Emporium Liars Club.

The Emporium Liars Club held a special meeting on Monday evening to make arrangements for the big Fourth of July celebration. Also to transact some other very important business.

It was reported that one of our old members, who had become somewhat offended at the secretary's report of our last meeting, which was published a few weeks since, came to town with his war paint on, inquiring of certain individuals who reported the meeting and said he would like to know who this scribe was. From his talk it was evident that something sour and very heavy lay on his stomach.

The application of Wm. McVane was read and accepted and that gentleman was initiated and will no doubt make a good member.

Wm. Dalrymple asked the club for a leave of absence, as he was going to attend the Denocratic National Convention at Kansas City, July 4, which was granted. Dalrymple said there was some talk of him being put up for second place with Bryan. He has just received a car load of Democratic literature and is able to meet all comers with a strong argu-

Wm. Snyder has been somewhat cross-grained since he lost his dog and it will not be well for the parties who borrowed this canine if he finds out who they are. On Monday evening Mr. Snyder notified detective Sweesy of the mysterious disappearance of the dog and the last seen of Sweesy he was on a trail and passed over the hill at the old stone quarry.

Sinnemahoning Liars Club.

The liars club held a meeting in Pap Blodgett's shop, it being the only place that could be secured, as Beldin's hen house is alive with vermin, which was plainly evident at our last meeting, when Pap Berfield, who was scated on a hen's nest arose and said he thought the club had better look for another place to meet as this place is alive with lice. Beldin then jumped up and said that must be a mistake as that was something unusual for his chickens to have lice and he thought it must be mosquitoes which are very bad there sometimes, for his chick-ens were free from lice. Beldin present-ed a bill for damages to his chicken roost which was broken at our last meeting. The hat was passed and seven cents was raised towards meeting the expenses.

Initiations were next in order and Frank Fisher was introduced and received the first degree, but refused the other three, his blood not being in shape to stand the racket.

It was decided to purchase a piece of ground and erect a suitable building to hold meetings in. The secretary is receving applications daily from Williams-port, Benezette, Driftwood and near by towns and if our membership increases as fast in the year to come as it has in the year past it will require a building as large as the National Capitol to hold us. and a train of twenty-five leaded cars daily to haul refreshments. The secretary reports sufficient money on hand to duplicate the Capitol building and a little left.

When Harve Smith returns from the hospital he will be loaded for a bear and hot time is expected.

Joe Summerson tramped on Tom Snyder's toes and a general row was the result. Hansome took down the rail-road for North Bend, Geo. Shafer went through the side window and tramped down the most of Pap Blodget's potatoes, his feet being so large that he was unable to turn around. Pap Blodget put his hand under his shoe bench and Joe Strayer sat and smiled (?).

The following letter was received from the Williamsport hospital:

If Otto McCoy can not keep from breaking up the furniture in the chicken coop's ould be fined. Norman Johnson and John Logue laid themselves liable to a heavy fine when they frightened away that applicant. Joe Summerson should not be allowed to use paint in his old days and if Joe Strayer refuses brother Hanscom's invitation to have something again, he should be suspended.

Our club held its meeting here the other evening and some good ones were sprung. Wm. Shaw held the chair.

The meeting closed very quietly and the members turned in to dream of home and the empty flour barrel.
