Some "broken" lots have had their prices reduced severely of late. It may be well to explain that "broken" lots in shoe parlance means that original assortments are not in tact. Broken lots at broken prices—that is it. Those of which we speak are Men's and Women's shoes. Be prompt if you would have the choicest picking. A chance to save.

$4.00 shoes at $3.00 and less; $3.50 shoes at $2.50 and less; $3.00 shoes at $2.00 and less; $2.50 shoes at $1.50 and less; $2.00 shoes at $1.25 and less.

UNDERWEAR.

A great opportunity for frugal women to replenish their wardrobes with underwear is presented here just now. We snapped up a few lots of underwear lately and offer them at less than regular.

BENJAMIN W. GREEN, ESQ.

REPUBLICAN DELEGATE-AT-LARGE TO THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The Republicans of Cameron county have been highly honored by the Republican State Convention, by naming our distinguished townsman, Mr. B. W. Green, as one of the Delegates-at-Large to the National Convention to meet in Philadelphia next Tuesday to place in nomination a ticket that will represent the sentiment of a majority of the American people and receive their ballots in November next. Pennsylvania will have eight Delegates-at-Large consisting of M. S. Quay, James Elverson, Chas. A. Porter, Jno. B. Steel, Frank Reeder, William Connell, B. W. Green and John Leisenring.

B. W. Green was born near Mansfield, Tioga county, Pa., and passed his early days upon a farm. In the first year of the organization of the Mansfield Normal School he entered that institution and under the instruction of Prof. F. A. Allen graduated in 1868, after a three years' course. For a period of one year after graduating he taught in the schools of Tioga county, coming to Emporium in 1869, (where he attained his majority and cast his first vote), to accept the principalship of the Emporium schools, which position he acceptably filled for a term of two years. At this time, 1871 and 1872, he was appointed acting Sheriff of Cameron county and entered the law office of Hon. J. C. Johnson, as a student. Nov. 1872 he was admitted to the bar of this county, being the first student admitted to the courts of Cameron. He at once actively engaged in the practice of his chosen profession, forming, in 1874, a partnership with the late J. B. Newton, under the firm name of Newton & Green and continued a member of said firm until the death of Mr. Newton. Mr. Green is at present the senior member of the law firm of Green & Shaffer and enjoys a wide acquaintance and large practice in the courts of this and adjoining counties, also in the U. S. Courts of the state. He is solicitor for a number of important institutions, corporations and manufacturing concerns. In addition to being Sheriff of this county he has been elected Chairman of the Republican County Committee several terms; was delegate to Republican State Convention both times when Gen. James A. Beaver was nominated for Governor, in 1882 and 1886; was elected County Treasurer in 1886 for a term of three years, by the second largest majority ever given to any candidate in this county; was elected Delegate to the Constitutional Convention in 1871, to represent the counties of Cameron, Forest, Elk and Clarion. In 1888 he was the choice of this county for President Judge, but gave way to the sentiment in favor of the unanimous election of Judge Mayer. Mr. Green is a cordial supporter of President McKinley's policy and as Chairman of the Republican County Committee will make an energetic canvass of this county. As a Republican Mr. Green has always been allied with the regular organization since his majority and, with one or two exceptions in county matters, always stood by the nominations of his party. He is honorable in his dealings with men, a good citizen and a true friend to his friends.

CAPT. CHARLES F. BARCLAY.

ALTERNATE DELEGATE-AT-LARGE TO THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION, JUNE 1900.

For the first time in the history of Cameron county has our little county been accorded recognition at the hands of the Republicans of Pennsylvania. At the Republican State Convention held in the city of Harrisburg, April 15th, 1900, the resolution or recommendation of the Congressional Convention of this district was unanimously accepted and the subject of this article elected as one of the alternate delegates-at-large to meet in Philadelphia next Tuesday, to place in nomination that gallant soldier and spotless statesman, Hon. William McKinley, for President of the Greater United States, and an equally as prominent a citizen for Vice-President. This is an honor seldom accorded to a citizen walking in the humble walks of life and all who are called by the greatest and grandest party of centuries should and do appreciate the honor.

While the readers of the Press, and all citizens generally, are intimately acquainted with Mr. Barclay, yet they, as well as ourselves have known little of the antecedents of this busy gentleman. We have taken some time and gathered a few facts that, at some future time, may aid in the history of our county.

CAPT. CHARLES F. BARCLAY is a lineal descendant of King James I, of England. The Barclay family is one of the oldest and best known in America and has intermarried with the Livingstons, Robinsons, Stuyvesants, Schuylers and many old New York houses—plain American citizens who have in their veins the blood of William the Conqueror, which is more than Queen Victoria can say, for she has not a drop of English blood in her veins. John Barclay came to America in 1731, as Governor of East Jersey, and settled at Perth Amboy. On his mother's side he traces his ancestry to the Alens of Massachusetts and Connecticut. His maternal grandfather was Ebenezer Allen, of West Woodstock, Conn., who moved to Owego, N. Y., in 1806, and served as a soldier and officer in the Revolutionary war. Here the eldest daughter married George A. Barclay, the father of our honored citizen. Mrs. Barclay died Nov. 22, 1884, although her husband yet survives but in feeble health. George A. Barclay settled in the wilds of Potter county in 1845, when Chas. F. Barclay was only one year old, and moved to Cameron county in 1865 with his family and actively engaged in lumbering. Mr. Barclay, Sr., while an active and energetic business man, took a deep interest in public affairs and served in a great many positions of importance. He served two terms in the legislature from this county, in the years of 1884-'85-'86 and '87. Capt. Barclay enlisted as a private in the 149th Pa., 2nd Bucktails; received commission as 2d Lieut. on the battle field of Chancellorsville. At battle of Gettysburg, when the First Corps was surrounded, he was captured and passed near eighteen months in Southern prisons—Libby, Charleston, Macon, Ga., Savannah, Danville, S. C., and Columbia. He was exchanged at Charleston Harbor, Dec. 17th, 1864; was promoted to First Lieut. while in prison and to Capt. in 1865. While in the prison pens of the South Hon. J. C. Johnson, his Capt. when captured, served with him and shared in his sufferings.

After the close of the war Mr. Barclay entered Michigan University Law Department, but gave up the profession of law and entered the general merchandise and lumber business, with his brother Geo. B. Barclay, at Sinnamahoning, this county. Here they have organized one of the largest lumbering plants in the state, employing many hundreds of men. Mr. Barclay served as Presidential elector in 1892. His eminent fitness to fill the most exalted position within the gift of the people is undisputed. The writer hereof regrets that he has cast his lot, politically speaking, in opposition to the regular party organization, thereby standing in the way of political advancement. His bitterest factional opponents concede his distinguished fitness and all agree that his Republicanism upon National issues are of the most stalwart type. We hope the time may soon come when factionalism in Pennsylvania, as well as Cameron county, will be a thing of the past; when men will not be ostracized on account of their honest convictions upon party questions; when Indian warfare shall cease and the grand old party unitedly meet and defeat the enemy. When that time does come then our little county can reward the patriots, advance the faithful and elevate to a higher plane such men as Capt. C. F. Barclay and many others. God grant that that day may soon dawn.

THE MACCABEES.

THE FOLLOWING, COPIED FROM THE PITTSBURGH CATHOLIC MAY BE OF INTEREST TO SOME OF OUR READERS:

"From information received by the Catholic, we have every reason to believe that an item recently circulated in the Catholic press is incorrect. The item purported to be a condemnation of the Order of the Maccabees, and was conveyed by letter by Mgr. Martelli, the Apostolic Delegate, to the Bishop of Indianapolis. Its publication caused much comment, as many of our excellent people are members of the Maccabees."—Pittsburgh Catholic.

Our local authorities would do well to learn something about this order, as well as study a little of their Church matters before they condemn an organization they know nothing about. Those critics who parade their religion on the lapel of their coats, as a general thing, are poor Christians and void of all charity. No member of the Catholic Church need be intimidated from joining this order, by such authority.

Prof. Stauffer.

Our citizens, as well as the friends of education throughout the state, will be pained to learn that Prof. H. F. Stauffer, who has for ten years so efficiently served as Principal of our Borough schools may leave us to accept the position of City Supt. of Millville, N. J., a town of 13,000 population and fifty schools. Mr. Stauffer has been notified that he has been elected by the Board of Education.

During Prof. Stauffer's residence in Emporium our schools have advanced until they rank with the best in the state and their efficiency has been the envy of many towns in this section. While we do not blame the Prof. for desiring advancement in his chosen profession, we feel keenly his decision to leave us. Our friends down in Jersey will find this gentleman a valuable citizen, a close student and untiring worker in the cause of education and an honor to their town. We feel sure that the people of this entire county, who are warmly attached to Mr. Stauffer, will wish both him and his family success and happiness in their new home.

Evidently a Canard.

An item similar to the following has been going the rounds of the press of this section: "Ray White, who up to a few months ago, was employed in the office of the Emporium Press, was killed at Portland, Oregon a few days ago, by falling through an elevated sidewalk."

Mr. White had many friends in Austin who were much surprised to hear of his death. While a resident of Emporium he was very attentive to one of Austin's young ladies.—Austin Republican." How the story started is a mystery. The Press has no information of Mr. White's death, not even his injury. Should such have occurred we certainly would have been apprised.

The Spinsters' Convention.

The much-talked-of Spinsters' Convention assembled at the opera house, Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the ladies of Emmanuel Church. The proceedings throughout were interesting and pointed and elicited much applause. The ladies made such a success of this venture that in the near future we may expect the young (?) ladies to make another appearance in connection with the "buds." The makeoverscope, manipulated by Mr. A. D. Gould, of Eldred, was laughable and a great invention. The entertainment no doubt netted a handsome sum.

Deserts the Ship.

The Port Allegany Reporter, for many years a hard shelled organ of Democracy has deserted the Bryan crowd. In his last issue Brother Layman very pointedly states his views: "The action of the Democratic convention in New York this week makes the nomination of Wm. J. Bryan as the standard bearer of that party, practically certain at the National Convention in Kansas City, July 5th. Imbued with certain, well defined principles I have been an earnest worker and co-operator in that party since reaching my majority. To these principles the narrow platform and creed of W. J. Bryan are antagonistic. I am not so vain or egotistic as to believe that my action in this or any other matter will make the least difference to Wm. J. Bryan or the Democratic party, but I simply will not use the paper in the encouragement of an idea that I believe to be wrong, radically so at this time, and especially antagonistic to the present, conceded prosperity of the nation. No class of business men or artisans in Pennsylvania has reason to find fault with the existing business conditions throughout the state, and it seems to me that the advocacy of an untried principle in matters of such importance to the business welfare of the state and its citizens, cannot and should not be well received, hence my determination to avoid it."

LLOYD'S LONG RANGE FORECAST OF THE WEATHER AND EASTMAN'S KODAK.

BOOMING.

Spring trade is booming, notwithstanding the general complaint of dealers about the weather, forest fires and dull trade. We are up to date, away ahead of any previous season. Why? Clear-sighted men and women have discovered where they can get best and the most for their money in wall paper; in gloss white enamel paint, that will not turn yellow on exposure; in curtains that go up and down; in bicycles that will run ahead of anything on the road; in fishing tackle that catches the trout; in books and stationery that will interest you; in the news counter that has all the news that was, is and will be; and a good cigar that will smoke as free as the smoke in the forests. That's why the people are flocking here as never before.

HARRY S. LLOYD.
