EDITORIAL MENTION.

The total gross earnings of railroads were $238,000,000 larger last year than much this year in Utah as they were worth in 1895.

Every corn-fed steer in Nebraska is now worth $12 to $16 more than in 1896. Farmers in that State will hardly vote for Democratic times again.

The American claim to unrestricted facilities of trade in China was based on treaty rights, which were about to be ignored when our claim was made and secured.

President McKinley urged that the duties to be levied under the Dingley tariff should "revive and increase manufacturers." This has been done, as our wage-earners well know.

The carrying of our vastly increased foreign commerce benefits only foreign vessels, to which the American people pay over $200,000,000 each year in

Under the operation of the Wilson free trade tariff for revenue only, there was a deficit of $108,000,000 in thirty five months. Under the Dingley tariff for protection there was a surplus of $46,000,000 in thirty-two months.

Under this Administration, our farm. ers, merchants and manufacturers have been assured that the markets of China would be always open to them in equal competition with other nations.

There is another kind who always pays when you present the bill, be it one or five years' subscription. You must go after it but it is always waiting 1 1 never take a receipt, leaving it to the Reeves, Austin; Mr. D. C. Haines, editor's honesty to give him proper credit. This man doesn't know exactly when his paper does expire, but he is good pay just the same.

The increase in the foreign trade of the United States during the fiscal year just closed, as compared with the previous year, will probably aggregate over three hundred millions of dollars -by far the greatest in our historyand yet the proportion of our trade carried in American vessels was the lowest of any previous year.

Nebraska hogs sold in Omaha, May 31st, at $4.50 per head more than on the same date four years ago, yet the World-Herald, Mr. Bryan's personal organ, which is published in Omaha, asserted very vigorously during the 1896 campaign that the prices of no farm products could advance without the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

Since the 4th of March, 1897, Congress has authorized the construction of forty-nine ships, with a total displacement of 245,484 tons. This includes eight battleships of the first class; six armored cruisers of the first class; four monitors and nine protected cruisers. There have been completed and placed in commission, in the same time, a total of thirty-two vessels, with an aggregate displacement of 52,681 tons. This is an unexampled record, and it could only have been accomplished by a Republi-an open letter to the Independent of that place last week, criticises an article which recently appeared in this paper in reference to the Congressional conference of fourteen years ago, when McKean and Cameron counties were connecte I with Potter, Tioga, Lycoming and Sullivan in a Congressional We took the position in the district. article referred to, that Mr. Emery, McKean jounty's delegate, insisted upon the no mination from the beginning of the conference to the end and objected to his cor ferees voting for any other candidate if there was the ghost of a chance for the nomination of that candidate. In response to that statement Mr. Taggart says: "The facts in the case are that Hon. L. Emery, Jr., offered to end the contest by nominating Jos. Cochran on the first ballot at the time the convention convened in Emporium, and this offer remained open to the Judge until the end of the convention."

Mr. Taggart adds to his signature the words, "conferee of above referred to convention." The editor of the MINER was not a conferee in that convention and he must depend largely upon those who were and the files of this paper, for data in reference to it. One fact has recently come to his knowledge and that is that Mr. Cochran's candidacy was in the interest of Hon. Clay Mc-Cormick, the Lycoming candidate, that Mr. Cochran had no more idea of representing this district in Congress than he had of representing this country at the Court of St. James. Mr. Emery knew perfectly well and so did his conferees, that the voting now and then for Cochran was altogether perfunctory and cut no figure in the nomination of a congressman.

Mr. Taggart is one of the few men, professing to be Republicans, who met in Warren recently and nominated Mr. Emery for Congress. They represented no party and very few people. Their stock in trade is to overthrow the regular Republican organization of the 27th Sheep are worth more than twice as district. They will find when the votes are counted in November that there are less sore-heads in the district than they counted on and that their efforts have proven an ignominious failure.-McKean Miner.

Jolly Fourth Pic-nic.

The Fourth of July pic-nic held on the grounds of the Three Mile School house was a complete success.

The grounds had been prepared by the committee and shade trees were placed around the tables. The tables, seats and platform were put in readiness for the guests. At about nine o'clock jolly parties began to arrive. Mrs. Llewella Moore had kindly loaned her organ for the occasion and at intervals during the day all were entertained with choice selections by Miss Alice Lewis

About the noon hour the good things which were hidden in baskets, etc., were placed on the tables and over a hundred persons feasted on the abundance of luxurious eatables

Those present from abroad were: Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Leggett and granddaughter, Messrs. Claude Lyons and Willis Gaskill, of West Creek; Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Taylor and children, Mrs. Swartwood, Miss Carrie Swartwood, Mrs. Pearl Hopple, Messrs. Claude Swartwood, Anson Swartwood, Beverly Housler, Frank Easterbrooks and Alex. McCauley, Emporium; Mrs. Lyman Lewis and son, Mrs. Vernie Lewis and children, Mr. and Mrs. Anson Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lewis and children, Miss Dessie Lewis, Miss Keefer, Mrs. Jos. Craven and children, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Newton, son and grand-daughter, Mrs. Bernice Moore, Miss Gertie Barton, Messrs. Murdic McNeal and Wm. There some who pay on the street, Thompson, Rich Valley; Mr. Fred Granere

Dinner over ice cream was served to all. Then the company was seated within hearing distance from the platform where the entertainment of the day was executed. Many selections were rendered. Music was furnished by a quartette composed of Mrs. Llewella Moore, Miss Alice Lewis, Messrs. D. N. Chandler and Chas. Chadwick, Mrs. D. N. Chandler presiding at the organ. Mr. Chandler and Mr. Chadwick each rendered a solo, delighting their hearers. The songs all being patriotic received much applause. The young ladies decorated with the national colors looked charming.

The company in search of more amusement then retired to the dam, a half mile distant, to witness the tub races, etc. After an hour of enjoyment at this point the party returned to the grounds where the remainder of the day was spent amusing the children at the swing and in games. When evening came the company dispersed for their respective homes, with expressions of satisfaction with their outing.

An Epidemic of Diarrhoea.

OBSERVER,

Mr. A. Sanders, writing from Cocoanut Grove, Fla., says there has been quite an epidemic of diarrhoea there. He had a vere attack and was cured by four dos of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says he also recommended it to others and they say it is the best medicine they ever used. sale by L. Taggart.

Letter From Nome.

DEAR ONES ALL:—
I'm writing this under difficulties, using for a I'm writing this under difficulties, using for a writing desk a piece of wood, in our tent, by 11 o'clock p. m. sun light. Sun goes down at 11:30 p. m. and up again at 1:30 a. m. There is no night here at this time of year. This is a great sight, there being thirty to forty thousand people camping right here and more boats co in every day. There is also about thirty to thirty five thousand discouraged people. Hundreds of them are going back on the same boats they came on. The last three days there has been six suicides and yesterday two murders occured up in town. I guess people coming here must have had the erroneous idea that they could pick up we give it a month's trial and find nothing, then we may commence to feel blue. The last four days we have been building a boat and now have her finished and will pull out of here tomorrow night. We expect to go up the beach towards York anywhere from twenty to sixty miles. No doubt there is lots of gold here, but think most of the best has been taken. If we find a good place on the beach we will pitch our tent and vork it. I have had a frightful cold, but am getting better now. I can tell you, though, this is a hard, a very hard proposition; one has to work like a horse, but it will be easier when we get our boat to carry our "stuff" in. Things are very cheap here; 25c to wink your eye, cup of coffee and sandwich one big dollar. We are independent of the robbers, as we have two months' pro-visions. We did, however, buy some bread and few eggs; eggs are only $1.00 a doz.

For supper we had fried potatoes, bacon and ggs, bread and butter and coffee. We brought lo pounds of butter with us from Seattle and it's immense. Amos Fenton is putting some finish-ing touches on the boat while I am boiling some peans. We have a fine stove, burns wood or oil: but we have been burning wood since here: the has been plenty of driftwood but it's getting scarce now. I wenttwo miles to get a load today. scarce now. I went two miles to get a load today. Oil is $1.00 a gallon. The price of things is bound to come down, as they are unloading tons upon tons of freight here.

The lumber for our boat cost $20.00; could get the same in Emporium for about $1.50. We had a man help us one day with our boat, he only charged $1.50 per hour. Many people are dis-couraged, as they came here to work, and there is no work to be done except for carpenters. I am going to bed soon and I suppose you are thinking of getting up as it is 6 a. m., there now. The weather here is not had. It has rained two days since we landed; the other days the sun has been shining, but the wind is cold. I wonder if father's garden is as nice as the one I had last year. How is Master Lloyd and all the children? How I would like to drop in and see you all. Remember me to Major Jessop. With love to all. How is the League coming on?

Well, we are off tomorrow for the yellow stuff.

Good night,
W. P. LLOYD.

Nome City, Alaska, June 20, 1900.

Letter from N. Seger.

I promised to write you and will do so now. I arrived at Paris, June 22d, on Steamer "Pretoria," via Cherbourg. This is a handsome boat, being 585 feet long, sixty feet wide, There were 350 first-class, 120 second-class and about one thou-sand sterage passengers on board, also heavily loaded with freight and a large number of horses. A Buffalo shipped for Paris died on the ocean. The fare on board was good. The last evening before landing all passengers assembled in the dining room. When all were seated the electric lights were shut off until the waiters, sixty in imber, appeared in the dining room carrying e cream when the fancy electric lights were flashed on the large gathering. It was a beauti-ful sight. I have seen some of the Exposition, will see more to-day and to-morrow. I leave here in a couple of days for Germany, to visit my old home and will return to Paris again. I shall be glad to get home again—there is no place like e. I will return to United States as soon as nyself, only there is too much French to undertand when you can't talk it.

Respectfully,

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought

Manila Letter.

NUEVA CACERES, P. I., April 11, 1900.

Mrs. Chas. Ross,
Buckwalter, Pa.
DEAR AUNT:—Your request through Bro. Ed.
for a letter has reached me and I will try to comply with the esteemed request. It is a hard mat-ter to find a subject of interest to you, but one which I think will most likely interest you is that of our trip, which I will briefly outline, from home to Manila, with a few sights en route, and a short sketch of Army life. Also describe its people, customs, fruits and climate.

I left home Aug. 4th, enlisted at Williamsport Aug. 5th, 1899, was sent to Harrisburg, then to Columbia Barracks, Columbus, Ohio, and stopped there nearly two weeks and then went acros ontinent to the Presidio Barracks, San Francisc Cal., and was there long enough to explore the world-famous city with its China town. It's a sight worth seeing but far behind some I have since seen. On Sept. 2d we went on board the U. S. army transport "Warren." We left on Sept 3d at 1 o'clock, a. m., and my first awakening o board a ship was out on the briny ocean thirty miles from land, thus leaving my home, my na-tive land while asleep and unconscious of my surroundings. For nineteen days and nights the good ship tiful harbor of Yokohoma, Japan, where we wer anchored two days loading coal, during which time I spent running around on shore. One day I went out to the Capital of Japan, Tokio or Yeddo, eighteen miles journey, or two hours ride on a cute little railroad running from Yokohom to Yeddo then to Nagasaki on the west coast, the only railroad in Japan. The Capitol is a city of ower a million people, built on the tops of seventy hills. Its one-story, thatched roof buildings look, at a distance, like a field of toad stools; the fifteen hundred church steeples look like so many straws sticking up through the toad stools. This was my first impression of Japan's Capital. They are queer people, small, but very active on their feet. One thing particularly noticeable in Japan is that there are never any beggars. The wome running around look like little girls and wear their hair fieatly done up in a knot on top of their heads. Japan is exquisitely beautiful in its en-tirety. Green fields of rice and tea, and flowers everywhere. We left Japan after passing through the inland sea and stopping at Nagasaki and proceeded on to Manila, arriving there on Oct. 5, 1899, at 11 p. m., and our first night's sleep on Manila soil wa on the "real thing"-the ground. On the 6th w were martialed out of the walled city and divided into companies. I joined the artillery, and on the 7th of Oct. was sent forty miles north by rail, to San Fernando where my battery was stationed On the 10th we marched north, passing throug Mexico, Santa Anna, and had a fight at Arayat on the 12th, another at San Isidro on the 19th, and at Santa Rosa on the 29th. Bullets whistled close and I had many narrow escapes. We kep on the northern march, fighting our way until w reached Began and Lewog, the latter town is at the norte-west end of the island over 200 miles from Manila. We marched over 300 miles all through the rainy season with mud and water nearly waist deep all the time. There we stayed until the 1st of January when we marched back to Dagupan and there took the train for Manila, arriving on Jan. 3d, 1900. Here we received our pay and on the 6th started south through Cavite Province, had a fight at Innes and stopped a Dos Merenes. Feb. 1st we were ordered to move back into Manila, where we remained until Feb. 1sth, when we left on transport for the Southern end of the island, arriving here on the 2sth, and had an all day fight with niggers with bows and arrows, and have been quartered here ever sinc with the exception of a trip into the interior fo 12 days from the 15th to 27th. On the 19th, ult. we had two fights at Palanka, and on the 20th we had six hot fights within ten hours; captured many prisoners and guns and killed many more. One fourteen pound shell shot from the gun I am with killed 39 Insurrectors at Camalaiga on March 20th. We went on to Legaspi, returning the same way, and on the 22d had two more short fights. Since then we have done nothing but represent and scorch in the sun. We have fine quarters in a large building. I have a fine, large canopy topped mahogany bed to sleep in as also have others of my comrades.

Last Sunday a soldier of the 45th infantry had his head completely cut off by a bolo man. The bolo men are more dreaded than any others. They slip upon a person through the long grass or in the night and bolo you. The Bolo is a large curved knife very heavy and sharp, about two feet long. Sometimes as many as two hundred go together, a band stealing and killing. The climate here has been warm all the time nce the rainy season. The wet season begins about the middle of May and lasts until the mid dle of November, during which time it rains al nost constantly, all the low lands being inundated by about two feet of water. Mud, of course, is plentiful and drinking water very poor and warm.

Tropical fruits abound and can be had for the asking, such as bananas, pine-apples, cocoanuts, puppois, bread-fruit, mangols and guavos. Sweet potatoes, onions and cucumbers are found in some places, they having been brought here by the Spaniards. The people here is a mixture of nationalities, and about every nation is repre sented. The religion is strictly Catholic more beautiful than our American churches.

The people here live mostly on rice and fish and many of them have fine houses, horses and carriages and money to burn. All smoke eigarettes, men, women and children. Bamboo is the principal wood used although many expensive woods grow here, and money is plenty.
