Our New Railroad.

Frank Greco, of Galeton, the bustling Italian railroad contractor, was in Emporium on Tuesday, transacting business in connection with the construction of the Buffalo & Susquehanna R. R. to Sinnamahoning. Mr. Greco informed the PRESS scribe that the road had been graded within six miles of Sinnamahoning. It is the intention of Messrs. Goodyear to have that extension of their road in operation this fall.

Hungry.

At the request of a committee of one hundred on India Famine Relief, The First National Bank of Emporium will receive money gifts, or checks drawn to the order of Jno. C. Brown, Treasurer, which will be forwarded direct to India by cable without expense. Two to five cents a day will save life. Two dollars will save a life until next harvest. Five dollars will give a meal to 250 starving people.

Daniel Odell Stricken.

Dan Odell, of North Union street, had a stroke of paralysis Monday morning between 8 and 9 o'clock, which rendered his whole right side useless, besides depriving him of his speech. His condition is very serious and he may not be able to withstand the shock. At any rate he is helplessly crippled for life.—Olean Democrat.

Mr. Odell, who was formerly a resident of Emporium, is father to Ora Odell, of this place. Up to this (Tuesday) we have been unable to learn the full particulars of Mr. Odell's misfortune, but shall endeavor to ascertain his condition before going to press. We hope our old friend will rally from the shock and live many years.

LATER.—At the hour of going to press we learn from the relatives of Mr. Odell, in this place, that he is slowly recovering and is not as bad as reported above. We are glad to learn this.

Sherwood-Darrin.

In our last issue of the PRESS a brief mention was made of the marriage of Miss May Darrin, at Sterling Run, to Mr. Mark C. Sherwood, of Ellsburg, Pa., at the residence of our old friend J. H. Darrin, Wednesday morning, June 27, 1900, Rev. M. C. Piper, of Sinnamahoning, Pastor of M. E. Church, officiating. A friend kindly sent us the particulars of the pleasant wedding, but too late for publication, we gladly give space to same in this issue: Promptly at 8:00 o'clock, a. m., the bridal party, consisting of Mr. George Darrin and Miss Minnie Shepard, as bride's maid and groomsmen, followed by the bride and groom, entered the guest chamber, which was beautifully decorated, and there in the presence of many witnesses the sacred knot was tied. The bride was dressed in cream albatross, trimmed with white satin. After many congratulations was extended the bridal party with their host of friends partook of a sumptuous wedding breakfast. Everything was unusually pleasant and in order. The bride and groom left on the evening train on their wedding tour. The writer joins with their many friends in wishing them much joy and happiness.

The New Road.

The new road that starts at the foot of Broad street, which is intended to reach the top of Whittmore Hill, Bryan Hill, Moore Hill and Mason Hill will be an achievement of the enterprise and pluck of the people of Emporium. There are men who always want to get to the top of the hill by means of a "pull"; but while they are looking around for somebody to pull them up, the man on the road who plods steadily onward generally reaches the top while the other man is still hunting for the pull. Stick to the Broad street road until it reaches the tops of the hills. When it is finished it may be a little winding, and sometimes dusty, and it may not always be picturesque; but you can't get lost on it and there will be no danger of stepping off the end, for honest work is the only "sure thing" that will take you to the top of the hills. Again, some men are hunting for a short road to fortune in speculation. Ninety-nine out of every hundred men who start out on that trail are either led over a precipice or into the boggy lands by that "a sure thing." If you keep in the old road of honesty, decision, concentration of purpose, industry, economy; and by putting your savings in a bank or by securing a Home Savings bank, the end of the road on the hills is success.

TO PHILADELPHIA.

Many W. N. Y. & P. Clerks Will be Affected by the Reorganization —Ordered to go to Philadelphia.

From information gleaned by a Commercial representative it is probable that the official announcement of the absorption of the Western New York & Pennsylvania and Allegheny Valley roads by the Pennsylvania and the reorganization and unification of the same will not develop anything new outside of what has already appeared in these columns. The removal of the auditor's, treasurer's and car-service departments to Philadelphia will necessitate the transfer of about thirty-five men, officials and clerks included.

The employees have received information that if they desire to retain their positions in these offices they will have to move to Philadelphia.

The operating department will be in charge of George W. Creighton, who is spoken of as a very accomplished and talented railway man.

The duties of traffic officers will be territorially divided so as not to conflict, and there will not be any material change in this department. This will be good news to the friends of the traffic officials.

For eighteen solid years General Passenger Agent J. A. Fellows has worked with vim and vigor to bring the passenger end of the W. N. Y. & P. up to a high standard and he has accomplished it. Today the passenger service of this road compares favorably with that of any in the country.—Buffalo Commercial.

Letter from Isaac Barber.

Our old friend, and one of Cameron's most respected citizens, Isaac Barber, of Sinnamahoning, has gone to Michigan to visit friends and try his luck fishing and hunting. In a recent letter to Mr. O. L. Bailey, Mr. Barber writes, under date of June 29th, from Oscoda, Mich., and says: "I arrived at Battenfelder's Friday morning and went fishing after dinner, about eighty rods from the house. I caught about six pounds of trout, one measuring 17½ inches long and weighed four pounds. You thought the trout I caught in Jerry Run a large one, but it was nothing compared with this. I am very well pleased with this country, as far as I have seen it. Battenfelder's are all well. I am the first person from Pennsylvania to visit them."

A Day's Outing.

Last Friday, Mr. Henry Auchu, President of the Emporium & Rich Valley R. R., invited Dr. Good, of Philadelphia, John J. Hinkle and ye editor to accompany him over the road and view their extensive lumber operations. All hands enjoyed the day's outing and especially the grand ride over the mountains. It is a grand sight and more of our citizens should avail themselves of the privilege before the lumber is removed from Bobby Run. The new line up Cook's Run opens up a large body of timber—hemlock and hardwood. The road is well built and the ride is a pleasant one to take. We must not forget to mention the elegant dinner served at Smith's camp, on Cook's Run, but we shall not mention how much we ate—hungry men always relish a good meal, especially in a lumber camp. Howard & Company feed their men the best the market affords and actually serve pie—raisin pie. Gosh! but it was good and would put to blush some of the pie eaters or makers. But, we had a good time and we regret our inability to do full justice, in this short description, of the grandeur of a ride through the virgin timber. Our readers can rest assured we did to the pie.

We desire to thank Mr. Auchu, the Company's foreman Jos. J. Lingle, the trainmen and the cooks for their kindness to the party.

FIVE O'CLOCK TEA.

Last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Gallagher entertained several friends at five o'clock tea.

PLEASANT OCCASION.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Auchu entertained a number of personal friends last Saturday evening right royally. All enjoyed the occasion.

PLEASANT SOCIAL EVENT.

Last Thursday evening a crowd of our young people gave a party at Wiley's grove in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Howard's guests, Mrs. George Goshorn and son, George Hoffman Goshorn, of Charleston, W. Va., and Miss Mingle of New York City.

Nine o'clock found a gay assemblage present at the pavillion which was artistically decorated with Japanese lanterns, and to the music of the only, original Shadman's orchestra, the evening's program was inaugurated with the ever enlivening "Walk Around," and soon the woods rang with the shouts and laughter of the merry revellers. Owing to the skillful efforts of Messrs. Kaye and Logan a large bonfire was built near by whose flickering rays added much charm to the scene and soon caused the odor of delicious coffee to become perceptible. Under the directions of Mr. Howard who, in his usual dignified manner, officiated as master of ceremonies and was ably assisted by Geo. A. Walker Jr., as floor manager the fun and merriment was continued until a late hour, admitting only of a brief intermission during which a dainty lunch, prepared by Mrs. Howard, was served. Only when the candles had burned at both ends and the fire been reduced to smouldering embers did the happy group depart from the scene of their evening's pleasure and were conveyed to their homes by means of the efficient service of the Sizerville Bus Line.

Quite Seriously Injured.

Several days ago Chester Hockley, Geo. Hockley and Chas. Hockley started on their wheels for their annual visit to friends in Williamsport, Watertown and Maney, expecting at the latter place to have a grand time on grandfather's farm. All went merrily until Monday when the boys each mounted a horse and started down the old familiar road. One of the horses felt his oats and corn and became unmanageable—the one Chester rode—and pulled for some trees. Chester stuck to his back until the horse threw him with great force against a large chestnut tree, injuring his left hip quite seriously. His companions were compelled to leave him lying in the field until they hastened back to the farm for a horse and carriage, when he was conveyed to the doctor's for treatment. The doctor found no bones broken but the patient in great pain and seriously bruised. The boys claim that if Chester had struck his head against the tree it would have killed him, so hard was he thrown. The young man was brought to his home at this place Tuesday evening and conveyed to the home of his father, Mr. A. Hockley, where Dr. A. W. Baker is attending him. He will no doubt be confined to his home for some time.

Brains in a Button.

One of the best of the campaign buttons reads: "The people will not vote themselves into the poorhouse twice in eight years." There is considerable brain on that button.—Baltimore "American" (Rep).

Larabee the company's agent, in payment of policy No. 965,060, carried by the late Burdette Keller. Within eight days from the mailing of the certificate of guardianship and proofs of death the check was received, thus again demonstrating the fairness and promptness of this reliable company.

LLOYD'S LONG RANGE FORECAST OF THE WEATHER AND EASTMAN'S KODAK.

BOOMING.

Spring trade is booming, notwithstanding the general complaint of dealers about the weather, forest fires and dull trade. We are up to date, away ahead of any previous season. Why? Clear-sighted men and women have discovered where they can get best and the most for their money in wall paper; in glass white enamel paint, that will not turn yellow on exposure; in curtains that go up and down; in bicycles that will run ahead of anything on the road; in fishing tackle that catches the trout; in books and stationery that will interest you; in the news counter that has all the news that was, is and will be; and a good cigar that will smoke as free as the smoke in the forests.

That's why the people are flocking here as never before.

HARRY S. LLOYD.
