Notes and News.

Several weddings are on the wing in Emporium and some of our young people will soon be soaring high in matrimonial bliss. Cupid keeps his eye on Emporium and is making every arrow count.

A school teacher in a nearby town, says an exchange, recently asked his pupils the definition of the word dry-dock. Imagine his surprise when one of the youngsters answered: "It is a doctor going after a drink."

Rhoda Royal, who has won the reputation the world over as the most perfect horse trainer and educator of horses, is with The Great Rhoda Royal Shows, and with him his famous school of educated equines. Mr. Royal does not believe so much in training horses as in educating them. That his methods are far superior to those adopted by others is made evident by the degree of perfection his horses have obtained. As a gentleman who recently witnessed this school said: "They can do everything but talk." Emporium, June 22.

The last Sunday's Inquirer gave a historic account of the lives and murder of Mrs. Goodwin, in Tioga county, and Mrs. Guy T. Hale, in the State of Washington. The Inquirer states that the past four years of the lives of these two ladies, who were cousins, and the terrible death they met, was in fulfillment of the predictions of a Gypsy fortune teller who revealed the future of these young ladies under protest, but whether or not there is anything in the lines of the hands describing one's future that foreseeing came true in detail.

County Commissioners who hereafter refuse to appoint detectives to ferret out men who set fire to timber lands, will be proceeded against by Forestry Commissioner Rothrock, the Attorney-General having decided that he shall secure evidence of such refusal and through the District Attorney present it to the grand jury. After that it will be a very easy matter to inflict the stiff fine provided by the forestry law. Mr. Rothrock is going about this matter in the right way. If the County Commissioners refuse to do their share, they should be hauled before the Court.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

A subscriber, who probably attained his education "in a log school house" and whose intellect has suddenly become broadened and whose heart is set on the welfare of his boys, writes: "mr edeter i wish U wood stop mi paper mi boiz jist graddeated and there teacher advised them to knot reed eny kind or litterter but the best and wee i and mam havin bin well edekated naterrall want our boiz 2 b i supoze U do the best U kan owin 2 the chans U had but wee i and mam kant aford 2 hav our boiz spoilt whil th ar yung bi reedin ungramatkle and mispel sentenses."

Prof. Stauffer's Promotion.
Prof. H. F. Stauffer, who has acceptably filled the office of supervisory principal of the Emporium schools for the past ten years and who has built them up to the rank of the best in the state, has resigned his position to accept the city superintendency of the schools of Millville, New Jersey.

Mr. Stauffer secured the position on true merit as the school controllers examined into the fitness of over forty candidates before making the choice. We feel sorry that such a strong man should leave this section and we condole with the people of Emporium on their loss.

Prof. Stauffer will have 50 teachers under his charge and will enjoy a good salary, of which he is entirely worthy. We expect to hear of his promotion to still higher positions in years to come, as he is not only a fine scholar and a great school man, but better yet, a great student.—Elk Gazette.

Popular Musicians.

Mrs. Nellie M. Gould, pupil of Dr. Louis Mass, Boston, Metropolitan College of Music, N. Y., Fraulein Fernow, Hermann Schultz, Dresden, will appear at the musical next Tuesday afternoon and evening at the studio of Miss May Gould.

Great Races at St. Marys.
Attention is directed to the broad-gauge advertisement in this issue of the coming horse races at St. Marys on July 3 to 6 inclusive. The purses offered the winners aggregate the handsome sum of $4,800, and will certainly bring some very speedy horses to Elk county. An immense crowd is anticipated and big preparations are being made by the people to entertain everybody royally.
