As Others See Them.

Miss Mary Robinson, of this place, and Mr. Elmer Burlingame, recent graduates of West Chester Normal School, have both secured lucrative positions—the former in Delaware county and the latter principal of the Austin schools. The West Chester Local News, while speaking of the numerous graduates has this to say of our young friends:

MARY ROBINSON.

One of the favorite reciters of the Moore society is Miss Mary Robinson, who has on several occasions taken prominent parts in the public meetings. She hopes in time to specialize in primary work and expression. With the experience gained from ten years of teaching in the schools of Shippen township and Emporium, Cameron county, she will be able to take up schoolroom duties readily. Miss Robinson is a graduate of the high school of her home, Emporium, where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Robinson reside.

ELMER BURLINGAME.

Elmer Burlingame, is from Sizerville, Cameron county. He is a son of Delos Burlingame, a retired farmer and is related to Anson Burlingame, at one time Ambassador to China. Another relative, Edgar Burlingame, has held an editorial position on the staff of the well known "Scribners" Magazine. The young man will ultimately enter some other occupation, but at present will probably teach. He has already had three years experience as teacher at "Forest House," Potter county. He attended the High School at Olean, New York and took the Junior year at Lock Haven State Normal School. While here an Aryan by choice and conviction and in the realm of study delights most in the languages.

Pro Bono Publico.

Now that the hot season is upon us, it is well to remind the public of the necessity to be especially vigilant in the prevention of sickness. There is a penalty of $100 for throwing house refuse, garbage, dead animals, etc., on any street or alley or in any ditch or public place, or for keeping decaying animal or vegetable matter in any yard or cellar for more than twenty-four hours. I would respectfully urge all persons to co-operate with the Board of Health in its efforts to maintain a high standard of cleanliness and health in the borough.

Use plenty of lime in all low, damp places, and about privy vaults, &c.

If nuisances are known to exist report the same to the Secretary of the Board in writing upon a blank for that purpose, which can be procured from the secretary.

ALERA W. BAKER,
Health officer.

A Girl's College Education.

A graduate of Cornell University will tell in a carefully detailed article in the August Ladies' Home Journal, "How a Girl Can Work Her Way Through College." There are almost innumerable methods by which a girl can pay for her education while she is studying. Colleges and universities make most generous provisions for young women and young men who are without money, but who have brains and energy. So no apt, worthy girl need be without a college education if she wants one and is determined to have it. This article will tell how it is to be obtained through personal effort.

A Vote Catcher.

In this week's Press, on pages 6 and 7, will be found the full and complete proceedings of the Republican National Convention, the greatest political gathering in the history of this country. The ticket is a strong one and will sweep the country.

Special Examination.

There will be a Special Examination for teachers at Emporium, June 30th.

MATTIE M. COLLINS,
County Supt.

A Brilliant Social Event.

The longest day in the year was brought to a brilliant close last Thursday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Howard, entertained upwards of two hundred guests at their spacious home on West Fourth street, in honor of the fourteenth anniversary of their marriage. The entire lower floor of the house, which was elaborately and handsomely decorated for the occasion, with palms, potted plants and summer blossoms, was thrown open to the guests. The mantels were richly banked with ferns and flowers, while bunches of long stemmed roses nodding from tall vases were scattered carelessly about the rooms. In the dining room the decorations were especially artistic and effective. Here the color scheme was green and white. Broad streamers of green ribbon, upon which were caught long stemmed white roses, extended from the chandelier over the centre of the table to its four corners and were here held in place by bunches of white roses and loops of ribbon. White roses with their green foliage were scattered over the table. The candelabra shades were of delicate green and the mantle was banked in green and white foliage and flowers. The verandah which were also decorated and illuminated, were cleverly arranged for smoking rooms, punch rooms and cosy corners. Upon the lawn a platform forty feet square was erected for dancing. This was gaily trimmed with lanterns, flags and bunting, while a tall screen of laurel, with the shining leaves hid the dancers from the public street. Chappell orchestra of Williamsport, furnished the music for dancing and also rendered a number of fine selections in the house during the reception hour.

Liedlein of Williamsport, furnished the supper.

The reception which was general and included the older element in society as well as the rose buds, was easily the most elaborate and complete social entertainment ever given in Emporium.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard are ideal entertainers and left nothing undone which could add to the comfort and pleasure of their guests. They were assisted in receiving by Miss Mingle, of New York City, Mrs. Geo. Goshorn, of Charleston, W. Va., Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Jaggard, of Williamsport and Mr. and Mrs. Ross W. Barrows, of Lock Haven.

The guests from out of town were: Miss Mingle, New York City; Mrs. George Goshorn and Master John Hoffman Goshorn, Charleston, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Jaggard, Williamsport; Mr. and Mrs. Ross W. Barrows, Lock Haven; Miss Collins, Mrs. V. K. Corbett, Driftwood; Mrs. Busler, Hughesville; Dr. and Mrs. DeLong, Emporia, Florida.

The St. Mary's Races.

Mr. William Kaul, secretary of the Erie Trotting Circuit, informs us that the largest field of horses in the history of the races as far as pertains to this end of the circuit, will be that of the forthcoming four days, July 3, 4, 5 and 6, and it is the intention of the association that there shall be nothing lacking in the way of interest and amusement on the dates named. The St. Marys track is one of, if not the best, in the circuit, and is being further improved in various ways. Keep these dates in reserve for the approaching holidays.—Elk Democrat.

Off as Usual.

Hon. L. Taggart is at his old tricks again and in his eagerness to assist in party wrecking rushes into print to defend Hon. L. Emery, Jr., of California, recently declared a candidate by several self-appointed delegates to a conference, in last week's Independent and this week's Press attempts to defend Mr. Emery, who is charged with the extending of the Congressional contest of Oct. 1886 up to within four days of election. The Congressional Convention of that year met at Emporium first on the 7th, of Oct. 1886, with C. B. Gould, C. F. Barclay and J. P. McNamey as delegates for Judge Cochran. Several ballots were taken, each county voting for its own candidate as a compliment, it being well understood that this county as well as Judge Cochran, was in favor of the nomination of Hon. H. C. McCormick. The convention adjourned immediately after the complimentary ballots to meet at Bradford, when, if our memory is correct, Mr. Taggart took Mr. Barclay's place. From this time on until the close of the contest the fight was between McCormick, Judge Wilson and Emery—Mr. McCormick leading all other candidates. The bitter contest waged by Senator Emery came near costing us the district. At Wellsboro, on Oct. 27th within four or five days of election Judge Wilson threw his votes to McCormick and gave that gentleman the nomination, with the assistance of one vote from Sullivan, 13 votes. Mr. Emery held, in an iron grip, the three McKean and two Sullivan delegates to the last.

The assertion that Mr. Emery offered to throw his delegates to Judge Cochran, who was not a candidate, in his anxiety to defeat the nomination of Clay McCormick, was a trick resorted to but did not catch any suckers. Mr. Taggart after he entered the conference voted with McCormick's side until the close of the conference. The inside history of that contest is too well known to others and we do not care to lay bare the dealings of a plot to defeat Mr. McCormick and nearly cost the Republican party a Congressman.

The people of the 27th district know better than Mr. Taggart dare tell where Mr. Emery has stood politically. His efforts to defeat the regular nominee of the Republican party will avail nothing. Jos. C. Sibley, the eloquent defender of President McKinley's policy upon the floor of Congress, will represent this district with honor during the next two years.

Popular Society Treat.

The Musicales given by the ladies of Emmanuel Church last Tuesday afternoon and evening at Miss May Gould's Studio, on Sixth street, was largely attended by our citizens at both sessions—about two hundred being present during the evening. It was voted the grandest musical treat ever given in Emporium, we are informed by those in attendance. The entertainment netted the church fund a neat sum. The Pastors of all churches were present, as well as their members and all express themselves delighted with the music furnished by the Buffalo Chamber Music Club, composed of Mrs. Nellie M. Gould, pianist; Mr. Jos. A. Ball, violinist; Mr. Richard Fricke, 'cello; assisted by Miss Agnes McCoy, of Smethport, soprano.

The trio composed of Mrs. Gould, Mr. Ball, and Mr. Fricke is recognized everywhere as one of the best combinations now before the public. Their ensemble work is faultless—the three playing as one. They are all admirably equipped technically and their interpretations are always artistic.

Mr. Fricke's 'cello solos were rendered with all the skill of an artist possessing a musicianly soul, refined taste and musical intelligence.

Mr. Ball's violin solos showed his splendid technique and great depth of feeling and true conception of each composer.

Miss Agnes McCoy, of Smethport, one of the most popular singers in this section of the state, added greatly to the success of the entertainment. Her sweet and cultured voice and pleasant address captured the large audience.

Our citizens who attended the musicales will heartily endorse the following from Rev. Mr. Robertson:

"There was but one verdict respecting the quality of the performances of the Buffalo Chamber Music Club at their musicales at Miss Gould's on Tuesday evening, and that was that no better music has ever been heard in Emporium."—J. M. Robertson, Rector of Emmanuel Church.

An artistic success. Can exert critical comparison with any similar company of players in the country. It simply left nothing to be desired. I was delighted.—O. S. Metzer, Pastor First Methodist Episcopal Church, Emporium, Pa., June 26.

This is nice weather to have your picture taken. Take advantage of it.

You can carry it in your hands, on your shoulder, in your pocket or on your bicycle. You press the button and the Kodak will do the rest.

LLOYD'S LONG RANGE FORECAST OF THE WEATHER AND EASTMAN'S KODAK.

BOOMING.

Spring trade is booming, notwithstanding the general complaint of dealers about the weather, forest fires and dull trade. We are up to date, away ahead of any previous season. Why? Clear-sighted men and women have discovered where they can get best and the most for their money in wall paper; in gloss white enamel paint, that will not turn yellow on exposure; in curtains that go up and down; in bicycles that will run ahead of anything on the road; in fishing tackle that catches the trout; in books and stationery that will interest you; in the news counter that has all the news that was, is and will be; and a good cigar that will smoke as free as the smoke in the forests.

That's why the people are flocking here as never before.

HARRY S. LLOYD.
