John J. Hinkle, who is employed in the coinage department of the U. S. Mint, at Philadelphia, came home to visit his wife and friends for two weeks. Mr. Hinkle is popular with our people and his great kindness to many Emporiumites while in the city of Brotherly Love has added many to his list of true friends. The "Cameron county Farmer" as he is dubbed in Philadelphia, is all right and just as popular with his Philadelphia as with his Emporium friends.

John H. Day, the popular and energetic Fourth street merchant, left last Friday to visit his sister at Schenectady, N. Y. Before returning home he will call on his New York city business friends and incidentally take a view of the famous Brooklyn bridge. In fact he will invade Brooklyn and see some other fellow's sister. He did not take us into his confidence, hence we are unable to say whether he will return home double teamed or not. His friends are wondering and hoping so.

Mr. Bedard and family, of St. Marys, visited in Emporium over Sunday.

Ralph C. Davison, we are informed, has recently secured a position in the Elk Tanning Company's office at Emporium.

Miss Marion Larrabee has been elected by the DuBois School Board, and has accepted the position, as teacher at that place. Miss Larrabee is one of our most highly talented and esteemed young school teachers, and we guarantee that the DuBois School Board has made no mistake in selecting her.

BRIEF MENTION.

Children's day will be observed at Moore Hill, July 8th. All are welcome.

Master Henry Pott entertained a number of his young friends Wednesday afternoon in honor of his 11th birthday.

Hon. S. S. Towler, Republican member Forest county, died at his home in Marienville, Tuesday morning, June 19th, aged 57 years.

Miss Dorothy Reinole, who is visiting G. M. Pott and family, invited some of her young friends to help celebrate her 14th anniversary on Wednesday.

An ice cream festival will be held at Howards Siding school house, Monday evening, July 2d, proceeds for benefit of the pastor. Your presence solicited.

Children's day was observed last Sunday at Howards Siding. The decorations were the best ever seen at that place and the children did splendid. Great credit is due Mrs. Close, Supt. and all others who assisted in making the day such a grand success.

Wm. Fisher, agent for the Williamsport hospital was in town on Friday and made the Press a pleasant call. The management of that popular institution desires to thank C. B. Howard & Company and their employees for their liberal donation during the past year.

The Rhoda Royal Show gave two very pleasing exhibitions here last Friday. Among the features with this aggregation this season are the Eddy family, six in number, all of whom are stars in their line of acrobatic specialties. The sixty-three horse act was the finest ever seen in this town, and proved beyond a doubt that Prof. Baris had a well earned reputation as a horse trainer. The horses were the nicest looking lot of animals that ever visited this place, showing every indication of good care. Madam Royal with her team of Arabian horses were something out of the usual order of trained equines and pleased the audience very much. The Rough Riders were an exciting and interesting feature. The show throughout is a clean and pure exhibition, the employees are polite and courteous and being under the able management of Mr. Tony Richardson it will no doubt remain so.

CELEBRATE THE FOURTH.—"A Patriotic Pair" is the title of a beautiful picture which will be given free to every reader of the "Great Philadelphia Sunday Press" next Sunday, July 1. The picture is 20 by 28 inches in size and presents two pretty children equipped for the celebration of the day. It is the work of a famous artist, and cannot fail to please every person. You had better order next "Sunday's Press" at once, so as to be sure to get this picture.

June Brides.

JONES-WILEY.

Yesterday was a red-letter day for June brides in Emporium and society was all agog with excitement. The marriage of Miss Sara A. Wiley to Mr. George Poole Jones, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. S. Wiley, was a large and fashionable gathering in honor of the popular young couple. Promptly at 6:30 the wedding march was heard in the distant parlor, Miss Anna Metzger presided at the piano. The bridal party entered the parlor and took their places in front of a bank of evergreens in the following order: Ushers, Messrs. G. H. Crawford, Maurice Judd, J. W. Kaye, Chas. T. Logan; the groom and his best man Geo. A. Walker, Jr.; Miss Grace McCaslin and Mr. Don M. Larrabee, bride's maid and groomsmen; Maid of Honor, Miss Jettie Wiley, sister of the bride; the bride learning on the arm of her brother, Charles Wiley. Rev. Robert McCaslin, pastor of Presbyterian church tied the knot quickly in a pleasant manner in the presence of one hundred and fifty guests. After hearty congratulations and an elaborate wedding supper served on the lawn on the historic banks of the Sinnamahoning, the happy couple departed on mail east for New York and Boston. We regret the lateness of the hour prevents us from doing full justice to this great social event. Miss Wiley is the youngest daughter of the late Judge Wiley and has always been greatly respected by our people. The groom has resided here for some time and is a stockholder and Secretary of the the Keystone Powder Manufacturing Company. Both are popular and have hosts of friends. Their friends remembered Mr. and Mrs. Jones handsomely—the presents being very numerous and valuable.

The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Scheu, Buffalo; Mr. Loder, New York.

WHITE-COYLE.

A pleasant home wedding took place last evening at the residence of Mrs. E. Coyle, on Fifth street, the happy occasion being the marriage of Miss Ella S. to Mr. Edward D. White. The wedding was private, only a few intimate friends of the family being invited. The ceremony was performed in the handsomely decorated parlor, Rev. T. H. Downey officiating. Promptly at 7:30 the bridal party entered the parlor, Miss Birde Taggart presiding at the piano, in the following order: Miss Margery Coyle, sister to bride, and Mr. W. H. Croughn, of Wilkes-Barre, bride's maid and groomsmen; Miss Jessie Norris, of Kane, bride's maid, followed by the bride and groom. Father Downey quickly said the fatal words and then commenced an hour's jolly good time. Mrs. Coyle had prepared one of her famous dinners and it is needless to add that it was enjoyed by those present. Mr. and Mrs. White were the recipients of many handsome compliments. The bride, who has resided in Emporium for many years, is a jolly young lady and we believe will make a good wife and helpmate, having received from a kind, good mother all those fine qualities desired in an ideal wife. The groom, Mr. White, who has resided here about one year, is Secretary of the Emporium Furnace Company, and is a gentleman of good address and excellent reputation. We greatly esteem the young couple and extend our best wishes for their future.

Mr. and Mrs. White departed on Erie mail for eastern points to be absent ten days. The following out-of-town guests were present: Mrs. Wm. Hoover, Williamstown, sister to groom; Mr. W. H. Croughn, Wilkes-Barre, cousin to bride; Miss Jessie Norris, of Kane.

MOORE-MONTGOMERY.

Yesterday afternoon at the Presbyterian parsonage, by Rev. R. McCaslin, Captain Joseph Franklin Moore, of Butler, Pa., and Ada May Montgomery, of Sonora, Pa., were made man and wife. The groom is a Captain in the 16th Regiment, State Militia, and was with his regiment in the late war with Spain, leaving his school work as Principal of Mt. Lebanon schools, near Pittsburgh, to serve his country. Since the close of the war he has returned to his school work. Miss Montgomery has been one of the most popular and successful teachers in the Butler public schools. They are young people of sterling worth. The contracting parties are old and intimate friends of Rev. McCaslin.

SHERWOOD-DARRIN.

Miss Mae Darrin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Darrin, was married at Sterling Run, yesterday morning, to Mr. Mark C. Sherwood, of Coudersport, Rev. M. C. Piper officiating. The bridal party stopped in Emporium last night, guests at the Warner House, and left this morning for Coudersport. The Press congratulates the happy couple. F. L. Webster and wife and Miss Shepherd, also of Coudersport, were among the party.

DuBois vs Emporium.

The DuBois and Emporium base ball teams will cross bats at this place tomorrow afternoon, at 3:00 o'clock. It will be a popular game. It is hoped our citizens will all attend and help the boys meet the expenses. If you are not willing to contribute you should not have the cheek to witness the game.

For the next sixty days I will give away one Cabinet mounted on a 10x12 dark green card, with every dozen of my $4.00 cabinets.

What Do You Mean?

Sorry we can't write up the pedigree of a delegate-at-large, but as we have an alternate in the person of Hon. S. S. Smith, we wish to say he is not related to Queen Victoria, nor has he any royal blood in his veins, although he hails from Canada, but can fight a political battle and put to flight all the Quay ring and royal blood in Cameron county, and this counts more than all the pretty things said about him—Independent.

What is the political editor of the Independent trying to get through him? The Democrats of Cameron can pull chestnuts from the fire for Guffy et al. but never in their lives will they be honored as Cameron was by the Republicans of Pennsylvania with two delegates-at-large. If you ever do you will no doubt be gladly willing to do them the honor of a write up, just as the Press would do, no matter what their political affiliations might be. But, gentlemen, you would have to look a long time for men in this county, who are more closely identified with Cameron county. Mr. Green is an able gentleman, a large property owner and tax-payer, while Mr. Barclay, (who was elected an alternate, but acted as delegate in place of Mr. Elverson, of the Inquirer,) is the senior member of the firm of Barclay Bro.'s with an investment in this county of nearly $500,000 and employing hundreds of men. With all his royal blood he is a genuine American citizen and is proud of that fact and proud of his country and its institutions, in fact he served his country in battle and suffered in rebel prison pens that those institutions might live. Both gentlemen have a little fight left yet and no cry of "Quay" or "royal blood" will count this year in Cameron. That old chestnut is dead and the agitators are dead yet. In the light of the recent past it is a little tough for the Independent to brag when they well know they could not elect a single candidate in this county were it not for the help of the Republicans. The "royal blood" and former "Quay blood" will meet you in the future, then a story we will tell.

POINTED COMMENT.

The chances are that the Hon. Ben Tillman knows every bit as much about emperors as he does about armor-plate.

The Hon. David B. Hill has come to life for platform writing purposes. His production shows that he has not forgotten the art of dodging.

It is now believed that in his early childhood the Hon. Wm. Sultzer, one of the latter-day Democratic leaders, swallowed a toy bellows.

Thomas Jefferson was never frightened by the cry of "imperialism." Nor did he ever consort with and encourage the enemies of his country.

Nothing will so indicate the non-progressiveness of Democracy as a platform pledged in favor of the free registry of foreign (chiefly British) built ships from the Kansas City convention.

Mr. Bryan has seen fit to reverse himself upon the subject of anti-trust legislation. Possibly he did this in order to be consistent on other questions where he has held dual opinions.

Public officers who fear the daylight are not to be trusted. The accused Tammany men are seeking the obscurity of the law's technicalities.

The Democratic fight on the trusts makes a delightful campaign piece to the Democratic sympathy for the Boers. Both are for grand-stand purposes only.

Mules are not kicking these days. They find they are better appreciated and better treated because they are worth $12 a head more to the farmers this year than they were at the beginning of 1897, before the Republican Administration.

During President Harrison's term of office, the total customs receipts under the McKinley tariff amounted to $209,445,000 more than the receipts derived from the Wilson bill under President Cleveland. A tariff for revenue only is a misnomer.

Approximate expenditures on account of our war with Spain, during the years 1898 and 1900 inclusive, amounted to $372,000,000. Taking this sum out of the total expenditures during that period, the surplus of revenue during the first three years of President McKinley's term would have been over $317,000,000.
