Cleause the liver, purity the blood, invigorate the body by using DeWitt's Little Early risers. These famous little pills always act promptly. R.C. Dodson. 8ly

How would it do to make the ticket -and--- so as so allow everybody to fill it in to suit?

H. Clark, Chauncey, Ga., says DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him of piles that had afflicted him for twenty years. It is also a speedy cure for skin diseases Beware of dangerous counterfeits. R. C. Dodson.

The middle-of-the-roadcrats had better step to the side when the McKinley train comes along.

"I think DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills in the world," says W. E. Lake, Happy Creek, Va. They remove all obstructions of the liver and bowels, act quickly and never gripe. C. Dodson.

If the Sioux tribe of Pops have their way. Kansas City may need only say "me too."

Otto Korb, Grand Chancellor, K. P. Boonville, Ind., says, "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve sooths the most delicate skin and heals the most stubborn ulcer with certain and good results." Cures piles and skin diseases. Don't buy an immitation. R. C. Dodson.

Bobs is making some great hits, but the Boers are making the runs.

J. I. Carson, Prothonotary, Washington, Pa., says, "I have found Kodol Dyspepsia Cure an excellent remedy in case of stomach trouble, and have derived great benefit from its use." It digests what you cat and can not fail to cure. R. C. Dodson.

The Democratic sideshows are leaving nothing for the main circus.

"No family can afford to be without one Minute Cough Cure. It will stop a cough and cure a cold quicker than any other medicine," writes C. W. Williams, Sterling Run, Pa. It cures croup, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles and prevents consumption. Pleasant and harmless. R. C. Dodson.

Those new shells must be something like greesed lightning.

W. H. Shipman, Beardsley, Minn., under oath, saye he suffered from dyspep-sia for twenty-five years. Doctors and dieting gave but little relief. Finally he used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and now eats what he likes and as much as he wants, and he feels like a new man. It digests what you eat. R. C. Dodson. Sly

WOMAN

IS LIKE A DELICATE MUSICAL INSTRUMENT

In good condition she is sweet and lovable, and sings life's song on a Joyful harmonious string. Out of order or unstrung, there is discordance and unhappiness. Just as there is one key note to all music so there is one key note to health. A woman might as well try to fly without wings as to feel well and look well while the organs that make her a woman are weak or diseased. She must be healthy inside or she can't be healthy outside. There are thousands of women suffering silently all inside or she can't be healthy outside. There are thousands of women suffering silently all over the country. Mistaken modesty urges their silence. While there is nothing more admirable than a modest woman, health is of the first importance. Every other consideration should give way before it. WHEN HE HAD TO LEAVE THE ROAD.

I'm no longer in the service, Said the ex-active railroad man, They have put me out of practice Upon the pension plan. They took me on at twenty-five They ask me to get out. Of course. I'll have enough to eat, Perhaps I'll have a pass, And as they can't discharge me now, They'll have to take my "sass."
I'm going to try to live at least
Three score and ten more years,
The pension until I'm deceased, Is due me it appears. We're only good for forty years Of service on the road. But if I don't live forty more On pensions I'll be snowed. The man who works the limit through For forty years and still, Without a wooden peg or two, Can walk, is hard to kill. I'll call upon the agent too, At frequent intermissions

Just when he's feeling awful blue About his lost commissions. I'll tell him not to mourn and weep, Or try to pull his hair, For all his tears he ought to keep, And his head's already bare. He'll get commissioned soon to join The pensioner's brigade,
And have to take his meager coin
Like me, I am afraid.
For they'll be selling tickets,

With a common slot machine, And he'll listen to the crickets, With the things that once have been.

Young Men in Politics.

A young man entering upon political work can make his individual effort of much avail. As a rule he must be willing to enter the ranks as a private. Here as elsewhere, it is difficult to enlist as an officer of the line. This fact deters many from entering into politics. But working in the ranks there are many things which he can do, and should be willing to do, if he feels that the success of his party will be for the public good. It is the detail work which is of value. To talk for party, or brag for party, or bet for party, does not take the place of work for the party, says N. C. Sears in the Saturday Evening Post.

There are many ways in which this detail work can be done. The young man can see that his friends and neighbors do not forget to register. Together with a few others he can divide up the territory of his precinct and thus perform this task systematically and thoroughly. During the campaign he can see that meetings are arranged wherever most needed in his ward. The general committee are likely to overlook the needs of particular localities unless their attention is called to them.

He can, with his friends, arrange the details of such meetings, obtain good speakers for them, through the general committee, and see that meetings are held throughout his district. He can aid in preventing fraudulent practices at his polling place. If he be of capacity as a public speaker, he can readily obtain opportunity to speak at such meetings in his own locality and elsewhere. But the detail work is more important than oratory.

Just as soon as he has demonstrated by detail work that he is in earnest and willing to do other and less attractive things than mere public speaking, his work and influence will be recognized by his party. As his labor becomes more apparent in results his influence within his party will grow and he will be able, with the co-opera-tion of others of his kind, to keep out of the transactions of his party within his district anything which savors of dishonesty or demagogism. In other words he can largely help to make the polities of his district so clean and reputable that no man could feel that he was likely to be contaminated or degraded by participating in the rights and duties of his citizenship.

He Thrashed His Rival.

The Cross Fork News describes the parting of a couple in that neighborhood s follows:

A rather pleasing and interesting episode transpired on Tuesday morning at Abbott and was enjoyed by all the passengers and crew of the early train. A man and his wife boarded the train X at McCoys, the wife paid her fare to the Junction and when the conductor came up to the husband he asked what the fare to the next station-Abbottwas. He handed over the stated amount and remarked that he was going up there to lick a fellow who was going to run away with his wife and stepped into the baggage car to divest * himself of his outside shirt and fix himself for the job of licking his rival. In the meantime the news was thoroughly circulated to passengers and train crew * so that ere they reached Abbott all were ready to see the meeting of the two antagonists. When the train stoped, sure enough, on the platform with grip in hand stood the rival. No soonhad the train stopped than off to the platform flew the husband and dashed at the man with the grip, striking out light and left and then elinching him floored his rival and commenced punching him until he yelled for help through more fear than hurt. The crowd then interfered and the rival arose and
