Death of a Bright Little Girl.

Sunday evening the sad news was passed around that Clara May, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. McCool, had died at 3:40 o'clock at the home of her parents on Driftwood avenue, after but three days illness, of membranous croup. She was aged 4 years, 4 months and 10 days. Expressions of sympathy were heard from everyone. Clara was a bright little girl and a great favorite of the writer as well as of all who knew her. She had a premonition of her death and many times during the past few months to her parents she was "going up where God is." Everything that medical aid, loving hearts and willing hands could do was done to stay the hand of death, but all in vain and she was called to join the heavenly host with the parting words "I'm going away." The parents have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock from St. James' Church. Interment was made in the family burial plot in Oak Hill cemetery.—Driftwood Gazette. The Press extends its sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. McCool and family and deeply regret their misfortune. We know our citizens will join us in these expressions.

It is Shameful.

It is with regret and burning shame that we find it necessary to record the fiendish action of some people who frequent the Newton cemetery during the summer evenings, and commit the most degrading depredations. Aside from robbing graves of floral tributes, placed there by sorrowing friends, these night prowlers trample over the graves of those who are dear in the memory of surviving friends, and of all spots that should be regarded sacred, even by the lowest and most depraved character, is the silent domicile of our departed loved ones. It is not conjectured that these same ramblers of the night hie themselves to this lonely locality for immoral purposes, for the lateness of the hour bears testimony against them as well as the company they keep. There surely ought to be something done to stop this sort of business.

It is also noticed that the gates are allowed to swing open and cows, unlawfully running at large, have completely disfigured mounds that were, on decoration day, in a beautiful condition. The trespass law ought to be stringently enforced.

Sad News.

Many hearts were made sad in Emporium when word was received and circulated of the death of Mrs. Lorena McCloskey Bates, wife of Rev. C. L. Bates, formerly Rector of Emmanuel Church at this place, and highly honored, at her late home in Wilkensburg, Pa., Sunday evening. Deceased leaves a husband and three children, the youngest two weeks old. Mrs. Bates was loved and esteemed by all in this place where she was universally known, and especially will she be mourned by those of our young people who employed her as music teacher while she resided here with her parents. She was a lady of kind, loving and unassuming nature, and as a music instructor and performer she was a decided success. This entire community feels keenly her demise, and we are sure will join us in sincerest expressions of sympathy to the sorely afflicted family and friends of this noble lady. The remains were taken to Titusville for interment, on Wednesday.

Tuesday's Pittsburg Post says in its column of deaths: "On Sunday evening, June 17, 1900, Lorena May McCloskey, beloved wife of Rev. Carroll L. Bates, rector of St. Stephen's Church, Wilkensburg. Services will be held at St. Stephen's Church, corner of Franklin avenue and Pitt street, Wilkensburg, on Wednesday, June 20, at 10 a. m. Interment at Titusville, Pa., on arrival of train leaving Pittsburg at 1:40 p. m.

Already the newspapers are warning parents against allowing children to use toy pistols. The percussion caps used are charged with fulminate of mercury, causing blood poisoning and producing lock jaw. There were hundreds of deaths after last Fourth of July from this cause. Keep the toy pistols away. They are more dangerous than any other kind of explosives.

The employes in all the departments of the railroad shops are rushed with work. Renovo never had a more prosperous summer for the working classes.—Renovo Record. That is a very good argument why the editor of the Record, as well as those having the welfare of the laboring and industrial classes at heart, should see that the good prosperous times be continued by electing Wm. McKinley and Republican prosperity will be guaranteed.

The Buffalo Evening News, Tuesday, gives account of a confession by the pastor of the church, connected with the murder of the two young ladies, in California, for which Durrant, superintendent of the Sunday School, was hanged, and who, it will be remembered, protested his innocence to the last. This preacher, who was the chief witness against Durrant, confessed on his deathbed, the other day, to have himself killed the young ladies. Circumstantial evidence will, no doubt, hang a man, but it often hangs the wrong man, as in this case.

Wedding Bells.

On Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Lyon, one of the most prosperous farmers of West Creek, Mr. Owen C. Dininny and Miss Fannie Lyon were united in marriage at three o'clock. Rev. O. S. Metzler, of M. E. church performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. E. E. Mulliner, in the presence of not only the near relatives but a host of friends.

The room in which the ceremony took place was beautifully decorated. The couple were supported by Mr. Claude Lyon, brother of the bride and Miss Annie Dininny, sister of the groom. The wedding march was played by Miss Mabel Mulliner. After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding supper was served, after which the young couple departed on 6:30 train for Kane and other points of interest. The young couple have a host of friends and acquaintances who wish them much happiness.

Prof. Joseph Berris, who is with The Great Rhoda Royal Shows this season, is unquestionably the greatest of horse trainers of the present day. This fact is clearly demonstrated by his exhibiting no less than sixty-three horses at the same time, governing them simply by verbal commands. This immense group of horses are put through a startling series of drills, marches, change of gaits, postures, and in conclusion of their acts presenting a living pyramid of horses four tiers high. There are a number of exhibitors of trained horses who have tried to duplicate this remarkable feat of Prof. Berris, but without success. He stands alone in his almost super-human control over man's best friend—the horse. At Emporium, June 22.

LLOYD'S LONG RANGE FORECAST OF THE WEATHER AND EASTMAN'S KODAK.

BOOMING.

Spring trade is booming, notwithstanding the general complaint of dealers about the weather, forest fires and dull trade. We are up to date, away ahead of any previous season. Why? Clear-sighted men and women have discovered where they can get best and the most for their money in wall paper; in gloss white enamel paint, that will not turn yellow on exposure; in curtains that go up and down; in bicycles that will run ahead of anything on the road; in fishing tackle that catches the trout; in books and stationery that will interest you; in the news counter that has all the news that was, is and will be; and a good cigar that will smoke as free as the smoke in the forests. That's why the people are flocking here as never before.

HARRY S. LLOYD.
