

W. T. McCloskey, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Emporium for several days, returned to Pittsburg Tuesday morning.

Rev. Ebersole, of Sterling Run, who has returned from an extended visit to Canada, was shaking hands with Emporium friends yesterday.

Sol. Ross, of Wharton, who has been suffering from a tumor for some time, underwent a successful operation for its removal last week by Drs. Knight and Ashcraft of this place.—Condorsport Democrat.

Miss Martha Kaye came up from Williamsport last Saturday to spend Sunday with her parents. She was accompanied by her cousin, J. Howard Kaye and Miss Rose Transeau.

J. A. Mutersbaugh, Dr. V. K. Corbet and D. J. Donahue, delegates in attendance at the Republican county convention, last Tuesday, were welcome callers at the PRESS office.

Rev. Johnston preached his first sermon in Austin on Sunday, and was greeted by a large congregation both morning and evening.—Allen Baldwin, of Emporium, was doing business in town Tuesday.—Austin Autograph.

J. L. Johnson and Archie McDonald of Emporium registered at the Horton house yesterday.—Wm. Law of Emporium, a popular engineer of the W. N. Y. & P., was in town between trains on Saturday morning last.—Port Allegany Press.

Miss Alice Wright, of Renovo, is the guest of T. F. More and wife.

County Treasurer, C. M. Thomas, returned yesterday from a business trip to Legonire, Pa.

Stowe Barton appeared up town Tuesday evening and informed his friends that he had returned from that region from whence no traveler returns.

Last Friday, Mrs. B. Coyle received a telegram conveying the sad intelligence that her sister, Mrs. Thos. Whitton, who resided at Phillipsburg, was dead. Mrs. C. immediately departed for Phillipsburg, returning home last evening.

Miss Nellie O'Day has accepted a position as clerk in one of the leading stores in Emporium, where she will remain during the summer months.—Kane Republican. The Republican is in error. Miss O'Day is with J. S. Douglas in Olean, but visited friends here en route to that place.

C. W. Barr, a prominent lumberman of Sterling Run, and Miss Addie Coleman, one of Renovo's most estimable young ladies, were married last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. McCoy, West Fourth street, by Rev. R. H. Colburn.—Tuesday's WilliamSPORT News.

Thos. H. Norris, Supt. of Portland Tannery, arrived in town Tuesday afternoon and remained in town over night, guest of C. C. Fay and wife. His many Emporium friends were glad to meet him and extend congratulations on that wonderful boy. Ye editor was pleased to greet our esteemed friend, whose friendship we highly prize.

M. W. Whiting, of Sterling Run, was in Emporium last Saturday and called to see the PRESS and square himself with the printer. Mr. Whiting is one of our most energetic lumbermen and is a member of the extensive lumber firm of Thomas & Whiting, engaged in business at the present time at Ligonier, Pa. Mr. W. is a native of this county and his friends are pleased to see him prospering.

What Do You Earn?

It's what you save, not what you earn, that makes you rich. Riches amassed in haste will diminish; but these collected by hand and little by little will multiply. Every man or woman can save money if they will, by adopting some systematic method of laying aside each day or week a certain sum—ten cents each working day for five years would amount to $156.50. The loose change which many young men throw away carelessly, or worse, would often form the basis of a fortune and independence. It is by economy that the loaf is multiplied, little becomes much, scattered fragments grows to unity. It is not merely saving. It is the foresight and arrangement to lay aside a certain amount for a fixed purpose.

"No summer but hath his winter. He never reaped comfort in adversity. That sowed it not in prosperity."

Communities which live wholly from hand to mouth never make much progress. Savings mean power. Children should learn early in life the lessons of economy, they can more easily be learned if their savings are for a fixed or definite purpose.

The new Vestry will meet in Mr. Green's office, on Wednesday, April 18, at 3:30 p. m.

Woman Arrested.

Last Tuesday P. & E. Detective Joy came to Emporium and arrested Mrs. Irve Parks, on the charge of stealing goods, while clerking in Koser's store at Renovo. She was given a hearing at Renovo and in default of bail, was committed to jail. "Stub" Swartwood, of this place, who was mixed up in the case, was arrested yesterday on a warrant and held in $200 bail—R. Warner becoming his surety. This morning when the night watchman went to his room to call him, he being employed at Warner House bus driver, it was discovered that he had "skipped."

An Old Relic.

R. P. Bingman, who purchased the side-hill land south of Emporium Furnace, recently found a curiosity, while clearing the land. Deposited in a hollow cherry tree he found an almanac of 1839, evidently placed there for safe keeping. The almanac is covered with linen and stitched with home-spun yarn. The old book was published by a Philadelphia firm. It is quite a curiosity. Who could have placed it there? Will some of our oldest residents give us an idea.

BRIEF MENTION.

Alumni Association will hold a banquet this year.

Prospects for the locating of the Silk Mill in Emporium are very favorable.

Repairs were completed at the furnace last Saturday and work resumed on Monday.

Work has commenced at the coke ovens, there being now about ten or fifteen men employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Morse's infant daughter ELLA E., aged four weeks, died on Tuesday. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon, Rev. Robertson officiating.

Emporium has more genuine measles to the square inch than any other town in the state. No home is in style unless one or more members of the family are having a measly time.

One of H. C. Crawford's houses, at Sizerville, occupied by John Norris, was destroyed by fire last Monday afternoon. No insurance. John Norris had just moved into the house and lost part of his furniture.

A woman's idea of tact, says an exchange, is to kick her husband's feet under the table when they have company and she is afraid he is going to say something. As she does the same thing when she wishes to impress upon him that he is to "say no more about it," the poor cuss is sometimes at a loss to understand the feetographic signals.

In a neighboring town a salvation army advertiser wrote on a billboard "What shall I do to be saved?" A patent medicine man came along the next day and wrote underneath, "Take Carter's Little Liver Pills." Shortly afterward the salvation army man noticed the sacrilegious work of the medicine man and printed below, "And prepare to meet thy God."

An old lady over north recently achieved eminence by carrying a quart of pop corn to a donation party, and eating two plates of oysters, a pound of crackers, three slices of fruit cake, half a mince pie, and some apples, after which she was threatened with a "spasm," and in the effort to prevent it sacrificed all the wine there was in the house. She attends donations regularly and does a great deal for the church in that way.—Genesee Democrat.

Will Have Delightful Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. William Howard, accompanied by Miss Ada Hockley, of Emporium, leave this morning for a summer's trip abroad. They will sail from New York Saturday on the Memnonia for London, where they will remain for a week or more before proceeding to Yorkshire. From there they will visit Scotland, Ireland and points in Belgium, Holland, Germany, France, Switzerland and Italy. They will also attend the Paris exposition. They expect to return home during September.—To-Day's Bulletin.

Easter Souvenirs.

Everybody can have beautiful Easter lilies next Sunday without charge, for the great "Philadelphia Sunday Press" announces that every reader of the Easter number will receive free a splendid picture of Easter lilies. The picture is by a famous artist in ten colors and is 14x40 inches in size. It will not be creased by folding, so that every person who gets next Sunday's "Press" will get a perfect picture fit to adorn any home. And in addition to the picture there will be a finely illustrated booklet containing a remarkable love story—the kind you will sit up all night to read. This will also be free with next Sunday's "Press." Announcement is made that the supply of pictures and books is limited, hence it will be well to send in your order early.

Why Towns Die.

More towns die for the want of confidence on the part of the business men and lack of public spirit than from the rivalry of neighboring towns or adverse surroundings. When a man in search of a home or business location goes to town and finds everything brimful of hope and enthusiasm over the prospects of the place, and everybody at work to build up the town, he soon becomes imbued with the spirit, and as a result he drives down his stake and goes to work with the same interest. When, however, he goes to a town and everybody expresses doubt and apprehension in the future prosperity of the place, moping about and indulging in imaginary evils which are likely to befall the town, he naturally feels that it is no place for him, and at once shakes the dust from his feet, while he pulls with all possible speed for some other town. Consequently, try and make a live, enterprising, progressive town out of the one in which you live. When you are working or saying a good thing for your town you are accomplishing all the more for yourself.—Westmoreland Democrat.
